ST. ANGELA MERICI PARISH

Archdiocese of New Orleans

Rectory: 901 Beverly Garden Drive, Metairie, Louisiana 70002

Rectory: (504) 835-0324 • School: (504) 835-8491

Office of Religious Education: (504) 835-0324

Dear Parishioners,

Our youth had a great time on our trip with St. Paul through Greece for our Summer Bible Camp experience this summer. Our parents and young adult leaders who gave of their time as volunteers to help us on our journey were wonderful. Our teens were awesome. Thanks to our SALA ladies who came each day to relieve me and to watch the movie with the children.

Thanks to the teens who earned their service hours by helping around the school and parish. They worked hard and will continue to work during this year helping in and around our church and school. Their service is of great value to all of us in our Parish.

Our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program will be on Thursday evenings this coming year. Please welcome those you know who want to learn more about the Catholic Faith to come to joins us. Last year we had someone who finally said he wanted to become a Catholic. When I asked why he waited so long, he said, “No one asked me.” So ask your non-Catholic friends and neighbors have they considered this. We’ll have more in later summer bulletins, but please invite your non-Catholic friends, Catholics who want to learn more about their faith, and/or adults who need Confirmation to join. Please call Sr. Paula at 835-0324 or email her at pderise@stangela.org for more information.

Did you know? We have 3 classes that enrich our knowledge of the Bible. June Prados provides a morning session every Tuesday morning beginning around 9:15. Marilyn Heap leads a different Scripture class every Tuesday night beginning at 7 pm. Deacon Ray also has a class for those wanting to study Scripture. You are welcome to join any of the groups. They each present the Bible from a different publisher’s point of view. Call Sr. Paula at 835-0324 or email her at pderise@stangela.org for more information.

Our Prayer Group meets every Wednesday morning in the Conference Room. You are always welcome to join them in prayer and hymns. This is an important ministry of prayer in our parish.

Our CCD or Religious Education Classes for those who attend private and public schools, grades 1-11, are held at St. Clement of Rome Parish. This coming year the classes will be on Sunday mornings. Just call St. Clement of Rome, at 887-7821 and ask for Claire. Be sure to let her know you belong to St. Angela Parish. Your child will be included in the reception of the sacraments here at St. Angela.

Juniors This Information is for You. Confirmation class for our Juniors will be on November 18th from 5-7 in gym and administration building. This is our final class and the time for us to write our letter to Bishop Fabre asking him to confer the sacrament of Confirmation on us. Our letter will express our readiness to receive this sacrament. Our Confirmation Parent meeting will be on February 6th, from 7-8 pm in gym. This is a required meeting. Our Confirmation retreat (also required) will be on February 8th from 11 through 4 pm mass. This is held in gym and in church.

Have you discovered our Book Rack near the Pomona Street side of Church? Those books are for you to buy if you'd like. If you want me to order any books for you, just let me know and when the new catalogues come in, I'll order them. We also have a working Religious Education Library, located in the Administration Building, for your use. Come in and browse and bring home what you would like to read. Just sign it out so we will know who has the book.

BAPTISMS

We remind expectant parents that, to prepare for the Baptism of a baby, the parents must make an appointment with the Deacon prior to Baptism. It is recommended that you call (835-0324) well in advance of the delivery date to be prepared. Baptisms in our parish are usually performed on the second Sunday of the month provided the parents have fulfilled the preparation.

"Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." - Lk 10:19-20

Thursday: Gn 44:18-21, 23b-29; 45:1-5/Mt 10:7-15
Friday: Gn 46:1-7, 28-30/Mt 10:16-23
Saturday: Gn 49:29-32; 50:15-26a/Mt 10:24-33
Next Sunday: Dt 30:10-14/Col 1:15-20/Lk 10:25-37

REFLECTION

One of the questions parents and teachers often ask children is, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" For younger children the answer can change from week to week. Children may say at one time, "A basketball player," and at another, "An airplane pilot," and at another, "A zookeeper." The answer could depend on whatever story or television show caught their fancy that week. But as children mature, they start considering seriously the answer to that question. As they enter college they begin directing their lives toward what will be a particular profession in life.

This weekend's Gospel highlights the need for workers in the harvest of the kingdom of God. Jesus sends out disciples ahead of him so that they can prepare the way for the places that he intends to visit. But the text is not only about what took place in Galilee and Judea two thousand years ago. As the living word of God, the Gospel also speaks to our lives today. The need for laborers for the harvest is just as great in 2013 as it was in AD 32. As a matter of fact, the need is even greater, since the proclamation of the Gospel goes on in so many more places than in the first century of Christianity.

Parents and grandparents can influence what their children and grandchildren think about as appropriate life choices. We don't need a specific "Vocation Sunday" to ask the question of sons or daughters or grandchildren if they have ever considered the possibility of a religious vocation. The Holy Spirit might just be working through you if you ask. While a life of ministering to others may have its own trials and difficulties, it can also be filled with great joy and satisfaction. Is there someone you can ask, "What do you want to be when you grow up?" After all, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few" (Lk 10:2).

St. Angela Merici Celebrating 50 years of Faith

On June 7, 1964 a group of faith filled folks gathered at Leon's Restaurant for the first mass of the newly formed St. Angela Merici Church. That was nearly 50 years ago and look how we have grown! Many activities and events have been planned to remember our milestones. Keep an eye on this weekly bulletin or visit our website: www.stangela.org for updates and reminders. As we celebrate "50 years of Faith" that have passed, we will also be looking toward our future.

Several weeks ago, Fr. Ken mentioned in his bulletin that we received notes of interest regarding our Opening Mass and we would like to share some with our parishioners.

Since my return to Miami I have received your invitation announcing the Opening Mass of the fiftieth anniversary celebration of St. Angela Parish. I want to express my congratulation to all of the parishioners on this significant Golden Jubilee.

Unfortunately I will not be able to join you for the Opening Mass. Please extend to all of the parishioners my congratulations and good wishes on this significant anniversary. I am sure that many of the "old timers" can still remember the early days of the parish. So much has been accomplished there because of the wonderful spirit of collaboration that has always existed there between the priest and the parishioners. I feel fortunate to have been among those who have served St. Angela and on this occasion I give particular thanks to the Lord for the leadership of Fr. Joseph Calato, Fr. Louis Generes, Msgr. Crosby Kern and to Msgr. Hedrick,

May the Lord continue to bless you all and the ministries of St. Angela Merici parish abundantly.

Most Reverend John C. Favalora, Archbishop Emeritus of Miami

Thank you so much for the invitation to attend the Opening Mass of the 50th Anniversary celebration of St. Angela Merici Parish.

I will be unable to attend. However, I do wish to congratulate all the parishioners on what surely sees to be a vibrant and Christ loving community! Your invitation prompted me to view your website which provides glowing evidence.

50 years in 50 weeks

In June 1964, Archbishop John Cody canonically erected St. Angela Merici Church and assigned Father Joseph J. Calato as first pastor. On May 31, 1964, Fr. Calato mailed his first message to the parishioners and he quickly rallied the 900 charter families of the new parish. At the start, the parish had a piece of undeveloped property and a pastor: nothing else - no money, no place for assembly. On June 7, 1964, Fr. Calato began offering Sunday Masses in the generously loaned banquet hall operated by Mr. and Mrs. Marion Leon and Family located at 706 Phosphor Avenue.

