FEAST OF MARY, MOTHER OF GOD

TODAY'S FEAST fits beautifully into the Christmas cycle. Mary's role in God's plan is essential: God's Son came in the flesh, in concrete historical circumstances, "born of a woman, born under the law". Because Jesus is truly divine, Catholic tradition has always rightly bestowed on Mary the title "theotokos", Mother of God. It was not sufficient for Mary to be mother of Jesus. St. Luke repeatedly depicts her as pondering in her heart the things God has said and done. In this she is the model of the perfect disciple. We, too, must go beyond external signs by taking God's Word deep within our hearts, pondering it, and making it the wellspring of our lives.

NEW YEAR SCHEDULE:

Masses: Vigil Masses at 4:00 and 5:30pm, Saturday, Dec. 31.

New Year's Day: 7:00, 8:30, 9:45, 11:00, 12:15 & 5:30pm.

Confessions will be heard on Saturday, December 31 between 3:30 and 4:00, 5:00 and 5:30, 6:30 and 7:00pm.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL PARISHIONERS! May God fill your lives with happiness and a genuine desire to better yourselves as persons. Be more Christ-like in everything you do in the New Year.

OUR SINCEREST THANKS to all who assisted in making the Christmas Masses so beautiful and inspiring! A special thanks to those who decorated the church, set up the crib, the ushers, altar boys, organists and choir, lectors, songleaders and all who worked so hard in preparation. It was truly beautiful to see the large numbers of parishioners at the Masses.

OUR THANKS TO ALL for the lovely Christmas cards and gifts which made Christmas at the rectory especially nice. May God bless all of you during 1978!

SALA MEETING will be held on Thursday, January 5, at 8pm, in the annex. Mr. David Barnes, of the U.S. Weather Bureau, will be the guest speaker. All ladies of the parish are invited.

CYO ELECTION OF OFFICERS for 1978 will be held on Sunday, January 8, beginning at 7pm, in the annex. All members are urged to attend this important meeting.

PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

God, our Father, you bring us to the threshold of another year. Help us to face its responsibilities, joys and sorrows with the conviction of your constant love. We are sorry for the unfaithfulness of the past; wasted time, destructiveness and failure to live up to our baptismal commitment. Confident of your forgiveness, we willingly forgive those who wronged us. May each day's thoughts, words and actions bring us to everlasting life, where we will praise you and Jesus and the Holy Spirit forever.

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGY. This Sunday's gospel continues the theme of Epiphany - the manifestation of God's salvation in Christ. John the Baptist tells of how Jesus was manifested to him; he describes him in terms reminiscent of the servant of whom the first reading speaks. The Christian, too, is called to carry on the work of the Servant. Like him, we are "consecrated" (second reading) and called to the mission of manifesting God's glory and bringing his salvation to the ends of the earth. To share in the ministry of the Servant requires conformity to him and close unity with him. This means is given to us in the Eucharist - a source from which we can renew strength and dedication weekly and even daily.

ARCHBISHOP HANNAN has been selected by the N. O. Sales & Marketing Executives Association to receive the 1977 distinguished Salesman-at-Large Award, to be presented at the banquet, January 26, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel. The archbishop is the first clergyman to receive the award in its 27 year history. If you wish to attend call Richard Treuting at the Whitney Bank (586 7258) for tickets.

FIRST CONFESSIONS for students preparing to receive their First Holy Communion will be heard on Monday, January 16, at 7:30pm.

CCD NEWS: A special Mass will be celebrated for students in grades 1, 2, 3 this Sunday at 11:00am. Families are invited.

CONGRATULATIONS to the newly elected CYO Officers for 1978: Cherie Nicaud, President; Scott Sanders, Vice-President; Mary Zaeringer, Secretary; and Jeff Walther, Treasurer. Sincere thanks and appreciation to the outgoing officers (Mike Delesdernier, Greg Schindler, Beth Hymel and Charlie Becnel) for their leadership and services this past year.

SCHOOL NEWS: Due to SALA Bingo children are to bring lunch on Jan. 18. Parent-Teacher Conferences will be on January 19 & 20, between 9 and 4. Letters concerning conferences will be sent home. Monday, January 23, will be a school holiday.

ADULT EDUCATION

TUESDAY MORNING DISCUSSION GROUP has just begun the second series of discussions. The topic under discussion these six weeks is The Church In Today's World. Discussions are based on a book written to help people better understand the changes in the Church since Vatican II.

