THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MISSION SUNDAY. Today is the 50th Anniversary of Mission Sunday. Remember the needy in mission lands, that through your prayers and sacrifices the Mission Church may serve the spiritual and physical needs of our brothers and sisters around the world. Special envelopes for the second collection this Sunday have been mailed to all parishioners. We ask for your usual generosity in this collection.

PAINTING OF CHURCH BEGINS. Painting of the entire interior of the church will begin this week and last for about a month. During the painting and replastering work certain areas will be restricted during weekdays. However all services will continue as usual. The entire church will be available for all weekends and holydays. This will be the first painting of the church since its construction in 1965. Leakage and falling plaster were badly in need of attention. As soon as the painting project is complete the carpeting will be given a very thorough cleaning. Both projects should be completed by early December. We ask you to be patient with the inconvenience during these weeks. Cost of both projects ($6300) will be taken from our deposited funds with the Archdiocese, not from our current operating budget.

PARENTS OF 2nd GRADERS who are not enrolled in the Parish Religion Program at St. Angela's (St. Angela School or CCD) please contact Sr. Mary Magdalen at 835 8492 between 9am and 3pm. These children must be registered to prepare for reception of their First Holy Communion on March 13th.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGY READINGS. Because Our Lord speaks in the language and imagery of apocalyptic, which is by its nature highly imaginative and symbolic, his words are not to be pressed for actual details of the end. What biblical faith does assert, however, is that human history lies under God's power, within the scope of his redemptive plan, and that one day it will be brought to an end so that the final phase of his Kingdom can succeed it. God's kingdom cannot be brought in by human effort. Our role is to prepare to receive it by accepting His graces in all events of our lives and to strive for those aspects of His Kingdom realizable now - justice, peace, love. "Christ has died. Christ is risen, Christ will come again." The Eucharist stands as a perfect expression of our faith: it points back to the historical events of Christ's death and resurrection and forward to his return.

PAINTING COMPLETED. As you have noticed the painting of the interior of the church has been completed ahead of schedule. Shortly, the cleaning of the carpeting will begin so that by Thanksgiving the entire church will have been completely painted and cleaned. The sacristies and restrooms were painted by our maintenance staff during the summer.

ECUMENICAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE. On Wednesday, November 24 at 8pm (the night before Thanksgiving), St. Angela Parish will participate in an ecumenical prayer service with St. Clement of Rome Parish and the Jewish Congregation of Gates of Prayer. The service will be held at the Gates of Prayer Congregation, 4000 W. Esplanade. The clergy of all three churches will lead the services which will be followed by a social. Guest speaker will be Bishop Stanley Ott, Auxiliary Bishop of New Orleans. All parishioners are invited and encouraged to attend. Parking is available at Gates of Prayer and St. Clement of Rome next door. Plan to join us for a prayerful evening. The service will last 45 minutes.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES will meet this Sunday. Students in grades 3 and 4 will have a Mass celebrated in the annex this Sunday at 11:00am. Parents of these students are invited to attend.

SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

CHRIST THE KING. God is the Alpha and the Omega (1st reading); all things began in Him and He is the end to which all must come. But what a devious course it turns out to be! It entailed the sending of His Son to show us the way back to Him. The Son, therefore, both by nature and by merit, holds rule over the whole created order. God's Kingdom, which has still to be realized in its perfection, should be a reality now in the life of every Christian. This it will be when each Christian heart submits itself to the kingship of Christ through obedience to his commands of love of God and love of neighbor.

THANKSGIVING DAY. On this day when we thank and praise the Lord for the blessings given our Country, Church, Parish and Families, you are invited to attend Mass as the fitting way for Catholics to thank the Lord. Thanksgiving Day is not a holyday of obligation but a voluntary opportunity to share in the Sacred Liturgy. Masses will be at 6:30 and 9:00 am. There will be no 8:30am Mass. The 9:00 Mass will be a special liturgy for the occasion.

FOOD FOR THE POOR. Parishioners are invited to bring canned food to both Masses on Thanksgiving Day. These foodstuffs are collected and distributed by our St. Vincent dePaul Society. The cans are to be brought to the altar and placed in the containers provided during the offertory of the Mass as a symbol of our returning a gift to God and his poor in thanksgiving for the many gifts He has given us.

CLOTHING FOR THE NEEDY OVERSEAS. Parishioners are asked to bring any useful clothing (especially lightweight clothes) in bags and place them next to the St. Vincent dePaul blue container under the overhang on the Pomona side next to the annex. The St. Vincent dePaul Society will arrange for this to be brought to the Central Depositories for shipping overseas. Clothing should be brought between November 22 and November 26.

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT. On Sunday, November 21, the annual second collection for the Campaign for Human Development will be taken in all churches of the Archdiocese. This collection enables the Bishops of the U. S. to begin new projects among the poverty areas of our country. The monies are used as "seed-money" grants for self-help projects. Please be generous.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

LITURGY READINGS. When the Son of David comes, he'll put everything right. That's what the Lord can do in our own hearts, and will. Be alert and watch for him because he's really on his way. Advent is a time to wake up and notice the signs. Aren't there startling signs right around us? Virtue and justice struggling with the powers of evil even today? Perhaps we're not noticing, though the earth is shaking right under our feet. Today we're gathered together to find Christ. He makes himself present right here so that we may be strengthened and may show him to others.