Fr. Calato hired architects to begin drawing the plans for the place of assembly. He contacted the Ursuline Nuns, whose foundress was St. Angela, to staff the school he visualize to be ready in 15 short months. Before June ended, organizational meetings were held. A campaign to raise funds started in September and by the 27th - the sum of $700,000 was set as the cost of the place of assembly. Men from our parish began soliciting funds which soon surpassed $200,000 in gifts and pledges. More importantly, the parish, still assembling in a restaurant and worshipping without benefit of kneelers or other conveniences had its trained ushers, mass readers, organist, acolytes, altar society and traffic ushers.

REFLECTION

Lawyers don't always fare so well in popular culture. Even the television shows that exalt some aspects of the legal profession (like Law & Order or The Good Wife) also have some lawyers that are less than noble in both their personal and professional lives. Even in Shakespeare's time this ambivalence toward lawyers was evident in Henry VI, Part 2 when Dick the butcher, one of the rebels, proposes to kill all the lawyers since by their arguments they can have a man condemned as easily as freed. Still, every day people turn to lawyers seeking their help with a host of problems. The love-hate relationship continues.

In the Gospel this weekend, the scholar of the law is looking for the way to life. His question is sincere. He is trying to understand what is required of him. He can quote the law, indeed, probably even lives by it. But the question of who is a neighbor is one of legal precision. The interpretation of the Mosaic law based the fact of one being a neighbor on a covenantal relationship. Those who worshipped the one God were considered as one's neighbor. In the time of Jesus this narrow interpretation was being reconsidered. Some religious scholars suggested that a more universal application was needed, while others held to the tradition that Samaritans, foreigners, and those outside the law were not neighbors under the law. Jesus makes his position clear, although by coming at it from the other direction. It is the Samaritan who shows himself to be a neighbor.

Maybe that is where the argument lies for us today. We cannot define with legal precision who is going to be a neighbor to us. All we can do is decide to be neighborly toward others, that is, to show them the very love with which we love ourselves. And then rely on God's mercy that someone will be there for us as a neighbor in our time of need.

50 years in 50 weeks

During the same month of the first mass, June 1964, Fr. Calato hired architects to begin drawing the plans for the place of assembly. He contacted the Ursuline Nuns, whose foundress was St. Angela, to staff the school he could visualize to be ready in 15 short months. Before June ended, organizational meetings, one attended by 97 men and another by 122 women had been held. A campaign to raise funds started in September and by the 27th of that month and the seemingly staggering sum of $700,000 was set as the cost of assembly. 135 men from our parish began soliciting funds which soon surpassed $200,000 in gifts and pledges. More importantly, the parish, still assembling in a restaurant and worshipping without benefit of kneelers or other conveniences had its trained ushers, mass readers, organist, acolytes, altar society and traffic ushers.

Wedding Anniversaries

On Saturday, September 21, 2013 during 4:00 p.m. Mass, we will honor those couples from St. Angela Merici Parish who are celebrating their 25th, 50th, 55th, 60th or 65th Wedding Anniversary this year. We wish to begin making arrangements for this celebration and reception, and invite those couples who would like to be included to call the rectory (835-0324) to let us know that you are interested in celebrating your anniversary with us. Please do so by August 2, 2013.

from Mission to Mission

In a letter to Fr. Marlon:

"I would like to thank the people of St. Angela Merici Parish for your kindness and generosity when I visited you for the missionary appeal in June. As a visitor I appreciated your hospitality. As the director of a program that cares for missionaries I give thanks for your generous support. You will be remembered in my prayers. For more information about our program, please go to our website: www.missiontominion.org.

Jesus entered a village where a woman whose name was Martha welcomed him. She had a sister named Mary who sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak. Martha, burdened with much serving, came to him and said, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." - Lk 10:38-40

Reflection

In any household with more than one child, parents have to deal with sibling rivalry. The more benign forms find expression in simple competition, in which one child strives to do better than another in contests or sports. At other times, the rivalry shows itself in a negative light, offering up comments on who's not doing what, whether that is schoolwork or household chores. The supposedly aggrieved child has a heightened sense of justice, often proclaiming that the other child seems to get away with doing less.

It almost seems as though this is what is playing out in the Gospel story today between Martha and Mary. Martha wants Jesus to be the arbiter of the dispute, much as if she would be running to Mom or Dad. Mary seems to have found the sweet spot, sitting at the Teacher's feet. Plenty of German-inspired stained glass windows show exactly that, portraying Mary with an almost beatific quality to her face, while Martha stands in the background with a rather sour grimace. Jesus sits between them as though he is the referee between the two feuding sisters.

Since the time of Augustine the story of Martha and Mary has often been interpreted as a commentary on the difference between the active and contemplative life-with the contemplative winning out. It's hard to imagine that a Gospel such as Luke's, so filled with stories of compassion and assistance, would profess that view. It is Luke's Gospel that includes the story of the good Samaritan, the classic example of active love of neighbor. Maybe a better way for us to understand the story of Martha and Mary is this: Mary's example is a reminder that we must clearly hear what Jesus is teaching. We cannot just run about acting as we always have. Rather, we need to take his teaching to heart, and in that way ensure that our actions are based on his commands.

ST. ANGELA MERICI PARISH

Archdiocese of New Orleans

Rectory: 901 Beverly Garden Drive, Metairie, Louisiana 70002

Rectory: (504) 835-0324 • School: (504) 835-8491

Office of Religious Education: (504) 835-0324

Parishioners of St. Angela,

Back in 1999, when I entered Notre Dame Seminary here in New Orleans, I made a commitment to pray for my future parishioners, in particular for the parishioners of my first Pastorate. It is the goal of every priest to lift up his parish in prayer, and I figured that I could begin that process as a seminarian.

It has been a great pleasure to finally meet the people that I have been lifting up in prayer! And I must say that St. Angela parishioners have a lot of faith, strength, and energy. At Fr. Ken's 40th Anniversary celebration, I got to see the parish in action, and I was utterly impressed by your hospitality and support. I remained in the gym that evening until everything closed down, still meeting new people.

And since my arrival on July 1, you have been incredibly supportive and very ready to continue the great mission of the Church here at St. Angela Merici. Thank you for helping me with the transition into the pastorate.

We are grateful to God for the great leadership of Msgr. Ken Hedrick and previous pastors that have shepherded St. Angela's over the past 50 years. I got to know Msgr. Crosby Kern through Masses at the Cathedral, and I will always lift him and his family in my prayers.

Together we will celebrate half a century of ministry this year, ministry that God has inspired through your YES to God's invitation. It is such a privilege to meet so many founding members of St. Angela—all of you are a testimony to perseverance, prayer, and dedication to the parish, and your vocation in life.

I beg of you to pray for me! I repeat, that I am praying for you. Together, with God's mighty Grace, we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us!

In Christ,

Fr. Beau Charbonnet

Dear Friends,

I want to thank you for the wonderful 65-40-10-Farewell reception, for your warm and gracious remarks, for the notes and gifts that you shared with me both at the reception and my final week-end with you at St. Angela. Special thanks to the Family Life Apostolate ladies for preparing, coordinating and serving at the reception.

It was a wonderful ten years for me as part of the SAM family. You not only welcomed me, worked cooperatively with me and supported me, you also helped me to grow as a person and as a priest. You left me better than you found me! I can only hope that, in some small way, I did the same for you.

