Parish Message

LORD, I need only one thing
in this world:
to know myself and to love You.
Give me your love
and your grace;
with these, I am rich enough
and desire nothing more.
Sweet and humble Heart of Jesus,
make my heart as yours.
Amen.

VOCATION AWARENESS WEEK

ST. ANGELA MERICI PARISH MESSAGE

October 9, 1983

Published weekly

Metairie, La.

Vol. 20 No. 41

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS speak to us today of healing. Jesus' purpose was to bring divine healing to our whole person, body and soul, so that we might fulfill the purpose of our being - to praise and thank God for his glory and goodness. In the first reading (2 Kings 5/14-17) a man was cured of a disease he thought was fatal. When he was cured, he acknowledged that God cured him, and he thanked God publicly. The author in the 2nd reading (2 Timothy 2/8-13) presents the core of the Resurrection and the effects of those who preach it (persecution). Despite this, the reader is encouraged to "hold out to the end". The Gospel (Luke 17/11-19) is the story of the ten men cured of leprosy, the point is not that Jesus wanted thanks for himself: Jesus is disappointed that only a despised foreigner did the logical thing - he praised God for his goodness and healing power.

St. Angela Merici Parish Message

You will hardly believe your ear,
Lord,
since, as you know,
I like to divide my time equally between feeling sorry for myself, and asking you to make things better for me.

But just this once,
I'd like to thank you for all those things,
beginning with the gift of life itself, you have showered on me for no earthly reason that I can see,
except that inexplicably in the face of selfishness and ingratitude of monumental proportions and endurance,
You love me.

And beyond existence, bounty, beauty,
besides thought and sight and sound,
color, play, cold water and good food,
love and laughter, friends and home, you gave us yourself in your son and through him a promise that the one great catch in your bounty—death—was now revoked beyond the grave.
So forgive me, please,
the next time my insatiable self asks,
"What have you done for me lately?"

TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS. The point of the story in the first reading (Exodus 17/8-13) is perseverance in prayer. It takes competent preparation in the struggle against sin: it demands steady prayer to achieve success. In the second reading (2 Timothy 3/14-4/2), the author first assures Timothy of the soundness of his own background in the Scriptures and then exhorts him to make use of it by the faithful preaching of the word. In the Gospel (Luke 18/1-8) Jesus calls us to faith-filled perserving prayer. Do we really believe that God answers all our prayers now? Today's readings challenge us to review our prayers of petition. We are called to reflect on the reason we repeat prayers: why we need to pray always, and how God answers our prayers.

WIDOWED GROUP will meet on this Tuesday, October 18, in the Adult Center, at 7:30pm. All interested persons are invited to attend.

MASS INTENTIONS FOR 1984 will be scheduled beginning on Thursday, October 20th. On that day from 9:00 to 11:00am we will be scheduling in Brescia Hall (the Conference Room in the Annex nearest Pomona Street) for those who wish to come arrange for Masses. We will have to limit the number of Masses each family can schedule to 6 Masses for the year. Working people or those who cannot come that day can send in their requests but we cannot promise any special times or dates. Note: the stipend for all Masses is $5.00.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY will be observed next Sunday, October 23rd. When Pope John Paul was in Brazil, he said that the Mission Church of the poor calls on us to "Look around a little. Doesn't your heart ache?" As we prepare for World Mission Sunday next week, we look around and see the Church in the Missions serving refugees from war and hunger, serving children, the elderly, families - all in need of Good News offered to them in word and sacrament and service. Pope John Paul says further: "The financial needs of the young churches of the Missions are still enormous despite their efforts to achieve financial independence. It is for this reason that I appeal to everyone so that all may contribute to the central fund of the Propagation of the Faith." Special envelopes for this appeal will be in the mail to all our parishioners. Please be generous in your response next Sunday.

PRAY FOR THE MISSIONS

LORD GOD,

I want to be Your missionary to all the world.

I want to call the poor and the children and the burdened to rest in Your love.

*Help me to be a missionary today,
right where I am.*

*Bless me with the gift of simplicity
so that what I have in abundance
I will be happy to share.
Bless me with the gift of generosity
so that I may think first of others who need to hear Your Good News.
Bless me with the gift of such deep faith that it is no longer I who live, but Christ in me.*

*Then use me to extend Your love
around the world
so that no corner of the earth may be without Your Good News of salvation.*

I ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son.

