St. Angela Merici Parish Message

The "Look-And-See" Rosary

The man and the woman, strangers to each other, were sitting side by side on the plane flight. The man noticed his seat companion was fingering a brown rosary.

"I'm a Catholic too," he said. "Name is James Richard."

"I'm Mrs. Connors. Glad to meet you here. I was just beginning my Rosary."

"You always say it while traveling?" Mr. Richard asked.

"Well, I don't travel that much anymore since I turned seventy-three. But I must say I've fallen in love again with the Rosary devotion, after I had set it aside for a while, back in those years just after Vatican II."

"That's about the time I stopped saying mine. Don't you find it monotonous, though?"

"I used to, but a friend helped me put new life into my prayer. She taught me the 'look-and-see' approach which I've been using ever since."

Mr. Richard looked immediately interested. "Tell me about it. Might revive my interest."

"Well, this friend taught me the method she'd been using. You look up to God, look within yourself, look around to relatives and friends, look back to God's great wonders in the past, then forward to see the marvels that await us in the future."

"So you call it the 'look-and-see' method. I can see why," Mr. Richard smiled. "Excuse me for interrupting. Do go on."

"In the Rosary prayers, we look up to God, as we say the Creed, the Glory Be's and the Our Father's. We think how great and good and powerful He is — the Father almighty who wants us to ask Him for our daily bread."

"I see," said Mr. Richard. "And then you look within yourself?"

"Exactly. As I meditate on the Rosary mysteries which bring back to mind certain episodes in the lives of Jesus and Our Blessed Mother, I think about the virtues they practiced. Then I ask myself how am I measuring up, how have I learned from them. They showed us love, obedience, humility, patience, faith, detachment, and many other Christian virtues."

"Then you look around at your friends?" Mr. Richard was recalling the summation his seat companion had given him.

"They all have needs — some I know about, some unknown to me but very well known to God. Just as I ask Our Lady to intercede for me, so I intercede for my relatives and friends. We have extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, so why shouldn't we have extraordinary ministers of intercession?"

"Never thought of that, Mrs. Connors."

"It's on my mind all the time. My Rosary meditations bring back to mind the mighty things God did, like sending His Son to live and die for us, then raising Him from the dead and sharing the bliss of heaven with Him — and then raising Mary in body and soul to heaven."

"And the future?" Mr. Richard asked.

"The miracles God will still do. The powerful promises of the Bible becoming a reality — His help in our sorrows, His bringing us to heaven later. And then the resurrection to look forward to —"

"That 'look-and-see' angle again," said Mr. Richard. "Well, this surely makes the Rosary devotion sound a lot more interesting. Think I'll get myself a new rosary."

Mrs. Connors opened her purse and brought out a black beaded rosary. "I always carry a spare," she said, smiling broadly. "Just in case I meet the right person to give it to." And she handed the black-beaded rosary to Mr. Richard, who accepted it with gratitude. ■

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MISSION SUNDAY. In spite of the poverty that exists in the U.S. and the economic burdens we bear, the Gospel challenges us to look beyond ourselves and see people whose needs are far more desperate than our own. These people, who live in mission countries, suffer daily from the effects of war, poverty, injustice and a level of oppression unknown to us in the free world. They are God's people, our brothers and sisters. Mission Sunday, this Sunday, is an opportunity for us in the Archdiocese of N.O. to share our prayers and our "wealth" with the people in the Philippines, Africa, Guatemala, Mexico, China, and the farthest parts of our world. Without your generous effort the missionary work of Christ could not continue. Special envelopes were mailed to our parishioners to use in this second collection. Please be generous in your response.

THE SCHOOL BOARD will meet on Tuesday, October 26, at 7:30pm, in the Adult Center. All interested parishioners and school parents are welcome to attend.