My transition to Our Lady of the Rosary Parish is moving along. I am still not completely unpacked, as we had to do some work in the office building and in the residence as well. But I have met with our deacons, Pastoral and Finance Councils and several parish lay leaders to help me get the "lay of the land." I think we will work well together.

With my Mom's death, a short vacation and the move, I am a bit tardy in sending thank-you notes both for my Anniversary and Farewell, but I am making small strides. Please know that I am grateful, even if I am also slow!

I look forward to seeing you all again at some of St. Angela's 50th Anniversary gatherings.

Fondly,
Fr. Ken

Family Life Apostolate

We invite all parishioners to join us in serving our church parish, by organizing and coordinating events that promote family togetherness. Our mission is to support, encourage, and celebrate the living out of our Catholic faith, in all forms of family.

We provide opportunities to promote and strengthen family life in our church parish through prayer and fellowship at events during the year such as parish dinners and receptions, married couples' ministry, family day masses and poster/essay contest, bereavement ministry, prayer line and welcoming of new parishioners. It is the blending of our families and reaching out in service to others that enable us to be renewed in our faith family of St. Angela, as well as our personal family, the foundation of the domestic church.

If you are interested in joining us or have any questions about Family Life Apostolate, please call Kay Dornier 834-4689 or Robin Coussou 838-8843.

St. Angela Merici – Child Church Team

Do you like to tell your children about Jesus? Do you like to read Bible stories to them? Do you want to get involved but have very little time to do so?

If you answered YES to the above, we ask that you consider being a part of our Child Church Team. This is a team of parents that take turns reading to the PreK-4, Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grade children at the 9:30 am Sunday Masses during the school year. After Opening Prayers, the assigned parents for each Sunday take the children to the Annex and read them a bible story of the Sunday readings and sing hymns. This gives the parents in Mass a chance to listen to the readings and homily without constant distraction.

To sign up, please send you name, phone number and email address to Sr. Paula at pderise@stangela.org indicating your interest in CHILD CHURCH. The Child Church coordinator will call you to discuss further. This is wonderful ministry and we hope you will join the team!

CCD

Our Religious Education Program is held at St. Clement of Rome Parish. The classes this year will be held on Sunday mornings 8:30 am to 9:45 am. Registration is going on now. If you have a child attending private or public school, please register as soon as possible. The first class will be Sunday, September 8th. When registering, please sign up as a St. Angela parishioner. We want to include you in our sacramental program. Some have asked why we do not have our own program - the answer is that we do not have enough students to run our own program here at St. Angela. Please register now - Call St. Clement (504) 887-7821 ext. 125 Miss Claire Gallagher is in charge.

ACCESS DIAPER DRIVE

ACCESS Pregnancy and Referral Centers are in desperate need of diapers and wipes. As a national Diaper Bank affiliate, ACCESS receives diaper requests from families throughout our region. ACCESS relies on donations to keep their diaper supply stocked. Unfortunately, the current stock is so low, they haven't been able to supply diapers to all who have made requests in the recent weeks. Please donate to the ACCESS diaper drive! You can donate online through the ACCESS Walmart.com baby registry—enter ACCESS in the first and last name sections under the baby registry or enter registry number 86182949302. Donations may also be dropped off at the new Metairie ACCESS location—921 Aris Ave, 504-832-1503. Diaper sizes 3, 4 & 5 along with wipes are especially needed.

VOCATIONS CROSS

Every weekend at the Saturday Vigil Mass or one of the Sunday Masses, the Vocation Cross is received by a parishioner or parish family. During the week, the recipient of the Vocation Cross commits to praying for an increase in vocations. The cross is then returned the following weekend at mass or directly to the rectory. You may contact the chair of any parish organization in which you participate to sign-up to receive the cross one week during the year, or you may contact Billy or Kathleen Steen (williamsteen@cox.net or 835-0892) to participate in a much needed parish ministry. Everyone in the parish is invited to participate.

Altar Ladies Team No. 4 will clean the church on Saturday, July 27.

Church Linen Team No. 1 will clean linens on Saturday, July 27.

All ladies of the parish are invited to join a team.
Call the Parish Office at 835-0324 to volunteer.

REFLECTION

Big cities can have a special attraction. The commercial areas can be alive with such hustle and bustle. Walking past store windows and sidewalk restaurants can enliven one's spirit as the great mass of humanity seems to be undulating with all the excitement of commerce and exchange. In large cities one can often hear multiple languages just by walking a few blocks as people from different parts of the world mix together on the sidewalks of America. Walk a few blocks in any big city and it is likely that you will come upon someone begging or panhandling on the street. In some places the beggars are very discreet, just sitting on a bench or a sidewalk with a paper cup in their hand that may have a few coins in it so as not to attract the attention of the police. In other places, the begging may be more aggressive with requests hurled at passersby. In a big city, every beggar has his regulars who give him something when they see him. But there are also the hundreds who will pass by. And then there are the occasional visitors who are unsure whether to heed the beggars' pleas or not.

In the Gospel this weekend, the disciples of Jesus ask him to teach them how to pray. He then goes on to describe for them the nature of prayer. He reminds the disciples not to give up. They must be persistent in their prayer, asking for what is needed.

Most of us probably can't ever conceive of ourselves as beggars sitting on the street corner of some large city, even though it is likely that at some point in our lives we have seen them (and maybe even given them something!). But that is exactly what we are every time we pray the Lord's Prayer. After all, we pray, "Give us this day our daily bread." You can't be much more of a beggar than that!

ST. ANGELA MERICI PARISH

Archdiocese of New Orleans

Rectory: 901 Beverly Garden Drive, Metairie, Louisiana 70002

Rectory: (504) 835-0324 • School: (504) 835-8491

Office of Religious Education: (504) 835-0324

Dear Parishioners

As so many of you know, this is my parish and my home, as well as my full time job since 1996. I moved into St. Angela parish in 1972, Bennie and I were married here at St. Angela in 1973, and, with instructions provided by transitional deacons Tom Kinney and Gregory Aymond (now our Archbishop), I was converted and confirmed as a Catholic here at St. Angela during the Easter Vigil Mass in 1974 by now retired Archbishop John Favalora who was our Pastor. I was very active and involved, and volunteered a lot in the parish. In fact, in 1996, when I became Business Manager – a newly developed position in the Catholic church to relieve the ordained Priests of the temporalities of management (the everyday headaches of human resources, maintenance, scheduling, bill paying, reporting, etc., etc., etc.), some thought I was “volunteering” more. But, this had become my full time paid position to serve my parish. And what a joy and a privilege it has been!!!

I became 65 in November of 2012, and Bennie and I had “planned” my retirement for some time leading up to this date. However, things being as they are, learning that Father Ken would be leaving as our Pastor at the end of June, and Father Beau would come to us at the beginning of July, there was a little detour in my plans.

When Father Beau arrived I told him I plan on retiring effective September 1, 2013. I shared this information with our Pastoral Staff on an individual basis as best I could, and now I share it with you.

Please know how much I have enjoyed ministering to our parish over these past seventeen years. While I may not know each of you by name, you know me, you have entrusted to me your care and concerns for the betterment of our parish, and of the commitment of our faith, and I truly feel blessed by my years of serving you in this capacity.