AMEN

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS: God is just and doesn't play favorites. But he does have a wider view than we. He sees men's hearts and listens to people we tend not to pay attention to. When friends abandoned Paul, the Lord was faithful. Even the tax collector's prayer was answered. There are so many abandoned people: old people, physically and mentally handicapped, the drunks and vagrants. We could never help them all. But we could do a little bit. We could bring God's love to at least a few. It is so hard to be kind to even one abandoned person. The strength to do it comes from beyond us. In the Eucharist we seek that strength. (Readings - Sirach 35/12-14, 16-18; 2 Timothy 4/6-8, 16-18 and Gospel Luke 18/9-14)

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS. The first reading (Wisdom 11/22-12/2) is a prayer that gives us the general answer to the mystery: Why does the Lord overlook the sins of people? Why not destroy at least the big, public sinners who cause harm? Paul in the 2nd reading (2 Thes. 1/11-2/2) first prays for the Christians at Thessalonica and then insists that he had not misled them with false information. Jesus in the Gospel (Luke 19/1-10) shows mercy and brings salvation to a sinful tax collector. Zachaeus, the sprightly penitent, is a good example for those who need a deeper trust in God's desire to forgive.

ALL SAINTS DAY, Tuesday, November 1st, is a holyday of obligation. A vigil Mass will be celebrated on Monday, October 30st, at 4:00pm. On Tuesday morning Masses will be at 6:15am, 9:00am, and 12 noon. There will be the usual Mass celebrated in the evening at 7:00pm.

ALL SOULS DAY, Wednesday, November 2nd, is a day when Catholics pray in a special way for the deceased members of the Church, the Parish and for deceased relatives and friends. All Souls Day is not a holyday of obligation but you are encouraged to attend Mass either at 6:15 or 8:30am.

THE CYO will have a Youth Mass on this Sunday, October 30, at 5:30pm, with a special slide presentation during the Mass. Following the Mass the CYO will hold its General Meeting at 6:30pm, in the gym.

RIGHT-TO-LIFE CALENDARS will be sold by the CYO after all the Masses this Sunday. We encourage all to support this Pro-Life activity of the youth of the parish.

SALA MEETING will be held on Tuesday, November 1st, in the gym beginning at 8:00pm. Guest speaker will be Dr. Jeffery Brandom who will give a presentation on "Relaxation Techniques for Stress Reduction". All ladies of the parish are invited to attend.

HOLY LAND TOUR will be led by Sr. Mary Ann, March 27 to April 10. Tour includes Cairo, Jerusalem, Islands of the Mediterranean, Turkey and Greece. A meeting for all interested persons will be held on Thursday, Nov. 3rd, at 7:30pm, in the Adult Center. Come join us!

THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS. The Word of God today shows us the meaning of resurrection. It is not only in the future: it is an event that has happened already in our lives, and should happen every day. We are "new" once and for all - and every day. In the first reading (2 Maccabees 7/1-2, 9-14) we read the story of tortured young men who hope for a God-given resurrection in the Old Testament's clearest statement of belief in resurrection. Paul, in the second reading (2 Thessalonians 2/16-3/5), first prays that the Thessalonians may be consoled and strengthened by Christ and the Father. He then exhorts them to pray for him. The Gospel (Luke 20/27-38) shows us that in his enemies' attempt to trap Jesus with words, we see a materialistic, even childish, view of heaven. His words are the challenge of faith: all persons are alive to God, but he wants us to be fully alive, with his own life.

THE PARISH COUNCIL will meet on Tuesday, November 8, at 7:30pm, in the Conference Room, All interested parishioners are welcome to attend.

SENIOR CITIZENS MEETING will be held on Wednesday, November 9th, in the gym, beginning at 1pm, for a pot-luck lunch and usual social period. All senior citizens are invited to attend.

A SPECIAL MASS FOR WIDOWED PERSONS and their immediate families will be celebrated on Friday, November 11, at 7:30pm. All widowed parishioners are invited to join us in prayer for your intentions and those of your beloved dead. Refreshments will be served in Brescia Hall following the Mass.

SALA CAKE & PLANT SALE. All ladies of the parish are invited to donate any plants or baked goods. Please call Mary Alice Spadaro 835 3668 or June Prados 835 7573. The sale will be held on November 12 & 13. We still have Gold-C coupon books available for $6.00, call Mary Ann Kincaid 835 1478 if interested.

