WORRY AND PRAYER

Prayer is an acknowledgement of faith; worry is a denial of faith. Prayer is putting one's hand in God's, trusting in His loving guidance; worry is withdrawing our hand and denying His power to lead.

Prayer leads through the door of faith into the presence of God; worry leads through the door of anxiety into the darkness of loneliness and discouragement. If prayer does not cancel worry, worry will cancel prayer.

PRAYER FOR SUNDAY, APRIL 2, 1995 FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Father in heaven,

The love of your Son led him to accept the suffering of the cross that his brothers might glory in new life.

Change our selfishness into self-giving. Help us to embrace the world you have given us, that we may transform the darkness of its pain into the life and joy of Easter.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

HOLY WEEK

The liturgical year reaches its peak in the Holy Week celebrations. Called to worship, we actively participate in Jesus' passage through death to life. . . . Passion (Palm) Sunday recalls Jesus' entry into Jerusalem as Messiah and King. . . . The Masses for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday lead us to contemplate the prophetic foreshadowings of events in Jesus' last days. . . . Holy Thursday's evening Mass of the Lord's Supper reminds us that love and service, signified in the rite of washing of feet, are signs of both the baptismal and ministerial priesthood. . . . Good Friday's liturgy focuses on Jesus' crucifixion. . . . Holy Saturday's ceremonies, which begin with a candle service, affirms Christ's victory over death. . . . Finally on Easter Sunday, we celebrate the Eucharist of the Resurrection, and then go forth in joy to make our "Alleluia" resound through the remainder of the liturgical year.

SUNDAY, APRIL 9, 1995

PASSION (PALM) SUNDAY

Almighty Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,

You sent your Son to be born of woman and to die on a cross, so that through the obedience of one man, estrangement might be dissolved for all men.

Guide our minds by his truth and strengthen our lives by the example of his death, that we may live in union with you in the kingdom of your promise.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SUNDAY, APRIL 16, 1995 EASTER SUNDAY

God our Father, Creator of all,

Today is the day of Easter joy. This is the morning on which the Lord appeared to men who had begun to lose their hope and opened their eyes to what the scriptures foretold: that first He must die, and then He would rise and ascend into His Father's glorious presence.

May the risen Lord breathe on our minds and open our eyes that we may know Him in the breaking of bread, and follow Him in His risen life.

Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Heavenly Father and God of mercy,

We no longer look for Jesus among the dead, for He is alive and has become the Lord of life. From the waters of death you raise us with Him and renew your gift of life within us.

Increase in our minds and hearts the risen life we share with Christ and help us to grow as your people toward the fullness of eternal life with you.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

Father, in Your wisdom and love for us, You gave the world an example of the significance and the importance of the family to society by using it as the medium through which you gave us Your Son, Jesus, as our Savior and Redeemer.

We ask that you give families the world over the courage to perpetuate the influence of family life in society through the quality of their daily lives. Help them to resist the efforts of those who would erode or minimize the family as the basic unit of society.

Bless families everywhere with the vision to perceive that what is best for the family is best for society...best for the nation and best for the world.

We ask You this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

My dear sisters and brothers in the Lord,

The theme for the 1995 Collection to Aid the Catholic Church in Central and Eastern Europe is "FOR THE NEXT GENERATIONS". Even though our European sisters and brothers now enjoy a new-found freedom, the struggle to renew the Church in Central and Eastern Europe still faces serious challenges. That challenge also befalls our children... the future of our Church.

The faithful of the region continue to confront economic, political and social upheaval, and the future remains uncertain. In respect to the young people, many of them have not received religious instruction and formation in the Catholic faith, nor have they received needed pastoral care. All of these people look for help to the faithful of other countries, especially the United States. We must continue to answer their call as we have in the past.

The Collection to Aid the Catholic Church in Central and Eastern Europe, initiated by the U. S. Bishops in 1990 and recently extended for three years, provides much-needed help in restoring Church institutions, teaching the laity through programs of religious and moral education, spreading the Word of God through the mass media and restoring Catholic charitable organizations once outlawed by Marxist states. In the last four years, the collection has distributed more than $20 million. And thanks to this generosity, more than 650 projects are underway in 21 countries.

I again invite your generous support in continuing this important work. Through the Aid to Central and Eastern Europe Collection, to be taken up on May 7th, in our Archdiocese, we can help renew the Church in this region for the next generation of faithful. May God bless you for your ongoing support of this crucial project.

With the assurance of my prayers, I am,

Sincerely yours in Our Lord,

Francis B. Schulte

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ;

Though your people walk in the valley of darkness, no evil should they fear; for they follow in faith the call of the shepherd whom you have send for their hope and strength.

Attune our minds to the sound of his voice, lead our steps in the path he has shown, that we may know the strength of his outstretched arm and enjoy the light of your presence for ever.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

EVERY DAY IS A BEAUTIFUL WAY TO HONOR OUR BLESSED MOTHER. IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO LEAD THE RECITATION IN JUNE, PLEASE ENTER YOUR NAME IN THE NOTEBOOK TO BE FOUND IN THE REAR OF THE CHURCH. MRS.
HALVERSON, SALA's LITURGY CHAIRPERSON, WILL CALL
YOU TO CONFIRM YOUR DAY. THANK YOU.

I learn as the years roll onward
And leave the past behind,
That much I have counted sorrow
But proves that our God is kind:
That many a flower I longed for
Had a hidden thorn of pain, -
And many a rugged by-path
Led to fields of golden grain.

SUNDAY, MAY 28, 1995 SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Eternal Father, reaching from end to end of the universe, and ordering all things with your mighty arm:

For you, time is the unfolding of truth that already is, the unveiling of beauty that is yet to be. Your Son has saved us in history by rising from the dead, so that transcending time
He might free us from death. May His presence among us lead to the vision of unlimited truth and unfold the beauty of your love.