A Bible Discussion Group under the sponsorship of SALA will begin discussions on Tuesday, January 17, at 1:15. This series of discussions will continue through January and February. Another series will begin in March if the interest continues to grow. At the meeting on January 17, we will set the format of these discussions.

Sacramental preparation for Parents

On Tuesday, February 21, there will be an instruction for parents of children who will be preparing to receive First Holy Communion

This year we will have three evenings of instruction for both parents and candidates for Confirmation. The first of these evenings will be February 14/15. The instruction is repeated on two nights because the class is large and we would like to keep the groups small enough so that there will be opportunity for personal questions and response. Later evenings of instructions will be announced. Parents do, however, have these dates so they can be placed on calendars.

CHILDREN IN SECOND GRADE RELIGION CLASSES will be celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time on Monday evening, January 16 at 7:30. There will be a practice for all of the children on Monday, January 16 at 1:00 p.m. We ask the parents of children not in Saint Angela's School to bring their children to Church for this practice.

ALL PARENTS ARE INVITED TO BE PRESENT FOR THE CELEBRATION ON MONDAY EVENING.

PARISH LIBRARY

We remind all of the parishioners that the library for Saint Angela Merici Parish is now ready. There are many interesting spiritual books for your use. Please feel free to make use of this service. Sister Angela is at the Center every day. A very good time to select books is after Mass on Sunday. However, come and browse about, or spend some minutes reading in the lounge. You may find a book that is just what you are looking for.

JANUARY 27 is the feast of Saint Angela Merici, patroness of our Parish. During the next few weeks, Sister Mary Magdalen will be sharing some facts about Saint Angela at the various parish group meetings. Come and learn a little more about your parish patron saint.

CONFIRMATION

Approximately 170 young people in our parish will soon begin preparation for their reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation. This is a very important step in their lives. At Confirmation, they accept the faith of their baptism and commit themselves to live this faith to the best of their ability. It is a life-long work. It is not done on the evening of May 8 and then forgotten.

This year we are inviting the whole parish family to support the boys and girls in their decision to make this commitment. We invite your support through prayer and through your good example. There will be several parish-centered days during the preparation this year. In addition to the three planned evenings for the candidates and their parents, the candidates will be gift-bearers at the Sunday masses--the names and times will be listed; they will make their formal request to be received for the Sacrament at the Sunday masses on April 15/16; and will take part in an evening of prayer at the beginning of the formal preparation and a day of retreat just before the day of confirmation itself. They and we, priests and catechists, will be counting on the support of your prayers during this time.

Why Christ Came

Christmas means different things to different people. To Ann and Dean, it's gifts; to Mom, it's preparing the big dinner; to Grandfather, it's having everyone together once more. To the Christian, it's also Jesus' birth and what that means in God's program for mankind. The Bible tells us Christ came for these reasons:

1. To fulfill the law (Matthew 5:17). Mankind agonized under the unbearable burden of law. Christ came to fulfill its types and meet its every demand, thereby making its promises come to pass. The unfinished became complete in Him.
2. To show what God is like (John 14:7-10; Hebrews 1:1-3). Man had lost the knowledge of God he once enjoyed in Eden, and had substituted idols—grotesque projections of himself. Now Christ would show us God's true nature—that He is holy and just, and a loving and merciful Heavenly Father who tenderly cares for His children.
3. To light the way to God (John 12:46). Our pathway was dimmed by the darkness of sin and disobedience. The Lord Jesus came to show us the way to God through repentance and faith in Him.

4. To seek and save the lost (Luke 19:10; Matthew 18:11). Like lost sheep, we stumbled through the night of sin, needing One to come after us and bring us back into the fold.
5. To give new life (John 10:10). Not only is man lost, he is dead in trespasses and sins (Ephesians 2:1). Christ came to give new life and power to all who believe in Him.
6. To give His own life (John 10:11,15). The cost of salvation is the shedding of blood. Christ came to die. He took our place on Calvary's cross, giving His life to redeem us (Hebrews 12:2).
7. To destroy the works of Satan (John 3:8; John 12:31). The devil works to blind and destroy us, and to keep us walking in the darkness. The Lord Jesus came to break Satan's stranglehold on us, and to help us walk in the light.
My friend, that birth in Bethlehem was God the Son coming into our world as a baby that He might redeem mankind. Right now He offers you the greatest gift of all—the gift of salvation. Have you received Him? Open your life to Him now. Accept Him by faith. He came for YOU!

