A LETTER FROM DEACON RAY HEAP

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

It has been a great blessing to have resided in St. Angela Merici Parish since it began in 1965, and most especially to have been able to function as a permanent deacon in my home parish for 44 years. This parish community has been a part of my "extended-family" for 55 wonderful years, and in this, God has granted me the privilege of associating with so many of His most faithful and dedicated children. For that, I am most grateful.

But the time has come for me to resign as a permanent deacon from active ministry in the parish, and to curtail considerably my ministry as a chaplain at East Jefferson General Hospital due mostly to age related health problems that limit my mobility. It is times like this that compel me to think back to how this journey all began and to where it has taken me and Marilyn.

My journey into the diaconate probably has its roots in my being a lector for Sunday Mass that was celebrated in Leon's Restaurant while the church was being built. Sometime later, when I was St. Angela Merici Parish Council President, the Catholic Charismatic Renewal was granted use of our church for its weekly prayer meetings and Mass so I attended as an observer. These encounters caused me to become acutely aware of God's love for me. This led to a deepening of my faith in God and His church, and a relationship with Jesus that created a great desire in me to read Scripture so to love and serve God more.

In the early 1970's, the permanent diaconate in the Catholic Church was being revived and Fr. Favalora (now retired Archbishop Favalora) approached me to consider studying to become a permanent deacon. My "yes" led to being ordained in this archdiocese's second class of permanent deacons in 1976, twenty years into my marriage. The early years of the diaconate were quite experimental and contentious with resistance in some places within the archdiocese, but never here at St. Angela. The people of SAM have always made me feel welcomed and special.

The great generosity, enthusiasm, cooperation and hospitality of our parishioners was vividly demonstrated to me during my final year of diaconate formation when as co-chair of the Vietnamese Resettlement Program, the parish volunteered to resettle a family of nine refugees. Twelve committees were formed to do things such as: find a home, furniture, furnishings, household items, and employment for them, as well as to assist them in shopping and in navigating our educational system from college to grade school. This was a very special time that taught me much about serving and ministering God's love. Some of my fondest memories are of having baptized many babies (some of whom are parishioners today), of serving at the altar, witnessing marriages, visiting the homebound to bring the Eucharist, praying the Rosary at wake services of our beloved deceased, and ministering at funerals and burials.

It was during Msgr. Crosby Kern's tenure at St. Angela Merici that I was called to be a chaplain at East Jefferson General Hospital where I have served for 38 years, meanwhile being involved with liturgies at SAM. Serving the sick, the dying and ministering to their families, especially St. Angela Merici parishioners, has brought tremendous satisfaction to me. Although there were times of sorrow, God has always found a way to fill me with joy and much gratification serving in this capacity.

I consider myself extremely blessed to have had the honor of serving the parishioners of St. Angela Merici, and many others in the wider area of East Jefferson. Regrettably, my presence on the altar has ceased, but please know that I remain available to be of service to my St. Angela family whenever possible.

With love & much gratitude,

Deacon Raymond Heap

LITURGY FOR THE 14TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Zechariah 9: 9-10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Zechariah

Thus says the LORD:
Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion,
shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!
See, your king shall come to you;
a just savior is he,
meek, and riding on an ass,
on a colt, the foal of an ass.
He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
the warrior's bow shall be banished,
and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14

R. (cf. 1) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King,
and I will bless your name forever and ever.
Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD,
and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words
and holy in all his works.
The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Second Reading

Romans 8: 9, 11-13

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
You are not in the flesh;
on the contrary, you are in the spirit,
if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.
Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.
If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you,
the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also,
through his Spirit that dwells in you.
Consequently, brothers and sisters,
we are not debtors to the flesh,
to live according to the flesh.
For if you live according to the flesh, you will die,
but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body,
you will live.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Cf. Matthew 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 11:25-30

The Lord be with you.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

And with your spirit.
Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time Jesus exclaimed:
"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth,
for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.
Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me by my Father.
No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. Chairs will be outside for those who wish to enter after our limit. No sign-ups are required.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

Parish Guide Book & Directory

Please help us to update our Parish Guide Book & Directory

Contact us with any changes to your directory entry, such as new address, phone number or email. Also, let us know if you DO NOT want to be published in the directory. You can email (preferable) your changes to Mary Ann at parish@stangela.org or call the parish office at 504-835-0324, ext. 301. Deadline is this Monday, July 6 – any changes after this date will not be in the 2020 directory.