THE TUESDAY MORNING DISCUSSION GROUP will resume meeting this Tuesday, October 26th. The group meets from 9:30 to 11:30 in the Adult Center and is an informal, friendly group ready to welcome new people. So come and join us as we learn new things about ourselves, life, and Christian values. The topic for the next 3 weeks will center around films by Rev. John Powell on communications - memories - and meaning of Life. Father Powell is the author of many books including "Unconditional Love", "Fully Human, Fully Alive" and "Secret of Staying in Love". For further information call Sr. Mary Ann (835 0324).

YOUTH MASS. On this Sunday, October 24th, at the 5:30pm Mass, we will have a guitar group to lead the singing at this Mass. All of our young and young-at-heart are invited to come worship together.

SPECIAL NOTICE. The dumpster on our grounds is provided for trash and garbage from our school and church. Many times trash from other sources is deposited there and prohibits us from disposing of ours in a neat manner. Please do not put any trash or garbage in the dumpster - this is not the purpose for which it is provided. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ALL SAINTS' DAY, Monday, November 1st, is a holyday of obligation. On Sunday, the usual 5:30pm Mass can fulfill your obligation for the Sunday or the holyday, but only one Mass will not fulfill both obligations - you must attend two Masses. On Monday, the Masses will be celebrated at 6:15am, 9:00am, 12 noon and 7:00pm.

ALL SOULS' DAY, Tuesday, November 2nd, is a day when Catholics pray in a special way for the deceased members of the Church, the Parish and for deceased relatives and friends. This is not a holyday of obligation and the Masses will be celebrated in the morning at 6:15 am and 8:30am.

PURGATORIAL LIST. Last weekend the ushers distributed special envelopes to use for enrolling your deceased relatives and friends on the Parish Purgatorial List. Each week Mass is celebrated for all on the Purgatorial List and you are encouraged to enroll those you wish to remember throughout the year. If you did not receive an envelope and want one you may ask an usher this weekend. The envelopes are to be returned in the Sunday collection or sent to the rectory.

SALA MEETING will be held on Tuesday, October 28, 8:00pm, in the gym. Come Christmas shop! See all the creative toys to be shown by Mrs. Yvette Gonzales.

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS. In this Sunday's liturgy, the theme is giving. The readings speak of it; the Mass is a sign of it; the bread, wine and money are very special signs of giving. We wish to explore two aspects of giving: gratitude, because we are actually returning God's gifts to us, and commitment, because our giving can indeed express our commitment to communities in need. In the Gospel (Mark 12, 41-44), Jesus measures the widow's offering not in cash but by the sacrifice or self-offering involved. Her action can be seen as a prelude to Jesus' own sacrifice of his life.

BAPTISM PREPARATION SEMINAR. Attendance at a seminar prior to the Baptism of a child is a requirement in accordance with our parish policy. We will have a seminar on Wednesday, November 17, in the Adult Center, from 7:30 to 9:30pm. The next seminar will be held in January. We urge any expecting couples to plan on attending a seminar early in pregnancy to be prepared for baptism of their child. Call the rectory to register for a seminar.

PARENTS MEETING. There will be a meeting for parents of children receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time, on Thursday, November 11, at 7:30pm, in the gym.

ADULT CONFIRMATIONS will be administered in St. Louis Cathedral on Sunday, December 5th, at 3:00pm. Any adult who has not been confirmed and would like to be included in this group of candidates should contact one of the parish priests for more information. Please do so as soon as possible to have time for the necessary preparations.

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION was $ 6684.27 and we wish to express our appreciation to our parishioners for their generosity in response to this appeal.