NOTRE DAME SEMINARY cordially invites all to Open House on the occasion of its 60th Anniversary, on this Sunday, November 6, from 1-4:30pm. Archbishop Hannan will be on hand to greet all visitors. The seminarians will conduct tours of the buildings and explain the program of preparation for priestly ordination. Tours will also be available for Hispanics & Vietnamese in their native languages. Tours will conclude with refreshments.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LITURGICAL READINGS. In this Sunday's readings, we hear that we should not worry about the end of the world because it will not harm real believers. Rather, we should concentrate on persevering in the day-to-day occasions which call for faith.

CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT COLLECTION. On next weekend, November 19 and 20, all churches will take up the annual collection for the Campaign for Human Development. The theme this year is "If You Want Peace, Work for Justice". Special envelopes for this collection will be distributed after the Masses this weekend. We encourage you to be generous in your response to give people a way out of poverty through this self-help program. In the U.S in 1982 one worker in four was unemployed for at least part of the year. "Unemployment is always an evil; massive unemployment can be a social disaster" (Pope John Paul II).

BAPTISM PREPARATION SEMINAR will be held on Wednesday, November 16, in the Adult Center, from 7:30 to 9:30pm. We urge expectant parents to attend a seminar early in pregnancy to prepare for the baptism of their child. It is our policy that you must attend a seminar prior to the baptism and the next seminar will not be held until January. To register for any seminar call the rectory in advance.

PAPER DRIVE will be held on Thursday, November 17, from 7:30 to 9:30am. Please bring papers tied in bundles to the schoolyard. If you need to have papers picked up contact Janet Peterson (835 2949) by Tuesday, November 15th.

SALA CAKE & PLANT SALE will be this weekend after the vigil Masses on Saturday and the 8:30, 9:45, 11:00 and 12:15 Masses on Sunday, in the classrooms nearest the parking lot. Also note that Gold-C coupon books will be available. We encourage you to support the ladies in this fund-raiser.

WIDOWED GROUP will meet on Thursday, November 16, in the Adult Center at 7:30pm. Guest speaker will be Mr. Jerry Montalbano, Account Executive at Merrill-Lynch, and he will speak on "How to Handle Your Money". All interested persons are invited to attend.

St. Angela Merici Parish Message

The First Sunday in Advent

Romans 13:11-14

Awake!

Among the themes of Advent, none is more basic than the idea of awakening from sleep. "Wake up, sleepyhead, you'll miss the show," we say to a slumbering relative. That is what the Church is saying to us in Advent. Awake from spiritual sleep! Be on your toes so you don't miss what's — who's — coming at Christmas.

Being awake and alert is a good Advent start. But we need to do more. We need to look and listen for the messages around us. Rather than just awaiting the arrival of the Lord, we need to start walking to meet Him.

"Come Home for Christmas" is an invitation many Catholic dioceses issue this time of year to try to get the nonpracticing back to the Church. But all of us need to "come home for Christmas," to return to the basics of our faith. God has redeemed us through His Son born in a stable. He has called us to a life of communion with Him, a place in His Church and an eternal home in heaven.

Stay awake this Advent! You have so much to miss.

*Oh, come, oh, come, Immanuel,
And ransom captive Israel
That mourns in lonely exile here
Until the Son of God appear.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
shall come to thee, O Israel.*

Parish Message

The Second Sunday in Advent

Romans 8:18-30

Hope

How easy it is for us to forget that the purpose of the Advent season is not merely to prepare us for Christmas; Christmas comes anyway, whether we are ready or not. The ultimate purpose of Advent, Christmas and all that lies beyond is to prepare us for heaven, to direct our attention to the Christ who came from His heavenly throne to make it possible, by His life, death and resurrection, for us to be heirs with Him of a heavenly home. We must always keep alive that hope.

A host of angels was sent by God to herald the good news of "peace on earth, good will toward men," made possible by the coming of "a Savior, which is Christ the Lord."

To a sin-sick world, Christ brings healing; to a downcast humanity He brings hope. Can the unfolding happiness of the holidays be an on-going reminder that "the best is yet to come"?