Matthew Kelly Literature

Please feel free to take a Matthew Kelly book found on the tables in the back of church.

Facebook & YouTube Livestream

Watch our Masses LIVE on the St. Angela Merici Church YouTube and Facebook pages. Weekday Mass begins at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Saturday. Sunday Mass livestream begins at 9:30 a.m. A link to access both pages can be found at the top of our website: www.stangela.org.

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On Saturday July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners will be recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, will be held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication. Over the next few weeks, we will highlight the recipients of each award.

Outstanding Parish Youth Award

Congratulations to:

- Cameron Cassara, a St. Angela alumnus and a senior at Brother Martin High School served as an altar server for eight years, has been actively involved in our CYO since 8th grade, currently serving on our Youth Board. Last year he began serving as a reader for Mass.
- Ethan Cassara, also a St. Angela Alumnus, and is a junior at Brother Martin High School. He served as an altar server for seven years and now serves as a reader at Mass. Ethan also has been an active member of our CYO since 8th grade and currently serves on our CYO Youth Board.
- Bradley Hardeman, a graduate of Jesuit High School and now LSU bound served as an altar server for 7 years. He has been sharing his musical talent as a member of the 5:00 p.m. Praise and Worship Choir here at St. Angela for the last two years. He recently achieved Eagle Scout rank with Troop #45 with one Bronze Eagle Palm.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

FAITH FORMATION

Parish School of Religion

Holy Communion Mass has been set for Saturday, July 25, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. More information will be emailed to parents closer to the date.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year will begin in July. Stay tuned to the bulletin, website, and Facebook page for more information.

Saint of the Week

SAINT MARIA GORETTI
(1890-1902)
Feast Day: July 6

Does anything match a mother's pride in her children? First Communions, confirmations, graduations, weddings: how these delight a mother's heart! Imagine, then, Assunta Goretti, the only mother ever to attend her child's canonization! In poverty-stricken rural Italy, widowed Assunta tended fields for the Serenelli family, whose eighteen-year-old son, Alessandro, propositioned her barely twelve-year-old Maria; then, when she resisted, crying, "It is a sin! God forbids it!" he stabbed her fourteen times. As she lay dying, Maria assured the attending priest, "Yes, I forgive Alessandro! I want him to be in Paradise with me someday." Imprisoned, unrepentant, Alessandro changed after dreaming that a radiant Maria had offered him fourteen lilies. "I've kept my promise," she smiled. "You'll be here with me someday." Upon release, he rushed to beg Assunta's forgiveness. "Jesus has forgiven you," she replied, "my Maria, too. How can I refuse?" Next morning, mother and murderer walked arm in arm to church and knelt side by side for Communion.

Confirmation

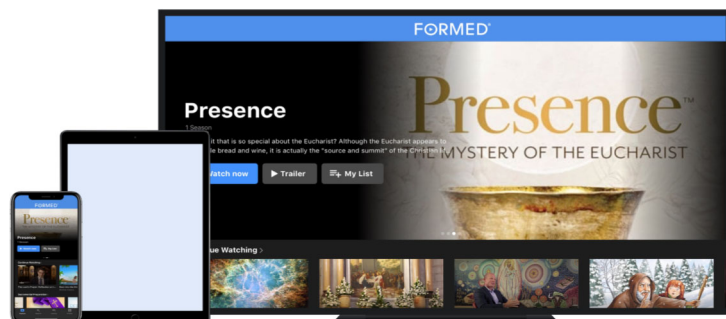

The Sacrament of Confirmation will now be held on Tuesday, July 14 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Angela Merici Church. More information will be emailed! Please check your email inboxes for an email from Candice Schmidt regarding Confirmation Mass.

Pro-Life Ministry

Join St. Angela Pro-Life Ministry at the Abortion facility on General Pershing St. for a prayerful presence on July 9th. We will leave after 8:30 am mass. The deeper value of being outside of the abortion facility is that it is a place of such despair and hopelessness. It is a place where God is most urgently needed. Praying outside is bringing God to the facility. Sometimes that presence is enough to be a sign of hope to somebody entering the facility. Please consider joining us.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS or donate online at www.stangela.org

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

e-Edition of Clarion Herald

The e-Edition of the Clarion Herald is available each week at <http://clarionheraldla.newsmemory.com>. A new electronic issue of the Clarion Herald goes live every Tuesday at approximately 3:00 p.m.