We as this in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen.

Collection for the Works of the Holy Father

My dear brothers and sisters in the Lord,

I am grateful for all you do to further the Church's mission through your parish, the archdiocese, and the Church's national and international work.

The Church's mission is to bring to a fullness the saving and caring message of Jesus. This mission is greatly helped through your prayers, works, and sacrifices. One vital program to extend the Church's mission throughout the world is the annual Peter's Pence Collection for the Holy Father. The Pope asks us, in countries where the Church is strong and unusually blessed, to be a beacon of light and hope to our less fortunate brothers and sisters.

In this annual collection, to be taken up in all our parishes on the weekend of June 3/4, I ask you to help provide the means for the Holy Father to respond to the needs of the Church. His brother bishops look to us for the resources to enhance the spiritual life of the faithful and also to educate, comfort, and encourage. Last year, you the faithful of the archdiocese contributed $115,014. Your continued sacrifice will help the Holy Father to extend his pastoral care in the world-wide Church.

I thank you for all you have done and will do to make the Church a leading force for the good of all God's people.

May God bless you and your loved ones and keep all of you close to him.

With the assurance of my prayers, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Our Lord,

IN TIME OF TROUBLE

At one time or another affliction forms part of everyone's life. Then, we can either make of the moment of pain a golden opportunity, or waste it. Three points may help us face the challenge of suffering:

1. Since Christ our Lord suffered and died for us voluntarily, pain still hurts but now it is suffused with new meaning. Love transforms the bitterness. So St. Peter assures us, "If you can have some share in the suffering of Christ, be glad."

2. To accept sickness with all its consequences requires a firm act of will and God's assisting grace. Then, we use pain as a penance for our sins and for others.

3. When we join our cross to Christ's, our illness takes us out of ourselves and adds a universal value to our private trial.

May you in sorrow show Christian courage, and cheerfully use your weakness to make the strength of God's grace manifest.

Rest in Peace

IN YOUR CHARITY PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SOUL OF MRS. ELLEN TOOLEY AND MRS. MARLIES S. PUIG WHO DIED THIS PAST WEEK AND FOR ALL WHO MOURN THEM.

-May they and all our beloved dead rest in peace-

SUNDAY, JUNE 4
SOLEMNITY: PENTECOST

Father of light, from whom every good gift comes, Send your Spirit into our lives with the power of a mighty wind, and by the flame of your wisdom open the horizons of our minds.

Loosen our tongues to sing your praise in words beyond the power of speech, for without your Spirit man could never raise his voice in words of peace or announce the truth that Jesus is Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

SANCTUARY FLOWER MEMORIALS - Often someone wants to give a gift in memory of a loved one who has died. We would like to suggest that a sanctuary flower memorial is a very beautiful way to remember our dead. The cost is $25.00. Call the rectory (835-0324) to make the arrangements.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY - When we pray the Our Father, we ask God to provide our food. Most of us receive sufficient food. Others do not. We can be our Father's instrument by providing "bread" for the needy. ## Let us be thankful -

For food, but also for hunger; because it should help us to remember there are those who are still hungry;

For homes, but thankful we can understand what it means to be homeless;

For health, but thankful also for our illnesses if they make us understand the suffering of others,

For joy and sorrow, if we are more sympathetic. Let us be thankful for all the experiences that teach us to be kind one to another.

SOLEMNITY: THE HOLY TRINITY

God, we praise you: Father of all-powerful, Christ Lord and Savior, Spirit of Love.

You reveal yourself in the depths of our being, drawing us to share in your life and your love.

One God, three persons, be near to the people formed in your image, close to the world your love brings to life.

We ask you this, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, true and living, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BEATITUDES FOR FATHERS

Blessed are fathers...who mixed discipline with love, they shall know mercy.

Blessed are fathers...who gave us values with which to love the Christian life, they shall share God's kingdom.

Blessed are fathers...who left us an appreciation of the value and dignity of work, they shall find rest.

Blessed are fathers...who pointed out our responsibilities and duties, they will be blessed.

Blessed are fathers...who taught us how to live on earth for heaven, they will know God.

Blessed are fathers...who showed us the meaning of service by example, they shall be served.

Blessed are fathers...who gave us a clear picture of what a father should be, they will live forever.

Blessed are fathers...whose love for our Mothers taught us the importance of loving God and each other, they shall see God.

JUNE 25, 1995
TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There does not exist among you Jew or Greek, slave or free-man, male or female. All are one in Christ Jesus.

Gal 3:28

We welcome to our parish Father Patrick B. Sanders who has been appointed by Archbishop Schulte the Parochial Vicar in St. Angela effective July 1st. He comes to us from Resurrection of Our Lord Parish.

We are happy to have Father in our parish and ask the Lord to bless him that he may have a long and happy association with St. Angela's.

FAREWELL

We bid a "fond farewell" to Father Robustiano Morgia who will leave our parish this week for a new assignment. We sincerely appreciate his being with us for the past year and for all his help.

Please remember Fr. Rob in your prayers as he goes to his new ministry.

Thank You

Our Vacation Bible School, again this year, was very successful because of the many volunteers who staffed the program. We wish to thank the adults who gave so generously of their time and talent to our Scripture Safari. Without them we could not have had this program. Also, thank-you to the young people who are working as aides and share their faith with our children.

Special Announcement

HOST FAMILY NEEDED: The Ulster Project is in need of a family with teenagers who would like to be hosts for this exciting, fun-filled, and rewarding adventure. The project brings to our area teenagers from Northern Ireland to spend the month of July with other boys and girls, Catholic and Protestant.