This is my parish and – hopefully – you will see me and Bennie – for a long time to come. But I must say, each of you will always be in my prayers for your love, your support, and your genuine and concerted interest in building the kingdom of Christ as it exists and continues to grow beginning in our parish here at St. Angela!!!

Thanks for being the special people that you are!!

Prayer Line St. Angela Parish

The purpose of the Prayer Line is to link us together as parishioners as we pray for those in our local parish community who are in special need of our support. It is a person-to-person connection. Even when someone who requests prayers ask to remain anonymous, they are our parishioners who need and want us to hold them up to the Lord.

The intent of the Prayer Line, however, is not to provide individual "causes" or personal devotions.

The "Congratulations" is intended to be seen as prayerful thanks to God for an individual or group within our parish or Archdiocese accomplishments.

"Special Intentions" are limited to those in our parish and our Archdiocese or prayers of the Pope.

We pray for Vocations and our Military each week.

All names joining the Prayer Line are confidential and are sent out in the BCC (blind copy) so it is only received by your name.

If you wish to join, please call Dianne at the Parish Office at 835-0324.

EXTRAORDINARY MINISTERS OF HOLY COMMUNION

Fr. Beau extends an invitation to all Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to attend 8:30 a.m. Mass on Saturday, August 10 followed with a meeting in Church from 9-10:30 a.m. If you will not be able to attend, please call the Parish Office at 835-0324 or email Dianne at dianne@stangela.org

2013 SCHOOL FAMILY SUPPORT

REFLECTION

In fiscal 2012, lottery sales in the United States averaged approximately $250 per person. Forty-three states and the District of Columbia accounted for that $78 billion in sales. It was in March 2012 that the largest prize to date ($656 million) was split between three winners. While it is clear that many people enjoy playing the lottery recreationally, a question that is often asked is, "What does someone do with all that money?" Of course, that particular problem has not seemed to bother those who play regularly. Indeed, the largest jackpots, far from being a deterrent, end up provoking an even greater number of players, who seem intent on turning a single dollar into a large fortune.

The Gospel this weekend offers a perspective on the material world. While possessions are needed, Jesus says, "One's life does not consist of possessions" (Lk 12:15). This comment by Jesus is not something new to any of us. We have heard this all before. But we also know that there is wisdom in storing up for ourselves. As a matter of fact, saving for the future is an act of personal responsibility. We are constantly told to save for retirement, to have a rainy-day fund, to set aside something for a vacation instead of going into debt to take one. All of these actions are so we don't become overly dependent on the social fabric and cause an undue burden on others.

There is a difference between having a sufficiency and having an excess. When our desire for an excess outstrips our reasonableness and our need, then we are flirting with greed, the very thing that the Gospel warns against. Yes, we may work hard, and save for the future. We may even win the lottery. But when we have more than we need the Lord expects that we use it not just for ourselves but also for others. What we do with the blessings we have makes all the difference.

FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

On Thursday, August 15. we celebrate the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary into heaven and this is Holy Day of Obligation.

On Wednesday, August 14th, the anticipated Mass of the Holy Day will be at 4:00 p.m. On Thursday, August 15th, Masses will be at 6:15 a.m., 8:30 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. Our school community will join with us at the 8:30 a.m. Mass.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

Every Tuesday morning, 9:15 to 10:45 a.m. the Scripture Study group meets in the Religious Education Library beginning on September 10th through November 19th.

We study the current Mass readings for the following Sunday Mass to better understand and apply these passages to our daily lives. With these readings, both Old and New Testament passages are covered using commentaries from the New American Bible and Collegeville Bible Commentary.

We recently studied the Acts of the Apostles with great interest and valuable information. We learned how our New Testament religion flows from the Old Testament and Judaism. Both have the same basic beliefs about God and Creation and Prayer and Morality.

Women and men are invited to join our study group any Tuesday that you wish. We welcome you to participate or just sit and listen.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING SESSION

The Archdiocese of New Orleans in their care and concern for our children sponsor workshops for those adults who have regular contact with minors in our parishes, schools and organizations.

We here at St. Angela are sponsoring a workshop on September 4th at 7 pm in the gym for all adults who will be helping in school programs, children's liturgy of the word, teachers of our confirmation program, and all adult scout leaders.

The follow-up background check with Austin Computing confirms that those working with our children are safe to work with our children. If you plan to work with children of our parish, please plan to be there and to finish the Austin Computing work.

ST. ANGELA MERICI NEWS

SALA

The St. Angela Ladies Auxiliary (SALA) is an organization of ladies from St. Angela Merici Parish who work to promote the spiritual learning and growth of their members. They also work with and promote various parish, church and school activities.

Our Group meets the first Tuesday of the month, from September through May, in the Msgr. Kern Center at 7 p.m. These meetings include prayer time, occasional guest speakers, socializing and refreshments. Every Saturday morning after Mass, a Church Housekeeping Committee team maintains the pews, altar and linens and keeps the church beautifully decorated with floral arrangements. We support the parish fair, Summer Bible Camp, Gumbalaya Cook-Off, St. Vincent de Paul Society, summer Cabbage Ball as well as other worthy parish endeavors.

This is just a small example of what one can expect as a member of SALA. We are a creative group of women who enjoy our time together as well as working together for our parish. We invite all ladies of St. Angela Merici Parish to join us. If you would like further information or questions, please call the Parish Office at 835-0324.

BRIDGE TO NAIM

This group is composed of widows and widowers of all ages. The title "Naim" is taken from Luke 7:11-17. In this Gospel passage, Christ restored to life the only son of a widow in the village of Naim. The primary purpose of the Naim conference of the Archdiocese of New Orleans is to promote the spiritual and psychological welfare of widows and widowers. Naim is a self-help organization which offers emotional support and spiritual guideposts during this grieving period. It offers friends who are in similar situations and it offers sympathetic listening when one wants to talk.

No one better understands the lives of widows and widowers than those who are widowed. By meeting together we do for each other what others fail to do. Our group here at St. Angela meets at 10:30 am on the second Tuesday of the month. Our August meeting will be on Tuesday, August 13th. The meeting is held in the Conference Room, near Melody St. and the parking lot. All widows and widowers are invited as guest to share in the special time together. Jo Poche is our leader and she can be reached at 833-9470.

RCIA

Our RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) program will be on Thursday evenings this coming year. Please welcome those you know who want to learn more about the Catholic Faith to come to join us. Last year we had someone who finally said he wanted to become a Catholic. When I asked why he waited so long, he said, "No one asked me." So, please ask your non-Catholic friends, Catholics who want to learn more about their faith, and/or adults who need Confirmation to join. For more information, please call Sr. Paula at 835-0324 or email at pderise@stangela.org. We will have a meeting on August 15th, 7:00 pm, in the Conference Room.

SPAGHETTI DINNER

Bishop Caillouet Knights of Columbus Council 9007 will have a Spaghetti and Meatball dinner on Sunday, August 25, 2013 in the Msgr Kern Center (Gym) from 10:30 AM to 1:00 PM. The cost of the dinners are $8.00 each. The dinners include meatballs and spaghetti, salad and bread. Drinks and desserts will also be for sale. Dine in or take out service available. Please consider joining the Knights. Speak to one of the Knights that day.

Magnificat

The Metairie Chapter of Magnificat, a Ministry to Catholic Women, is situated in our parish. It seeks to encourage holiness through both practice and faithful adherence to the Church's magisterial teaching.