Catholic Counseling Service

Out of compliance with the precautions regarding COVID-19, Catholic Counseling Service (CCS) continues to offer telehealth services to individuals, couples, and families through the phone or video-conferencing platforms. This new and effective method of counseling allows CCS to extend our services across the archdiocese to areas we weren't previously available. Beginning Monday, May 18th, we will resume our face-to-face counseling at our New Orleans office; however, staff and clients are required to take necessary precautions to ensure the safety of all, including wearing facemasks and maintaining 6 feet apart where possible. Through the generosity of a donor, CCS has received a grant to increase the number of clients we can assist with the cost of counseling, including providing pro bono services when necessary. CCS offers counseling for $50 a session and will continue to use a sliding scale to assist anyone looking for counseling. We are committed to removing finances as an obstacle to mental health services. Anyone interested in counseling can speak to our intake coordinator by calling our main office at 504-861-6245. If we are unable to answer a call, please leave a message with their name and preferred contact phone number and someone will return their call within the next business day to complete the intake and schedule an appointment. All calls are completely confidential. We are proud to continue our mission of providing quality and affordable counseling to the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

A LETTER FROM DEACON DAVID AARON

Greetings my friends at St Angela!

I thought I would use my opportunity to write a letter in the bulletin to reflect on my diaconal ministry. Many of you may recall that I was ordained in December of 2010. There were only 10 of us left after Katrina took away many of those who had initially discerned a vocation to the diaconate. We became known as the class of hope and perseverance. Like most deacons, I have been blessed to be able to baptize children and I have also had the honor of witnessing several marriages. I also have the privilege of serving as a Master of Ceremonies for the Archdiocese. Being an MC, I have traveled from one end of the Archdiocese to the other, literally. I've been to St John the Baptist (both in Paradis and Folsom) and to Annunciation in Bogalusa (twice!).

But, I have to say that the ministry that has made me feel the most humble has been my involvement with the Substance Addiction Ministry. Several years ago, when Fr Beau asked me to lead this ministry, working alongside Lisa Carroll, a registered addiction counselor, I thought: "How can I do this? I know nothing about addiction." In fact, it turned out that what little I thought I knew about addiction was totally wrong. I grew up being told that people who had a substance addiction such as alcoholism or an addiction to heroin were simply weak and not trying hard enough.

What we now know about the science of addiction is that it is, in fact, both a spiritual and a physical disease. The mental picture that I had was debunked at the very first meeting we had here. People who are addicted come from all walks of life, and for many, the addiction occurred as the result of pain medication prescribed after some trauma such as a surgery or an accident. People who are addicted do NOT want to have the disease any more than someone with diabetes wants to have that disease. In both cases, it is something they will have to live with for the rest of their lives, but – there is hope in recovery.

And what I have also come to understand is that it's well known that those who are afflicted with addiction are not the only ones who suffer; those who love and care for them are also affected. Those affected by addiction struggle to help their loved ones and often feel helpless in the face of their loved one's addiction.

Through the Substance Addiction Ministry, we provide help and hope through professional referrals, information, and spiritual support. We are here for you. I am grateful to be able to serve here at St Angela. God bless!

LITURGY FOR THE 15TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Isaiah 55:10-11

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD:
Just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows
and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be
that goes forth from my mouth;
my word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14

R. (Lk 8:8) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You have visited the land and watered it;
greatly have you enriched it.
God's watercourses are filled;
you have prepared the grain.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Thus have you prepared the land: drenching its furrows,
breaking up its clods,
Softening it with showers,
blessing its yield.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You have crowned the year with your bounty,
and your paths overflow with a rich harvest;
The untilled meadows overflow with it,
and rejoicing clothes the hills.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

The fields are garmented with flocks and the valleys blanketed with grain.
They shout and sing for joy.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Second Reading

Romans 8:18-23

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.
For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.
We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower.
All who come to him will have life forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 13:1-23

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glorify to you, O Lord.
On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow. And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up. Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots. Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

The disciples approached him and said, "Why do you speak to them in parables?" He said to them in reply, "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted. To anyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; from anyone who has not, even what he has will be taken away. This is why I speak to them in parables, because they look but do not see and hear but do not listen or understand. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says: You shall indeed hear but not understand, you shall indeed look but never see.

Gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their hearts and be converted, and I heal them.
"But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear.
Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

"Hear then the parable of the sower. The seed sown on the path is the one who hears the word of the kingdom without understanding it, and the evil one comes and steals away what was sown in his heart. The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away. The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit. But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. Chairs will be outside for those who wish to enter after our limit. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to the five young men of our Troop 45 Boy Scouts who made Eagle Scout. Good luck to all their future endeavors. From left to right: Samuel Chanove, Jordan Diliberto, John Duncan, Bradley Hardeman, and Zachary Petty.

Welcome to the Catholic Church!

Congratulations to the four candidates, Robert Mouldoux, William Stutzenbecker, Sallie Strassel, and Shawn Petta, who were received into full Holy Communion with the Catholic Church on July 5, 2020. Fr. Dan, Deacon Dan, and Father Beau are pictured with them above.

St. Angela Merici CYO

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On this past Saturday, July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners were recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, were held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication. The next award and nominees to highlight are for the Matt Hill Award.

Matt Hill Award Nominees:

Each year we submit nominees for the Matt Hill Award, which is offered to one boy and one girl throughout the whole Archdiocese of New Orleans. While our nominees were not selected this year, we are proud of them and their good sportsmanship and Christian leadership on and off the field! This year's nominees were Spencer Hyde and Mia Dallimore.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

FAITH FORMATION

Parish School of Religion

Holy Communion Mass has been set for Saturday, July 25, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Information was emailed to parents last week.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year will begin in July. Stay tuned to the bulletin, website, and Facebook page for more information.

Saint of the Week

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA (1656-1680)

Feast Day: July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville—Ossernon to Native Americans—in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of "Christian" traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young "Lily of the Mohawks" drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does "the aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel? —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation will now be held on Tuesday, July 14 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Angela Merici Church.

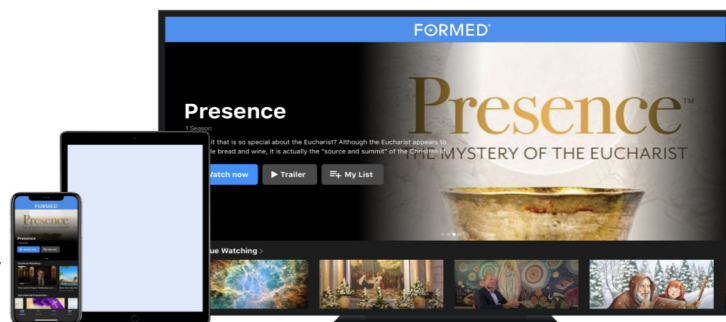

There will be a Confirmation Practice on Monday, July 13 at 5:30—6:30 p.m. Meet in church. Sponsors are invited to attend. All in attendance should wear a mask.

Pro-Life Ministry

With sadness, we are sorry to say that the Unsafe Abortion Protection Act, known as Act 620. This Act requires a physician, who performs abortions, to have admitting privileges, as all other outpatient surgical center are required, at a local hospital in case there is an emergency. This Act was overturned by the Supreme Court on June 29th. The Justices ruled it as unconstitutional. We must not give up. We must continue working and praying to put the women of Louisiana above the interest of the abortion business.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS or donate online at www.stangela.org

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

e-Edition of Clarion Herald

The e-Edition of the Clarion Herald is available each week at <http://clarionheraldla.newsmemory.com>. A new electronic issue of the Clarion Herald goes live every Tuesday at approximately 3:00 p.m.

Catholic Counseling Service

Out of compliance with the precautions regarding COVID-19, Catholic Counseling Service (CCS) continues to offer telehealth services to individuals, couples, and families through the phone or video-conferencing platforms. This new and effective method of counseling allows CCS to extend our services across the archdiocese to areas we weren't previously available. We will resume our face-to-face counseling at our New Orleans office; however, staff and clients are required to take necessary precautions to ensure the safety of all, including wearing facemasks and maintaining 6 feet apart where possible.

