THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

This morning, for the first time as members of St. Angela Merici Parish, we are gathered together to offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Together we worship Almighty God by offering Him Christ our Savior. Today very much like a large family, we give, thanks to God for the many blessings of health, prosperity and the Faith. From our meager beginning we will come forth as a strong and God loving people. United in spirit and spurred on by a common purpose, for the good of ourselves and especially our children, we will construct not only physical buildings but also a City of God.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Today we begin our new schedule of Sunday Masses--already a sign of progress for St. Angela. The two Masses were added to accommodate the more than fourteen hundred parishioners who attended Mass last Sunday. The sacrifices we make will be repaid by rich blessings from Almighty God. Today we are grateful to the Redemptorist Father from St. Alphonsus Parish for his assistance in celebrating two Masses. All parishioners are encouraged to join in the Latin responses at Mass. Your attention at prayer will be greatly enhanced by actively using the missal and loudly joining in community prayer. The more than 500 parishioners who received Holy Communion last Sunday are reminded to say "Amen" when the priest says, "Corpus Christi" ("Body of Christ"). This permits you to actively participate in and approve of the fact that you are receiving the Body of Jesus Christ.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Every human being shares a common characteristic in that he is a child of God, created to His image and likeness. Every Christian in the world accepts the fact that Jesus Christ is his Lord and Savior. He is intent upon following a certain way of living, dictated not by the standards of the world, but by Christ, "I am the way". Every Parishioner of St. Angela joins with all other parishioners each Sunday to worship Almighty God at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. This unites every parishioner to each other. This makes each parishioner somewhat responsible for his neighbor. Each Sunday God turns His attention to all of us in prayer. He smiles down upon us and blesses our efforts. He sees those who are present and those who are absent. He accepts our words of praise and love. As you leave Mass every Sunday, smile at your neighbor. You were united in prayer why not be united in friendliness?

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

ON TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY nights of this week we have our first two organizational meetings of St. Angela parish for men and ladies respectively. This is your opportunity to become actively engaged in the affairs of St. Angela parish. No parish can function properly without the support, cooperation and backing of all parishioners. Every man and woman can contribute something even if it be one or two hours of work per month. With energetic participation on the part of all parishioners, St. Angela will be able to achieve all of its goals and projects. The two meetings will be held at Leon's, 706 Phosphor Street, at 7:30 P.M. All present will have the chance to volunteer for various activities.