TWO WEEK TOUR IN THE HEARTLAND OF CATHOLIC EUROPE. Father Kern will lead a tour leaving April 26th and returning May 10th of next year. Tour includes Lucerne, Paris, Brussels, Heidelberg, Florence, Venice and Rome with arrangements for attending a Papal audience. For a brochure call the rectory or speak to Fr. Kern for more info.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS. The theme of this Sunday's readings and what we celebrate in the liturgy is one of the most difficult and important realities each man faces. It is the theme of life and the end of life: our death. The readings are filled with hope -- the basic and radical difference between a Christian's understanding of life and death and any other man's. In the Gospel (Mark 13, 24-32), we read warnings and encouragements. The Son of Man is coming. The fullness of life is coming to us and we must be prepared to receive it. Stay awake, keep looking, keep preparing for the coming of the Son of Man.

"TERESA OF AVILA". There will be a special presentation entitled "Teresa of Avila - a Woman for All Ages" given by Sister Susan Folks, STJ, on Tuesday, November 16, from 9:30 - 11:30am, in the Adult Center. For more information call Sister Mary Ann (835 0324).

BAPTISM PREPARATION SEMINAR will be held on Wednesday, November 17th, in the Adult Center, from 7:30pm to 9:30pm. We urge expectant parents to attend a seminar early in pregnancy to prepare for the baptism of their expected baby. It is our policy that you must attend a seminar prior to the baptism and the next seminar will not be held until January. To register for any seminar call the rectory in advance.

PAPER DRIVE will be held on Thursday, November 18th. Please bring your papers tied in bundles to the schoolyard from 7:30am to 9:30am on November 18th. We appreciate your assistance in this school fund raising project.

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT annual collection will be taken at all the Masses next weekend. Special envelopes for this second collection will be distributed by the ushers after Masses this weekend. We encourage your usual generous response to this appeal to give many people in our country the opportunity to break out of the vicious cycle of poverty. This year the needs are even greater - more urgent than at any time since CHD was founded. Over 32 million live below the poverty level, and over 10 million are unemployed. The money you contribute to the Campaign for Human Development make a difference in peoples' lives. It is an example of the Christian spirit of caring about other people.

ITEMS OF INTEREST: CHURCH COLLECTIONS LAST WEEK WERE $ 7520.49 . . . CLARION HERALD PAYMENTS TO DATE: $4127.00. . . THANKSGIVING BASKETS WILL BE PREPARED FOR DISTRIBUTION TO THE NEEDY AGAIN THIS YEAR. IF YOU KNOW OF SOMEONE WITH WHOM WE CAN SHARE THESE GIFTS, PLEASE CALL THE RECTORY, 835-0324. . . PICKETING AT ABORTION CLINIC NOVEMBER 12/13 10 AM to 12 NOON. IF INTERESTED, PLEASE CALL 835-4777 or 831-2235. .

There is some work that will never be done if you don't do it.

There is someone who would miss you if you were gone.

There is a good reason for becoming better than you are.

Parish Message

Prayer on Thanksgiving Day

God our Father,
we gather together
with those we love
on this Thanksgiving Day to celebrate your many gifts to us.

You are truly a loving Father who cares for all our needs.

We also remember that many of your children
cannot celebrate today because they are hungry
or homeless or have no one to love them.

Please show us
how we can share
our gifts
with them.
Amen.

SOLEMNITY: CHRIST THE KING

CHRIST THE KING! What does it mean? In the Gospel this Sunday (John 18: 33-37), an anxious Pilate asks Jesus about his kingship, his kingdom, and his followers. His kingship is service, his kingdom is not of this world, and his followers are those who belong to the truth.

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT. On this Sunday, the annual second collection for the Campaign for Human Development will be taken at all the Masses. Your donations will help provide money for self-help projects aimed at eliminating the causes of poverty in America. Special envelopes were distributed last week to be used for your donation.

THANKSGIVING DAY. All are invited to celebrate with us a special liturgy of Thanksgiving at 9:00am on Thursday, November 25. The offertory at this Mass will assist our own St. Vincent de Paul Society in their work. (Note: no 8:30am Mass on that day).