Through the generosity of a donor, CCS has received a grant to increase the number of clients we can assist with the cost of counseling, including providing pro bono services when necessary. CCS offers counseling for $50 a session and will continue to use a sliding scale to assist anyone looking for counseling. We are committed to removing finances as an obstacle to mental health services. Anyone interested in counseling can speak to our intake coordinator by calling our main office at 504-861-6245. If we are unable to answer a call, please leave a message with their name and preferred contact phone number and someone will return their call within the next business day to complete the intake and schedule an appointment. All calls are completely confidential. We are proud to continue our mission of providing quality and affordable counseling to the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

Let us pray,

Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.

We place ourselves in your loving hands.

Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.

Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

A LETTER FROM DEACON GILBERT SCHMIDT

Father Beau has asked all of the Deacons to write an article about themselves that will end up in the bulletin. Deacon Nick was first, followed by Deacon Ray and Deacon David. And now, they ran out of people so they scraped the bottom of the barrel and found me. So, here's my story!

I was born to Harry C. Schmidt, Sr. and Anita Barilleaux in 1932 and grew up in the Church Parish of St. Rose of Lima on Bayou Road and Broad Streets. I began serving Mass around the age of 9 and haven't stopped yet. Even during my tour of duty in the U.S. Navy, I had the opportunity to serve Mass for the Chaplains who came to take care of our spiritual needs. After an unsuccessful enrollment at Holy Cross High School, I was sent to St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, MS. where, hopefully, my insufficiencies were corrected. (Some still debate this.) Fell in love with the Brothers of the Sacred Heart and was almost ready to head to their Novitiate and then I met my new vocation, Anna Ladner. I forgot all about the life in ministry and began a life of parenthood to 9 children. I can assure you, they were much more of a challenge than any ministry the Church has to offer.

However, when our Church brought back the Ministry of Permanent Diaconate I, again, became interested in serving people and when Deacon Ray Heap was ordained, I saw what beauty the work of God could be when offered and accepted, so I talked to my Pastor, then Father John Favalora, and he advised me that the class entrance was closed until the next class, if there would even be one. So, again, I forgot about it, but began attending morning Mass and serving as a Lector and was appointed one of the first Extra Ordinary Ministers of the Holy Eucharist in our Parish. That satisfied my thirst for a while until the next call came out 4 years later. I applied and was accepted and studied for 3 ½ years, rather than the two years prior to this, and was ordained by Archbishop Hannan at the Cathedral of St. Louis King of France on December 13, 1980. I was then "missioned" to St. Angela Merici Parish. And then the fun began!

All of you, yes, all of you, opened your arms and hearts to me in the ministry God has chosen for me and allowed me so many privileges and welcomed me into your lives. You allowed me to hold your children and welcome them into God's church through Baptism, helping them serve our God on the Altar, celebrate their wedding ceremonies and the honor of burying your dead; none of which I deserve.

After ordination, I felt a need for "more" of God's love, so I enrolled in a three year course studying the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola and was granted by Archbishop Hannan, the title of Spiritual Director and Retreat Director. Deacons called, "Introduction to Diaconal Ministry" which I taught for about 15 years.

When Archbishop Schulte came on board, I was asked to be one of the Masters of Ceremonies for the Diocese and I did that for about 25 years. In the meantime when things were lagging, I was also elected to the National Board of Directors for my normal duties here at St. Angela with Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals as the Permanent Deacons representing 5 States. This was all in conjunction with well as teaching the R.C.I.A. program for about 18 years as well as serving on the local Board of Directors and the Selection Board for the Deacons, not to mention being asked to be the spiritual director for four trips to Medjgorje.

There are other things that happened in the last 40 years, but I don't want to bore you with them. But this I can tell you, once you tie yourself to God's apron strings, life gets really interesting. Now that I have stepped down from the Altar and no longer serving or preaching at Mass, unless asked to do so, I am honored to work with many people assisting them through the annulment process in order to return to the Sacraments. What a joy this is for me! To think, I can help some more!

There are so many of you, my extended family, that have given me your love, kindness and prayers through these years, I don't think I will live long enough to say "thank you" to most of you. But, be assured of a large part of my daily prayers are for you and your families.