On October 7, 1981, a group of women, some of whom were St. Angela parishioners, planned a prayer breakfast. It was held at the Harrison Avenue Knights of Columbus Hall and attended by approximately 200 women. Patti Mansfield told the story of "the Duquesne Weekend," a student retreat at the "Ark and the Dove" in Pittsburgh in 1967. It was the start of what eventually came to be called the Catholic Charismatic Renewal.

Pope Paul VI stated in On Evangelization in the Modern World: "Modern man listens more willingly to witnesses than to teachers, and if he does listen to teachers, it is because they are witnesses." Magnificat seeks to present as speakers women who witness by their lives that "Jesus Christ is Lord". They relate their experience of how He has shepherded them.

Since that 1st Breakfast, Magnificat has spread throughout the US, the Caribbean, Canada, Europe and Africa. The Metairie Chapter is proud to be called the Mother Chapter of 76 others.

Our next breakfast will be on October 19th at the Landmark Hotel on Severn from 9 am to Noon. Our speaker will be Paulette Renaudin.

REFLECTION

Consider the variety of ways we use the word "service" to describe the work of different people. Those who work in government are said to have given themselves to public service. Members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines are all part of the armed services. Hotel and restaurant employees are said to work in the service industries, along with barbers, hair dressers, flight attendants, and entertainers, although it is a bit of a stretch to imagine folks like Jimmy Kimmel, Jay Leno, or Stephen Colbert in the same category as the hotel housekeeping staff. Every one of these service-oriented groups also has its caricature of the lazy, inefficient provider. There's the often joked about drivers' license examiner. There's Beetle Bailey of cartoon fame. And comedy skits about airline stewardesses or hotel maids abound. Yet all of these professions continue to distinguish themselves, despite the occasional "bad apple" that may turn up.

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus makes it clear that a servant (that is, a believer) must be constantly vigilant. Peter asked directly, "Is the parable meant for us or for everyone?" Jesus didn't answer him directly, but went on to add another parable describing the prudent, industrious servant and the lazy one.

We do not know when the Lord will return, and so we cannot rest on our laurels as though one good deed or one proclamation of the Gospel is enough. Yes, we have our employment, our family, our personal needs that we must attend to. But we are also servants of the Lord. When we get up in the morning, while we are preparing for the day and running through in our heads the list of everything we must accomplish that day, one of the things we can ask ourselves is, "What kind of a servant of God am I going to be today?" That can give us a sense of what can guide our actions as we work through the day.

All School Reunion

The All School Reunion was a great success! We had a great turnout on Saturday afternoon. Over 300 alumni, teachers, parishioners and guests enjoyed the event at Rock 'n Bowl.

Alumni from as far as Memphis and San Diego made the trip to celebrate with us.

Special thanks to Mariela Twiggs, St. Angela parishioner and owner of Hollywood South Photobooth, for providing some great fun and mementos of the evening.

And a very special thanks to Greta Johnson and Peggy Lulich, Chairpersons for the All School Reunion.

LORD, TEACH ME TO PRAY

Lord, Teach Me To Pray is a three-part prayer series for men and women based on Ignatian Spirituality.

Part 1, "Praying Christian Virtues" deepen prayer life, and discover what to do for dryness and obstacles in prayer. It also introduces the different methods of Ignatian prayer, meditation, contemplation and Consciousness Examen. Small groups will meet with 2 trained facilitators for 1 - 2 hours once a week to pray and faith share. Part 2, "My 19th Annotation", the entire Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola will be available for those who have completed Part 1.

Part 3, "Discernment & Gifts of the Spirit", (14 week program) invites the group to pray with the Holy Spirit and St. Ignatius' Rules for Discernment. Part 3 is available for those who have completed Parts 1 & 2. Groups of men and women will meet separately and will begin the week of September 9, 2013. To register, go to www.lordteachmetoprayer.com or call Mrs. Marilyn Ducasse at (504) 833-3740.

St. Angela Merici will be offering Lord, Teach Me To Pray, Part 3, "Discernment & Gifts of the Spirit" on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. in the Administration Building, Religious Education Library. If you would like to participate or have questions, please contact Kathleen Steen, kathleensteen@gmail.com or call (504) 835-0892 or Donna Bodin at (504) 812-5135.

ST. ANGELA MERICI NEWS

SAMA

Meeting: Tuesday, August 20th
Our speaker: Fr. Beau Charbonnet
7:30 p.m. - Kern Center (gym)
Menu: Rotisserie Chicken, RAM rice, corn and dessert.
Annual Dues: $50.00

(Will be collected at the meeting - covers meals and drinks for the eight meetings held during the parish year)

St. Angela Men's Association (SAMA) was formed to promote unity and fellowship within our parish. We have monthly meetings for the exchange of ideas and consideration of projects that may improve our way of life and take care of the needs of our parish.

SAMA helps sponsor parish functions throughout the year; fish fries, parish fair, Gumbalaya Cook-Off and various sports activities. We are instrumental in helping with man power when help is needed in parish activities. If you are looking for an opportunity to get to know a bunch of good people, and in the process get involved in helping our parish, please join and become a member of our growing fraternity we call SAMA.

Please join us! Our new Pastor, Fr. Beau Charbonnet will speak at our meeting. If you have any questions, contact Terry Mipro at (504) 390-3342.

St. Angela Merici Senior Citizens

Our Senior citizens group was established in 1979 and has a wide variety of goals and activities for its members. The spiritual, cultural, and social enrichment of each member, as well as support of parish activities and programs, are important goals of this organization; Mass, Morning of Reflection, Field Trips; volunteering to help our parish fair and Gumbalaya Cook-Off.

Our meetings are held in the Kern Center (gym) on the first Thursday of the month from September through May at 12:00 Noon. We have a short business session, socializing, bingo, and refreshments. The meeting usually ends around 2:00 p.m.

Our first meeting will be on Thursday, September 5th at 12:00 Noon. A light lunch of sandwiches will be served. Our guest speaker will be Fr. Beau

REFLECTION

Even one hundred and fifty years after it took place, the effects of the Civil War in the United States can still be felt. Even though the shifting population has tempered perceptions, those who work in the social sciences can still point to sections of the country where certain attitudes hold a greater sway than in others. And even though it may be unfair, there are times when a particular region will be categorized in a way that hearkens back to an earlier era. The battles of the war are still fought by teams who meticulously reenact the events in a harmless historical hobby. More nefarious are those who use code words and false ideas to resurrect an era that should be consigned to history.

The divisions that Jesus attests to in this weekend's Gospel spring from the real experience of the early Christian community in the first century of its existence. For some, Christianity was a dangerous philosophy that needed to be eradicated. Some of its propositions threatened the security of the state, like the worship of the one God and the equality of everyone before the Lord referenced in Paul's famous words to the Galatians: "There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free person, there is not male and female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus" (3:28).

The Gospel today is not an encouragement to family arguments. Jesus is not asking households to be so rigorous that our faith becomes a point of contention. But the Scripture does allude to a stress point that many of us may confront in our lives. Being a believer means that sometimes we must take a stand. We are called to proclaim clearly what we believe and to do that when it may be uncomfortable for us. We won't necessarily become a martyr, but there are times when there is a cost to our faith.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING SESSION

The Archdiocese of New Orleans in their care and concern for our children sponsor workshops for those adults who have regular contact with minors in our parishes, schools and organizations.