THE ADVENT WREATH. Never heard of an Advent wreath? It's a way of joining family prayer with the symbolism of the Church. Advent reminds us that there is still much darkness in the world. It is a darkness made up of sin, ignorance, hate and pride. To remind Christians of the growing power of Christ, the LIGHT, the Church has long made and used Advent wreaths. The wreath without beginning and end signifies eternity; the greens, life and growth; the four candles, three purple and one pink, represent the ages sitting in darkness and the shadow of death, each candle adding more light until on Christmas the light from the wreath sets off, as it were, the blaze of light on the tree of life, the Christmas tree, for the time is fulfilled. Where should you use your Advent wreath? In the room where Father, Mother and children work, play, read and pray together.

REPORT ON CHURCH CARPET. The entire interior carpeting in the church has now been completely professionally cleaned. This project finalizes our refurbishing of the church interior for the holiday season.

SALA GENERAL MEETING, Thursday, December 2th, 8pm, in the annex. A feature of the meeting will be an hors d'oeuvre tasting contest. Ladies are invited to prepare their favorite holiday dish and contact Barbara Bellevue (835 3472) or Jean Hare (833 9806) to enter for judging and prizes to be awarded. The program will also include entertainment by Mrs. Patti Quaid, well-known to New Orleans as lecturer and composer who has performed with the Pops Symphony.

RELIGION CLASSES will not be held on this Sunday. Classes will resume on Sunday, December 5th.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT

THE JESSE TREE. It looks very much like a Christmas Tree but it's not. The Jesse Tree is a special tree set up during Advent. It is the "Family Tree" of Jesus, and a reminder of the people who waited thousands of years for the coming of the Messiah, God's appointed Savior. It represents the genealogy of Christ beginning with Jesse, the father of King David. The idea for the Jesse Tree was taken from the prophet Isaiah: "a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots a bud shall blossom". Each symbol on the tree reminds us of someone in the Old Testament. This tree has special meaning for us as we go through this Advent time of staying awake, alert, and preparing for the "coming of Jesus". It must have been difficult for our spiritual ancestors to wait, watch and hope for so many years. Yet their patience was rewarded far beyond their hope. So we too will be rewarded if we wait with hope in the midst of today's discouragement.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, December 8th, is a holyday of obligation and Masses will be offered on Tuesday at 5:30pm, and on Wednesday at 7, 8:30, 9:45, 12noon, 6:00 and 7:15pm.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

TODAY'S READINGS speak of joy in the midst of everyday reality. Christ can so fill our lives that he blots out our fears and anxieties. Christianity seems unrealistic since anxiety, pain and sorrow are always with us. Yet, have we never met someone who really does radiate the peace and joy of faith? And haven't there been times when faith and hope worked for us, to get us through troubles? At such times we are most in touch with what is most real, God Himself. Our Eucharistic celebration is a sort of "unrealistic" moment, when we step out of everyday life to saturate ourselves with hope and trust in the most real Lord, so that we can carry on.

"O" ANTIPHONS (see cover) As Christmas Day comes closer, the Church can hardly restrain herself from expressing her longing for Emmanuel. The seven "O" Antiphons are the expression of her anticipation. They are seven jewels of liturgical song, one for each day, from the evening of December 17th to December 24th. They sum up the Advent longing of all ages and are a precious part of Christmas preparation.

SAMA GENERAL MEETING on Thursday, December 16, 8pm, in the annex. Christmas refreshments and food will be served and a football film shown. All men of the parish are invited.

SENIOR CITIZENS! The Christmas Party for the Senior Citizens will be on Wednesday, December 15, from 12:30 to 4:00pm. Please bring a covered dish for the Pot Luck Dinner we hope to enjoy. Also, please bring one gift, value about $2, marked if it is for a man or a woman. We will have entertainment. Please come - we're looking forward to this Christmas party.

ADULT PENANCE SERVICE will be on Monday, December 13, 7:30pm, in church. You are encouraged to participate in this special preparation for Christmas.

CYO PENANCE SERVICE for the youth of the Parish will be held this Sunday, 7:00pm in church. All high school youth are encouraged to attend this preparation for Christmas. Home Mass for the youth will be celebrated Wednesday, December 15, at the Hymel residence, 929 Hesper Ave. Please plan to attend.

St. Angela Merici

Parish Message

Is. 7/14; Mt. 1/23

Out of the insignificant town of Bethlehem the great one shall come. He will come, not preoccupied with legal requirements, but to do the Father's will. He is so powerful that he stirs hearts even before He is born.

Christmas comes again with the age-old message: It's not prestige, not even legal uprightness, that counts with God. What matters is the willingness to be His child. Christmas can make us all such children.

With faith we gather to celebrate the Lord's Supper. He feeds us and draws us to himself. We want to be one with Jesus our brother in serving God our Father.