*Oh, where shall joy be found?
Where but on heavenly ground?
Where now the angels singing
With all His saints unite,
Their sweetest praises bringing
In heavenly joy and light —
May we praise Him there!
May we praise Him there!*

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

LITURGICAL READINGS. This Sunday's first reading (Is 11/1-10) pictures the perfect person - what he or she is like and does. It also pictures the perfect world of peace and justice, without harm or ruin for the least of God's creatures. We shall live in a new Paradise. Paul in the second reading (Rom 15/4-9) encourages the Roman Christians to live in harmony with one another motivated by the fidelity God showed the Jews in fulfilling his promises and by the mercy he showed the Gentiles. In the Gospel (Mt 3/1-12) John the Baptist warns us that judgment is always imminent - the ax is laid to the tree - and final. We cannot ignore the call to repentance. With and through the words of St. John the Baptist, the Church calls us to examine and change our lives so that we will be ready to meet the Lord when He comes to us.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 8th IS THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION, a holyday of obligation. A vigil Mass will be celebrated on Wednesday at 4:00pm, and on Thursday Masses will be at 6:15am, 9:00am, 12 noon and 7:00pm.

A SECOND COLLECTION will be taken this weekend to help defray the cost of church decorations for the Christmas season.

Parish Message

The Third Sunday in Advent

Luke 11:5-13

Open

Opening is a big Christmas activity. Soon it will be time for opening presents, and opening doors, when company comes, and also opening hearts.

That may not be easy to do. Even at Christmas it is possible to become selfish and self-centered, more concerned about getting than about giving, more concerned about our wants and wishes than about the needs of others.

We may need to be reminded that everything we celebrate was made possible because "God so loved the world that He gave. . . ." He opened His great heart in concern for all humanity; He opened the womb of a virgin to deliver His Son into the world, a Son who opened His hands to help the needy and finally to receive the nails which spiked Him to the cross . . . until God opened the tomb to bring Him forth alive for our redemption and to open our eyes to the joy that awaits.

For heaven itself is open to us now . . . where our Savior waits with open arms to receive us to Himself. Especially at Christmas time, how does that great love of God make a difference in the way you open your heart to the needs of others?

*Oh, come, Thou Key of David, come
And open wide our heavenly home;
Make safe the way that leads on high
And close the path to misery.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

REJOICE in the news of Jesus' coming. In the liturgical readings this Sunday, John the Baptist's sending of his disciples to Jesus was prompted by a real perplexity. He had been expecting one who would come in fiery judgment. Jesus' reply points to Old Testament prophecies that depicted the sort of hope he was bringing. Hope is a precious commodity; it can transform any life from bitterness to joy. No one need live in despair, for hope is offered to all. The only sure hope is based on the promise of God. God does not leave hope as an abstract ideal. In the coming of Jesus he shows his healing, forgiveness, and salvation. We share in this already through union with Him in the Eucharist - a union which points forward to a greater sharing to come.

THANK YOU to all who responded so generously in our second collection last weekend for the church decoration fund. We would like to express our appreciation to those who contributed.

PAPER DRIVE will be held on Thursday, December 15, from 7:30 to 9:30 in the schoolyard. Please bring papers tied in bundles. If you need to have someone pick up your paper, call Janet Peterson (835 2949) before Wednesday, December 14.

Parish Message

The Fourth Sunday in Advent

Luke 1:39-55

Voice

Virtually every medium — radio, television, and all the rest — now have begun to play or use songs of the season. You may already be tired of some Christmas songs by now.

Singing is fine, when it raises our hearts and minds. But are there other things we ought to be doing with our voices this holiday along with all the happy caroling? Are there lonely people down the street who would welcome the sound of your voice? Is there someone estranged who needs desperately to hear from you? Someone downcast who needs cheering up? Someone discouraged who needs a hopeful word? Someone who does not know the Christ of Christmas — or who has turned from Him — who needs to be told again of the victory that is ours in the Lord and His Church?

Sing this week, by all means! But don't fail as well to speak. Someone may be waiting to hear the sound of your voice.

*Joy to the world! The Savior reigns;
Let men their songs employ,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat, repeat the sounding joy.*

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

AGAIN GOD gives us the gift of celebrating Christmas. It is good for us to come together to celebrate the Eucharist with the special joy and peace that comes from this greatest Gift of God. Christmas, for God, means a plea to believe in His generous love.

FAMILY PENANCE SERVICE. On Thursday, December 22, at 7:30pm, we will have a brief scripture service followed by private confessions in preparation for Christmas. We urge all parishioners to take this opportunity for confessions when extra priests will be available.