We here at St. Angela are sponsoring a workshop on September 4th at 7 pm in the gym for all adults who will be helping in school programs, children's liturgy of the word, teachers of our confirmation program, and all adult scout leaders.

The follow-up background check with Austin Computing confirms that those working with our children are safe to work with our children. If you plan to work with children of our parish, please plan to be there and to finish the Austin Computing work.

SALA

Welcome Ladies of St. Angela to our Golden 50th year of great gatherings as SALA - St. Angela Ladies Auxiliary. We will begin this year welcoming new members and returning members with a Meet & Greet Wine & Cheese Party on Tuesday, September 3rd at 7:00 pm in the Kern Center.

All ladies of St. Angela Parish are invited and encouraged to join SALA and to participate in the fun activities of this interesting group. Come to enjoy camaraderie and learn the plans and activities for our GOLD-EN YEAR!

St. Angela Merici Catholic Youth Organization

St. Angela Merici C.Y.O. (Catholic Youth Organization) is open to all teens in 8th grade through Senior year of high school. Our membership currently consist of students from area high schools; including Mount Carmel, St. Mary's Dominican, Jesuit, Brother Martin, Chapelle, Rummel, Holy Cross, Cabrini and Riverdale! C.Y.O. is a great way for grammar school friends to stay connected after they leave St. Angela. All teens are welcome; it is not necessary to be a parishioner. Our youth are served well through our youth ministry here but in addition to being served, our organization affords members many opportunities to serve others. You will see our members helping with many parish events including our Parish Fair, Christmas Caroling, Gumbalaya Cook-Off, and the Married Couples dinner. We also sponsor service events at Second Harvest Food Bank and Chateau de Notre Dame.

Twice annually we sponsor troops' drives! The parish support of this event is strong and we very much appreciate all you do to assist us in this effort. We receive many humbling replies from grateful soldiers. Our next drive is scheduled for Saturday, October 5th and will run from 1 pm until 3 pm in the gym. More information will follow in September, but we ask that you keep your ears open for friends, co-workers, and family members who may know of someone currently deployed overseas. Those deployed do not need to be parishioners! This is our way of reaching out in Christ around the world to those in need.

Our organization meets generally on the second Sunday of the month from 6:30-8:00 pm in the gym. New members and visitors are welcome throughout the year. Parents are encouraged to attend our September meeting to be updated on important information and events. We participate in the Archdiocesan C.Y.O. Athletic League; Coed Cabbage ball, Basketball, and Coed Volleyball. We sponsor a membership Barbecue in June which includes a very popular water balloon fight! In August, we held an afterhours lock-in at Laser Tag and Games. A good time was had by all!

We work to provide opportunities for spiritual growth through several special events all held annually. First, our own Archdiocese version of World Youth Day! This is scheduled for Sunday, October 27, 2013 and will be held locally. It is a good opportunity for members to hear great nationally recognized keynote speakers, informative break-out sessions, as well as attend Mass celebrated by Archbishop Aymond. Students come from all over the archdiocese to participate. There is also a Junior High Track for 6th and 7th graders! Secondly, we will hold an overnight retreat at Camp Abbey in Covington on January 3rd and 4th, 2014. Many of our own former members, now in college, return to assist with our retreat! Another very worthwhile event is Abbey Youth Fest, held at the Abbey in Covington. This draws teens from a seven state area for an all-day outdoor event which also features great speakers, lots of music, Mass, and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament under the stars. Held every other year in even years is The National Catholic Youth Conference which will be held in Indianapolis November 21-23. We have a small group attending with the New Orleans Archdiocese delegation! This event draws teens from all over the United States and usually numbers around 25,000!

If you are interested in learning more about our C.Y.O., talk to one of our officers; Julia Delesdernier, Kameron Zandi, Jason Crumb, or Regina Lowe. We also have an Adult Advisory Board whose members are Mary Delesdernier, Janice Wolff, Kenny and Stephanie Hassinger, Vicki Genova, and Paul Galloway. These people are dedicated to insuring that our members have a meaningful experience in C.Y.O. and we are grateful for their service! You may also contact me at cyo@stangela.org or at 495-4335

Jesus passed through towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" He answered them, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate." - Lk 13:22-24a

REFLECTION

State fairs are famous for their many contests. The best cow, the best pig, the best sheep are hailed as "Grand Champions." The best cake, the best raspberry jam, the finest pickles, and the most delectable pie are awarded blue ribbons. Cheese and butter, honey and maple syrup, fruits and vegetables, agricultural products of all kinds win prizes of distinction based on criteria for their category. Hand-crafted items are also entered into competition, and ribbons won displayed on the home mantle. While almost anyone can enter one of these contests, there is only one blue ribbon, only one grand champion.

In Sunday's Gospel we hear Jesus respond to a question posed to him about the number who will be saved. One of the tenets of our faith concerns the universal salvific will of God, that is, God wants everyone to be saved. But God has also given humankind free will, meaning that people have a choice in accepting God's invitation to salvation. For those of us who are believers, it can be difficult to comprehend that someone would not want to enjoy eternal life. But that is a choice that God offers, and the Gospel this Sunday reinforces the idea that being saved is more than just a casual acquaintance with Jesus.

Like a competition at the state fair, there are criteria for entering the kingdom of God. They are not mysterious. There is not some secret code that we need to know. What is needed is clearly spelled out just like the rules for entering a pie or jar of canned peaches. We need to love God. We need to listen to his word. We need to be compassionate toward others. We need to love our neighbor. The difference between these criteria and entering a state fair contest is that there is always more than one grand champion in the Christian life. Everyone who follows faithfully gets a blue ribbon.

LORD, TEACH ME TO PRAY

Lord, Teach Me To Pray is a three-part prayer series for men and women based on Ignatian Spirituality.

Part 1, "Praying Christian Virtues" deepen prayer life, and discover what to do for dryness and obstacles in prayer. It also introduces the different methods of Ignatian prayer, meditation, contemplation and Consciousness Examen. Small groups will meet with 2 trained facilitators for 1 - 2 hours once a week to pray and faith share. Part 2, "My 19th Annotation", the entire Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola will be available for those who have completed Part 1. Part 3,

"Discernment & Gifts of the Spirit", invites the group to pray with the Holy Spirit and St. Ignatius' Rules for Discernment. Part 3 is available for those who have completed Parts 1 & 2. Groups of men and women will meet separately and will begin the week of Sept. 9, 2013. To register, go to www.lordteachmetoprayer.com or call Mrs. Marilyn Ducasse at (504) 833-3740.

St. Angela Merici will be offering Lord, Teach Me To Pray, Part 3, "Discernment & Gifts of the Spirit" on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. in the Administration Building, Religious Education Library. If you would like to participate or have questions, please contact Kathleen Steen, kathleenlsteen@gmail.com or call (504) 835-0892 or Donna Bodin at (504) 812-5135.

REFLECTION

There is a story that has been circulating about Pope Francis. Whether all the details are accurate is not as important as the overall meaning. As it is told, after his election Pope Francis returned to live at the Vatican guesthouse, which he has now made his home. He got up early one morning and opened the door of his room to find a Swiss Guard standing at attention. The pope asked the man how long he had been there and the guard responded, "All night, Holy Father." The pope brought out a chair and told the guard to sit down because he must be tired. When the guard responded that it was against the rules, the pope responded, "I'm the pope. Please sit." The guard uncomfortably took his seat, and the pope returned to his room. A few moments later, he came out with some bread and jam for the guard and wished him "Bon appétit!" before closing his bedroom door.