THANKSGIVING BASKETS. Recognizing our daily needs, we give thanks to Our Father for His abundant gifts to us as we generously share what we have with those whose needs are greater. Canned foods will be collected at all Masses this weekend for Thanksgiving baskets to be distributed to the needy. If you know of someone with whom we can share these gifts, please call the rectory. (Note to students: If you would like to help in preparing the baskets and earn service hours contact Sr. Cecile or leave your name at the rectory.)

INTERFAITH MARRIAGE SUPPORT GROUP. You are invited to join members of the parish in a support group for Catholics in interfaith or non-churched marriages. The purpose is not to convert the spouse but to support you in your faith and marriage. If you would like to join please come to the Adult Center, 832 Melody Drive, at 7:30pm, on Tuesday, November 30th. For more info call Sr. Mary Ann (835 0324).

ADVENT

We all know how the true meaning of the Christmas is annually overshadowed by our urges to give, to buy, to sell and to get. Why do we fail to hear the word of God at Christmas? Partly because we usually listen only to the narratives of Christ's birth and nothing else. The coming of Christ is more than that. At a moment in the public life of our Lord, when the Apostles showed signs of becoming over-confident in their abilities, Christ told them, "Without me you can do nothing". That admonition applies to us also. Advent is a time for us to become more vitally aware of that fact. He expects us to strive to give good example and positive leadership in moral concerns. Our personal lives should reflect the discipline, charity, sacrifice and justice that He demands of His followers. Our personal faith must radiate a spirit of confidence in God's continuing providence. Christ came to make the world a better place. The first step toward bettering the world in which we live starts within the souls of you and me. Advent is a time to start that trend.

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

LITURGICAL READINGS: We begin another new Church year by preparing for three comings of Christ - at Christmas, at the end of time, and in all the relationships of our lives. This is our New Year's Day of new resolution. In the reading from Jeremiah 33, 14-61, we hear the promise that someone is coming in the end, and this person will bring safety based on justice. And Paul exhorts the Thessalonians to greater efforts as they prepare for the Lord's coming (1 Thessalonians 3, 12-4, 2). And in the Gospel (Luke 12, 25-28, 34-36) Jesus calls us to be watchful for the glorious coming of the Son of Man.

WEEKDAY MASSES. Now that our church is nearing completion of the renovations, we have resumed having the weekday Masses in the church again. We would like to take this opportunity to express our appreciation to all for their cooperation and patience during the period of work in the main body of the church.

LECTORS, EUCHARISTIC MINISTERS & USHERS. On Monday, November 29th, there will be an important meeting in the church, beginning at 7:30pm. Please make every effort to be present.

YOUTH MASS THIS SUNDAY 5:30PM. Youth of the parish and anyone else wishing to attend are reminded that the Youth Mass will be held on this Sunday, November 28th, beginning at 5:30pm. FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Dear Parishioners,

On Christmas Day let us remember it is the birthday of the Prince of Peace that we will be celebrating. Through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and through the reception of the Holy Eucharist, we can share that peace Jesus came to bring our world by making it our Christmas gift to all we meet.

Let His peace be a part of our daily life, everyday of the New Year. In so doing, we will know the genuine happiness of Christmas and will celebrate it much more often than simply one day each year.

May the Prince of Peace be with you in this Holy Season and throughout the New Year.

The Priests, Deacons and Sisters of St. Angela Merici Parish

CHRISTMAS CHARITIES COLLECTION will be taken at all the Christmas Masses. Special envelopes have been mailed to our parishioners. Our quota is $11,350 this year.

(Note - On Christmas Day there will be no Masses celebrated at 12:15pm, 4:00pm or 5:30pm - last Mass on Christmas Day will be at 11:00am)

TODAY on the Feast of the Holy Family we honor all Christian families and ask God to bless each home in the parish and make each member of the family a source of love for all the others.

A HAPPY NEW YEAR to all parishioners. May God fill your lives with happiness and a genuine desire to better yourselves as persons and be more Christ-like in everything you do in the New Year.