CONFESSIONS ON CHRISTMAS EVE. Please note that on Christmas Eve, Saturday, December 24, confessions will be heard only from 6:30 - 7:00pm. There will be no confessions heard earlier that day.

WORKSHOP FOR CHRISTMAS CHURCH DECORATIONS:
Volunteers needed for the following times:

Wednesday, December 21, 10:30 til 3:00pm, in the annex - to decorate 500 feet of garland and Christmas trees

Thursday, December 22 - 9:00am til finished to complete decoration of garland and trees

Friday, December 23 - garland will be put up in the church.

You may volunteer to work all day or only for a few hours - this is a good opportunity for students to earn service hours. Teenage boys and girls are needed and welcome, as well as the ladies of the parish. With enough volunteers this job can be accomplished without taking too much time from any one persons busy schedule at this time of the year.

SPECIAL NOTICE: Note that on Christmas Eve morning, Saturday, December 24th, there will be no morning Mass celebrated. This has been cancelled to enable us to prepare the church for the Christmas Masses.

CYO NEWS:

CHRISTMAS CAROLING AT JACKSON SQUARE will be on this Sunday, December 18th. We will provide bus transportation for those who are interested in going. We invite high school and college age students to meet in the gym parking lot for 5:30pm so that we can leave together.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

Dear Parishioners,

Let memories turn back the clock to the days when people in all walks of life slowly trudged on their way to worship the birth of the Christ Child. And as one Family met another happy greetings were exchanged - "Merry Christmas" was in the air. Hustle and hurry were forgotten on that happy day. Friends and loved ones gathered together, their problems forgotten for the day and happiness was everywhere.

While times have changed and speed is our watchword, still the deep meaning of Christmas is in all our hearts. May the Prince of Peace be with you in this Holy Season and throughout the New Year.

The Priests, Deacons and Sisters of St. Angela Merici Parish

MASS SCHEDULE FOR CHRISTMAS:

Vigil Mass at 4:00 and 5:30pm, Saturday, December 24th.

Midnight Mass will be celebrated - doors open at 11:00pm

Christmas Day Masses - 7:00, 8:30, 9:45, 11:00 and 12:15

Note - on Christmas Day there will be no Mass at 5:30pm

SPECIAL NOTICE: On Christmas Eve morning, Saturday, December 24, there will be no morning Mass celebrated so that we can begin preparation of the church early in the day.

OPEN HOUSE following the Midnight Mass on Christmas Eve will be held in the annex and all parishioners are invited to come and celebrate with us.

CHRISTMAS CHARITIES COLLECTION will be taken at all the Christmas Masses. Special envelopes have been mailed to our parishioners. Our quota for this year is $ 13,000.00.

ALTAR BOYS NOTE: On Wednesday, December 28th, we will have a Christmas Party for the altar boys, in the gym, beginning at 7:00pm. All of our altar boys are cordially invited to come.

ITEMS OF INTEREST: CHURCH COLLECTIONS LAST WEEK WERE $ 7218.62 . . . THANK YOU TO THE PARISHIONERS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THE COLLECTION FOR CHURCH DECORATIONS FOR CHRISTMAS. IF YOU HAVE NOT AND WOULD LIKE TO DO SO, YOU MAY PLACE YOUR DONATION IN A SEALED ENVELOPE (MARKED FOR CHURCH DECORATIONS) AND PUT IN BASKET OR DROP OFF AT THE RECTORY. . SEPARATED, DIVORCED, WIDOWED: TO ASSIST YOU IN PASSING THROUGH THE GRIEF PROCESS, THE BEGINNING EXPERIENCE WEEKEND WILL BE HELD AT HOLY REDEEMER, LACOMBE, FROM JANUARY 13-15, REGISTRATION REQUIRED, CALL NANCY (488 3756).

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY will be celebrated on Friday, Dec. 30. So many families think that the tiny family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph was so special that it can't be imitated. But was the Holy Family so different from families today? Read the Scriptures and see that they experienced unplanned pregnancy, difficult delivery, losing track of a child, having to move away from family roots, worry & confusion of parents, child leaving home and hanging around with less than desirable friends. Don't families also experience gossiping, children who reject parents, children who die in their prime and embarrassing relatives? All of our families are Holy Families. The ordinariness of families is the stuff of prayer and spirituality. We must realize that (Emmanuel) God is with us - loves us - and calls our family to holiness.