In this weekend's Gospel Jesus uses the example of dining with others to teach his disciples about life in the kingdom of God. He suggests that a person's sense of self-importance should not overtake the humbleness that characterizes the communal life of the kingdom. As citizens of God's realm there is only One who outranks everyone else, and that is the Lord.

People with power often get special places. The head table at a conference, meeting, or awards banquet always has the "big shots" filling the seats. Political fund-raisers have the highest ranking elected leaders sitting up front. In the Gospel, Jesus suggests that we be more realistic about ourselves. As the story about Pope Francis indicates, esteem comes not because we get the most revered place at table, but because we care about others. The command that Jesus gives to invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind still binds us in charity today.

Office of the Archbishop

August 13, 2013

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Two years ago we began the practice of offering the Sacrament of Penance, better known as confession, on a weekday evening near the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. I am pleased to inform you that many, many people throughout the archdiocese took advantage of this opportunity last year and the priests have decided overwhelmingly to continue this practice.

This year confessions will be available in all Catholic churches in the Archdiocese of New Orleans on Wednesday, September 11, 2013 beginning at 7:00PM. Please consider taking advantage of this opportunity to invite the healing Christ into your heart with his promise of forgiveness and reconciliation.

In this Year of Family and Faith, we are reminded that reconciliation with God and members of our family is at the very heart of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. Please consider having your family come to church together for Confession on Wednesday, September 11th.

Wishing you God's blessings, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

CYO

Our next meeting is September 8th, 2013. We need at least one parent to attend the first part of the meeting from 6:30 - 7:00 p.m.

We will discuss the CYO Code of Conduct and review upcoming events. Jambalaya will be served! For more information contact Diane Kratochvil at cyo@stangela.org.

SCRIPTURE STUDY

Every Tuesday morning, 9:15 to 10:45 a.m. the Scripture Study group meets in the Religious Education Library beginning on September 10th through November 19th.

We study the current Mass readings for the following Sunday Mass to better understand and apply these passages to our daily lives. With these readings, both Old and New Testament passages are covered using commentaries from the New American Bible and Collegeville Bible Commentary.

We recently studied the Acts of the Apostles with great interest and valuable information. We learned how our New Testament religion flows from the Old Testament and Judaism. Both have the same basic beliefs about God and Creation and Prayer and Morality.

Women and men are invited to join our study group any Tuesday that you wish. We welcome you to participate or just sit and listen.

LORD, TEACH ME TO PRAY

Lord, Teach Me To Pray is a three-part prayer series for men and women based on Ignatian Spirituality.

Part 1. "Praying Christian Virtues" deepen prayer life, and discover what to do for dryness and obstacles in prayer. It also introduces the different methods of Ignatian prayer, meditation, contemplation and Consciousness Examen. Small groups will meet with 2 trained facilitators for 1 - 2 hours once a week to pray and faith share. Part 2. "My 19th Annotation", the entire Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola will be available for those who have completed Part 1. Part 3. "Discernment & Gifts of the Spirit", invites the group to pray with the Holy Spirit and St. Ignatius' Rules for Discernment. Part 3 is available for those who have completed Parts 1 & 2. Groups of men and women will meet separately and will begin the week of Sept. 9, 2013. To register, go to www.lordteachmetoprayer.com or call Mrs. Marilyn Ducasse at (504) 833-3740.

St. Angela Merici will be offering Lord, Teach Me To Pray, Part 3, "Discernment & Gifts of the Spirit" on Tuesdays at 1:00 p.m. in the Administration Building, Religious Education Library. If you would like to participate or have questions, please contact Kathleen Steen, kathleensteen@gmail.com or call (504) 835-0892 or Donna Bodin at (504) 812-5135.

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple." - Lk 14:25-27

REFLECTION

In the midst of the Great Recession many construction plans were abandoned. Back in February, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis released a report analyzing the effect of the restrained construction environment on the economy. From a peak of 400,000 housing starts per quarter to just over 100,000 in the final quarter of 2012, the total industry (construction and real estate), which once accounted for ten million jobs, lost 2.5 million of its workers over five years. Data used by the Fed showed that employment was on a growth trend if you excluded the construction industry. Add that industry into the picture, and employment in the past few years continues its downward march. The report also points to the fact that construction has a large indirect effect on the economy as well, since more building increases demand for things like furniture and banking and legal services.

In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus uses the example of calculating the cost to build a tower as a way of inviting those who heard him to consider what it means to become one of his followers. The life of the Gospel is more than just a quick acceptance of Jesus into one's life. There are costs associated with becoming a disciple. Jesus puts it rather bluntly at the end of this week's text when he states, "Anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

The Great Recession certainly saw many people losing all of their possessions. Jobs were lost, retirement savings were used up, homes were foreclosed, and plans for college were abandoned. But this kind of imposed loss is not what Jesus is speaking of. He is inviting those who have-and there are still many of us that fall into that category-to not become overly attached to all of our possessions. Love of material things can keep us from seeing Christ, most especially from seeing Christ in our brothers and sisters in need.

Office of the Archbishop

September 15, 2013

To the Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

Today, throughout the Catholic Church, we celebrate Catechetical Sunday with the theme of "Open the Door of Faith."

This is a special observance in each parish as we pray for and ask God's blessings upon all those who share in the important work of catechesis. Those who share in this ministry are our catechists in the parish school of religion, the administrators and teachers in our Catholic schools, youth ministers and those who are involved in the ministry of RCIA and adult faith formation. Please join me in thanking them for not only giving of themselves in a generous way to provide religious education and formation for our youth and adults, but also pray that God will continue to bless them and inspire them in their ministry. They give of themselves in a generous way to help others open their hearts to Christ. Furthermore, their example of faith is one that can be a source of inspiration to us.

In this Year of Family and Faith in the Archdiocese of New Orleans, let us also pray for students, parents and families on this Catechetical Sunday. We are reminded that parents are the first teachers of their children in faith and we pray for them that they will joyfully fulfill this vocation.

Please know of my deep appreciation and prayer of thanksgiving to all of you who share in this important ministry of catechesis.

Wishing you God's blessings, and with the assurance of my prayers, I am

Gratefully in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans

REFLECTION

"Found" is a great word! It can have so many levels of meaning. Obviously it means having recovered something that was misplaced or lost. My aged mother is forever "finding" her glasses, even though they are usually on the table under the mail or the newspaper. Found can also mean to begin something or to set something up. The parish I worship at, like the one you belong to, had a founding pastor who organized the beginning of community in response to the bishop's request or the call of the people in the area. Anyone who works with molten material also knows that to found means casting that metal or glass object in a place called (of course!) a foundry.

Jesus tells the story today of a woman who has ten coins and lost one. All three meanings of the word "found" are part of parable. The coin was found (that is cast) by a treasury, either the emperor's or that of a local realm. Having lost the coin, the woman found (that is recovered) it after searching the whole house. The recovery of the coin occasioned the founding (that is the initiation) of her rejoicing. The parable of the lost coin is truly about founding.