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

IN TODAY'S LITURGY, St. Matthew's use of the Old Testament often shows penetrating insights. The Isaiah passage he quotes today spoke of deliverance from Assyrian domination. Matthew applies it to Jesus, seeing now a deliverance from a bondage far deadlier than that brought by the Assyrians. The worst bondage is not that occasioned by military domination. Men are truly slaves when they are caught in the snares of sin and selfishness. Those who expected Jesus to be a political deliverer were disappointed and rejected him. Those who recognize the true difference between bondage and freedom acknowledge Him as the Messiah. When we are joined to Him we are truly free and are enabled to bring His freedom to others.

SALA NEWS. A motion has been passed to change the SALA Constitution. In as much as the motion calls for the elimination of the annual August meeting, public notice must be made and a vote will be taken at our February meeting. Please attend. Regarding the February meeting, the date must be changed from the first Thursday of the month, due to the Mardi Gras parade schedule. Further notice will be given as to when the meeting will be held.

ST. ANGELA SCHOOL BOARD will meet on Thursday, January 26, and interested parishioners and school parents are invited to attend.

THE FEAST OF ST. ANGELA MERICI is Friday, January 27; however, we will celebrate this feast of our patroness of our Parish on Sunday, January 29th.

FEAST OF SAINT ANGELA

At the time when Angela Merici lived, man was awakening to a new consciousness of his powers. Fascinated by the widening of horizons and increasingly aware of his creative genius, he had begun to claim an independence of the supernatural.

These were times of a self-styled humanism freed from the divine, confusing men's minds and weakening their moral sense. Deeply involved as she was with this world of contrasts so marked by moral suffering, Angela appears to us--a lovely figure of womanliness in her unswerving faith, her purity and her overflowing charity, winning all hearts through her devoted and far-reaching service of others.

Her simple country upbringing and the living example of her parents left their imprint on Angela. Hard work, so much a part of life in the country develops vigor, energy and strength of will. These together with a spirit of daring, marked her character to the end of her life.

Wealth and aristocracy never dazzled her. Though some of her dear friends included the rich and powerful families of Brescia, she kept a singleness of vision, wholly directed to the discovery of something willed for her by God, something foreshadowed but not yet known.

The clear sunlit beauty and the deep silence of the countryside found an echo in her spirit and awoke in her a need for light and for the infinite: a need for God. When she speaks of obedience, truth, knowledge of God or the happiness of heaven, all alike are expressed in terms of light. It seems to fascinate her.

Angela was a contemplative, captured by the Lord whom she sought and found everywhere, following him with love ever alert and faith ever discerning. "Everywhere" for her meant in long hours of prayer; and it also meant everywhere where she had a task to do; every person whom she met, regardless of age, sex or rank; every service that she rendered according to needs and circumstances. For at all times she acted under the influence of love, at once liberating and unifying, which in a single thrust brought her to God and to her fellow men.

Living beside others, visiting them wherever there was suffering and need, welcoming them to her own poor home--bare of every comfort but filled with the presence of God--Angela led all to Him, helping them to discover the mystery of His saving love, and sharing with them her own out-going joyous spirit of hope. In the midst of a life of austerity, her whole person radiated joy springing from a firm faith and absolute trust in God.

Angela gave her friendship with no thought of self; simply and spontaneously she came to the help of the most unfortunate. Those who knew her learned from her what it is to be "human," open to all and to the whole person, with healthy optimism and genuine love. It was her way of showing the world that the kindness and love of God had appeared on earth.

Active and devoted laymen found in her an inspiring leader, deeply faithful to the Church, with a keen perception of all that concerns man's salvation. Angela read the "signs of the times." Reading and interpreting them, she was led by the Spirit to undertake an entirely new form of work which gradually took shape as she moved on, step by step, in response to His call.

Nothing held her back: neither the uniqueness of the undertaking nor her deep-rooted humility, for she was certain that God himself wished to have in the Church--and at that particular time--a Company of consecrated virgins living in the world. And since He had chosen her to be their mother, although she saw herself as a "most inadequate and useless servant," she placed herself in His hands as a willing instrument.

Those who knew Angela saw in her a woman of prayer, in whom contemplation was intimately bound up with daily living and with her apostolate.