Like that coin, we may be lost at times, but God finds us. He recovers us from whatever has separated us from him, whether that is sin, the distractions of life, or the fragility of our faith. In finding us, God renews us. He remolds us and forms us more and more into people with a lively faith. Like that molten metal that is founded into a coin, the love of God purifies us and remakes us anew, casting us into the image of Christ. By asking God's forgiveness and by praying for a renewal of faith, we gain a new foundation and so can begin again, living the way Christ has taught us, filled with the love of God and love for our brothers and sisters.

St. Angela Merici Celebrating 50 years of Faith

We are in the second half of the YEAR OF FAITH, which was proclaimed by Pope Benedict to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Second Vatican Council. Yes, while our Church leaders were attending that Council, our Archdiocesan leaders were establishing a new church parish. At that time, many of us, or our families, were living out their FAITH by founding St. Angela Merici Catholic Church. It was June, 1964, FIFTY years ago!

On Saturday, September 7 at the 4 p.m. mass the "founders" of our parish were recognized as we honored their courage and willingness to give of their time, talents and treasures to begin our parish. Surprisingly, over a hundred of our "founding" family members who still live in the parish were invited to come together at this mass to remember gathering at Leon's Restaurant for mass and the beginning of this 50 year journey. After mass, nearly two hundred "founders" enjoyed dinner and raised their glasses to toast "FIFTY YEARS OF FAITH".

The Anniversary Committee would like to thank the many folks who made this celebration complete. Thank you to the KC 4th Degree Color Corp, SALA, SAMA, CYO, Family Life Apostolate, KC Council 9007, our School's Faculty and students and our parish's staff. Special appreciation is extended to Elaine Ridgley for accepting the 'lead' in planning this gathering. Also, thank you to Fr. Beau, Fr. Marlon and our deacons for their service to our parish and all the clergy before them for their prayers and guidance.

What a great blessing is our FAITH! The Sacrament of Reconciliation offers new beginnings and the mass gives us the Eucharist to strengthen our faith. Each time we stop to pray, we remember that we are dependent on God to lead us, guide us and help our faith to grow!.

As we celebrate the past 50 years, reflect on where we are today, and look forward to our future as a parish, we thank God for blessing our parish with FIFTY YEARS OF FAITH.

Forty Days of Prayer For Life

From September 25 to November 3 there will be an international observance to highlight the negative impact of abortion on nations around the world.

The 40 Days of Life Campaign is a call for all of us to pray and fast and work for an end to abortions. It is also a call for parishes and groups to participate in peaceful and loving presence at local abortion facilities. This is not simply a Catholic program, but an ecumenical effort consisting of three aspects: 1) Prayers and Fasting, 2) Peaceful Presence, and 3) Community Outreach. To learn more about the program you can go to www.40DAYSFORLIFENOLA.com.

St. Angela Merici Parish has adopted two entire days - Saturday, October 12 and Tuesday, October 22. We will have sign up sheets in the back of church after all masses the weekend of September 21 and 22nd for one (1) hour shifts from 7:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. Daily Vigil will be held at the abortion facility on Ridgelake Avenue.

SALA

Forty-five SALA members gathered in the Msgr. Kern Center on September 3, 2013 for their first meeting of the 2013-2014 season. Fr. Beau addressed the ladies, challenging us to be like Martha and Mary, a tough balance. Father spoke briefly about the 40 Days For Life Campaign starting in a couple of weeks. He urged those present to sign up for an hour to pray at the abortion clinic on Ridgelake Dr. on October 12 and/or October 22, the two days St. Angela has committed to be present to be witnesses for life. Sr. Paula encouraged the ladies to become a member of the Linen Committee as more help is desperately needed to wash and iron the Mass linens. Upcoming events to celebrate St. Angela's 50th Anniversary were discussed. SALA members (and anyone else interested) will make and sell sweets at the Parish Fair on September 27th and 28th. Wine, cheese, and deserts were enjoyed after the meeting adjourned.

ST. ANGELA MERICI SENIOR CITIZENS

St. Angela Merici's Seniors are sponsoring a Pilgrimage to the National Shrine of Our Lady of Prompt Succor on Thursday, October 17, 2013. We will travel by bus to the Shrine. Fr. Beau will celebrate the 11:am Mass. From there we will go to Dooky Chase for lunch. the total cost is $30.00. All seniors in the Parish are invited to attend. If interested, call Josie Nagel at 833-4262.

St. Angela Merici's Seniors next meeting is on Thursday, October 3 at 12:00 noon. A Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Deputy will speak on home safety as it applies to Senior Citizens. All seniors are invited to attend.

Rest in Peace

In your charity please pray for the souls of

who died recently, and for those who mourn them.

~ May all of our beloved dead rest in peace ~

REFLECTION

Brad and Joanna met in graduate school and married shortly after they each completed their degree work. As a young married couple they are deeply in love with each other and really work hard at being unified in their household as they raise their two young children. In so many ways they act as one. But every fall there is one thing that comes along that divides this couple: college football! You see, Joanna graduated from Ohio State, while Brad finished his undergraduate work at the University of Wisconsin. Most of the time, the weekend college football events are not that divisive. They can even root for each other's alma maters depending on who the opponent is. But when their schools play each other the division is intense. Their home life may be united in many things, but when it comes to their old school teams the rivalry wins out.

In the Gospel this weekend, Jesus points out to his disciples that a person can really only devote himself to one master. Serving God and serving money are very hard to hold in balance. The dishonest steward in the Gospel parable could not hold to his ethical duty to his employer. Instead he used his position to feather his own nest, something that even his former employer gave him credit for.

The loyalties that Brad and Joanna have toward their individual teams are commendable. They each maintain a strong devotion to their collegiate experience. But they also recognize that there is a greater master to serve in their lives: their marital union. As intense as game day may be, they realize that in the end, it is just a game, while their marriage and their family life is not. They have recognized a greater good even as they enjoy the game that divides them each fall. Our own lives can be exactly like that. We can come to an accommodation with every other thing as long as we recognize that God is the master of all.

REFLECTION

Proverbs have a way of succinctly stating a concept that can become a kind of mantra for explaining the way things are. Sayings like, "Mighty oaks from little acorns grow," or "The apple doesn't fall far from the tree," or "It's the squeaky wheel that gets the grease," are all meant to encapsulate a larger concept in a brief sentence. For the most part, the person hearing the phrase immediately understands to what the speaker is referring. And so the saying, "He can't see the forest for the trees," is often understood as describing someone who cannot comprehend the larger implications of things because all he can see is the minute details on which he is focused.

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus tells a parable about a rich man who was seemingly oblivious to both the forest and the trees. In the story the rich man seems unconcerned with anything but his own pleasure. He dresses in fine linen. He eats great meals. It seems like he has it all. The "forest" of communal interaction seems beyond his imagination. At the same time, from what we are told, the rich man also seems not to have taken any notice of the beggar at his door. He was not even aware of the "trees" of someone right at his gate.

In our lives as Christians, both the forest and the trees are important. We can't lose sight of either of them. As people in the world we must continue to be involved in working for a more just society through our advocacy and political activity. We have to promote the causes of life, human dignity, peace, and the common good. That's the big picture, the forest, that we see. At the same time through our works of charity and simple outreach we touch the lives the poor, the sick, the lonely, and the dying in our very midst. They are the trees right in front of us, and we cannot miss them either.