Today, too, we, who live under the patronage of Saint Angela in a parish dedicated to her name, have need of a living, dynamic fidelity which, in the midst of our present needs, discerns already the challenges of tomorrow and is ready to respond to them in yet new ways. Angela, always "in our midst" has traced for us the path of the greatest love and of perpetual renewal; and she invites us to go forward in hope and joy.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ACROSS THE NATION, Cities which have enacted zoning ordinances to combat obscenity are now experiencing an overwhelming growth in the number of obscenity outlets. Why? Because zoning for such outlets - - whether contained as in Boston's Combat Zone or scattered as in the Detroit plan - - permits the operation of such outlets and thereby negates existing anti-obscenity laws. An ordinance to permit zoning in Jefferson similar to the Detroit plan was cancelled at the last minute November 30th by the Jefferson Parish Council - "to permit further study and get more information from the public." It will come up again! Existing parish and state anti-obscenity laws are good, but they must be enforced. The recently enacted abatement of nuisance law permits the padlocking of such outlets. Do you want the existing laws enforced? Or do you want a new law to allow more obscenity outlets to open? Your Councilman wants to hear from you. Your signature on the petition opposing zoning for obscenity and calling for enforcement of existing laws will have the double advantage of informing your councilman and providing an excellent statement of community standards - - the basis of all anti-obscenity law. Copies of the petition will be available after the Masses this weekend for you to read and sign.

NOVENA PRAYERS will be said on Mardi Gras Day after the 6:30am Mass. No services at 7:30pm.

BLESSING OF THROATS will be on Friday, February 3rd, after the 6:30 and 8:30 morning Masses.

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION will be on February 3rd, from 9am-12noon. Plan to spend some time in adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament on this day.

ASH WEDNESDAY MASSES will be celebrated at 6:15am, 8:30am and 7:30pm. Ashes will be imposed at all Masses.

TIME CHANGES DURING LENT. Masses during the week will be celebrated at 6:15 (instead of 6:30) and 8:30am. The 6:15am Mass is scheduled for working people to be able to attend. On Saturdays the Mass will be offered at 8:00am.

LENTEN READING

Does spiritual reading find a place in your lenten program? Ten or fifteen minutes a day can be relaxing, refreshing and rewarding. There is a book to suit nearly every spiritual need or mood in your parish library -- some are older books like Saint Teresa of Avila and Saint John of the Cross, some are newer books such as Theological Anthropology; there are books on Scripture, Old Testament and New Testament; books on Mary and biographies of the saints; books on marriage and family living; books on prayer.

The library is open Sundays during and after the masses, daily and on Thursday evenings from 7-8. Come in and browse -- take a book from the shelf and read the preface or the blurb on the cover -- you might be surprised

A few suggestions as starters:

GOD IS FOR EVERYONE, Michael Horaticzuk, S.J. tells us with warmth, humor and brevity how to stay good and get better. Most important of all is his sharp insight into human nature. He seems to understand best of all those who are limping badly in their spiritual lives. This includes everybody...most of us will find our own description somewhere in this gallery of gimpy pilgrims.

MARY THE WOMB OF GOD A book by George A. Maloney S.J. that is a rediscovery of true devotion to Mary not as a speculative doctrine, but as an experience of what Father calls "Mary-Church" through which we can become open to God as Mary was and in touch with our destiny as Christians.

GROWING OLD IS A FAMILY AFFAIR Dorothy Bartolet Fritz begins her book "I had retired from a job I loved at 65 and had just passed my seventieth birthday. My mother and aunt who lived with me were in their nineties. Now to my surprise all of us had becomd part of a serious social problem." This book is oriented largely to men and women in their middle years--those persons chiefly responsible for the training of the young and the care of the old -- IT IS ADDRESSED TO THEIR NEEDS AND OPPORTUNITIES.

NARCO PRIEST Father Roland Melody S.T. a Roman Catholic Priest who became directly involved in the problem of drug addiction in 1962 riding at his own risk with the New York City Narcotics Underground Squad deals with first hand knowledge gained during these experiences.

PRAISE A WAY OF LIFE In this book Paul Hinnebusch O.P. draws on Scripture, Church tradition and testimonies of his charismatic friends to show that praise, far from being something new, has always been the essential Christian response to God. Father examines the many forms praise can take: loud shouts and quiet adoration; praises in the psalms and in the Eucharist; praise in joyful thanksgiving and praise in desolation and sorrow.
Using these elements he creates a "spirituality of

HINDS' FEET ON HIGH PLACES by Hannah Hurnard is a fascinating allegory which personifies the attitudes of mind, heart and temper which often hinder a Christian's journey to the "high places" which represent unity with Jesus Christ. The Hinds' Feet and "High places" are meant to be the glorious experience of God's children here and now if they will follow the path he chooses for them.