The Deke

LITURGY FOR THE 16TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

There is no god besides you who have the care of all,
that you need show you have not unjustly condemned.
For your might is the source of justice;
your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all.
For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved;
and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity.
But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency,
and with much lenience you govern us;
for power, whenever you will, attends you.
And you taught your people, by these deeds,
that those who are just must be kind;
and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

R. (5a) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are good and forgiving, abounding in kindness to all who call upon you.
Hearken, O LORD, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my pleading.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O LORD,
and glorify your name.
For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds;
you alone are God.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity.
Turn toward me, and have pity on me;
give your strength to your servant.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

Second Reading

Romans 8:26-27

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness;
for we do not know how to pray as we ought,
but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.
And the one who searches hearts
knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones
according to God's will.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Matthew 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

The Lord be with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

And with your spirit.

Glorify to you, O Lord.

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying:
"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field.
While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off.
When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well.
The slaves of the householder came to him and said,
'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field?
Where have the weeds come from?'
He answered, 'An enemy has done this.'
His slaves said to him,
'Do you want us to go and pull them up?'
He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds
you might uproot the wheat along with them.
Let them grow together until harvest;
then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters,
'First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning;
but gather the wheat into my barn.'"
He proposed another parable to them.
"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field.
It is the smallest of all the seeds,
yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants.
It becomes a large bush,
and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.'
He spoke to them another parable.
"The kingdom of heaven is like yeast

that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour
until the whole batch was leavened."
All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables.
He spoke to them only in parables,
to fulfill what had been said through the prophet:
I will open my mouth in parables,
I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.
Then, dismissing the crowds, he went into the house.
His disciples approached him and said,
"Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."
He said in reply, "He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom.
The weeds are the children of the evil one,
and the enemy who sows them is the devil.
The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.
Just as weeds are collected and burned up with fire,
so will it be at the end of the age.
The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom
all who cause others to sin and all evildoers.
They will throw them into the fiery furnace,
where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.
Then the righteous will shine like the sun
in the kingdom of their Father.
Whoever has ears ought to hear."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank the St. Angela Merici parishioners who continually donate food items for the pantry especially during the COVID-19 "stay at home" order. We know your generosity comes straight from your hearts!

Currently, we are in need of the following food items:

Canned Tuna, Canned Chicken, Canned Ham, Stew, Ravioli, Vienna Sausage, Soups, Peanut Butter/Jelly, Rice, Dry/Canned Milk, Crackers.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

St. Angela Merici CYO

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On Saturday, July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners were recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, were held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication.

St. Timothy Award: This award is a prestigious national award given to youth who have impacted their parish community, their school community, and the broader archdiocesan community. This year's St. Angela recipients are Matthew Lulich and Leigha Story. Both of these amazing young people have served side by side throughout their 5 years in CYO. Each served on our youth board throughout their tenure in CYO and each served a year as president. They have represented our parish well as Teen C.R.O.S.S. members and they attended the Transform Your World Evangelization Camp in 2018. Both are deeply grounded spiritually and are not afraid to speak of their faith among their peers. They played a major role in getting our first CYO Rose Rally for Life launched. You may have seen their interview in the Clarion Herald last summer. They were also featured in the Catholic Foundation's video at their annual banquet in October. Here is the link for the video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LoclOqhccvI&t> Matthew and Leigha have represented St. Angela so well and they will truly be missed! We wish them both the best as they leave for college next month. Both are very deserving of this special recognition.

In last week's bulletin we announced our nominees for the CYO Matt Hill Athletics Award and stated that our nominees were not selected. However, at the July 11th ceremony, Mia Dallimore was chosen to receive this special honor bestowed on one individual girl from throughout the Archdiocese of New Orleans!
Congratulations Mia!

St. Michael's Prayer

*St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.*

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

Saint of the Week

SAINT SHARBEL MAKHLÜF (1828-1898)

Feast Day: July 24

The convenience store owner chatted animatedly in Arabic with coworkers, but hardly at all with his American clientele. So soon after 9/11, he probably figured, with my accent, the less said, the better. That changed when an American customer recognized Saint Sharbel's portrait on the wall: "So you're Lebanese Maronites!" The owner was happily incredulous: "You know our saint?" "Not at first," the customer admitted. "But we help the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and their magazine published that picture and called Sharbel the 'Paradoxical Artisan of Peace.'" "Everyone thinks we're Muslims," said the owner, "and some of my workers are. Saint Sharbel helps us live together in peace!" A hermit for twenty-three years, little is known of Sharbel's life. He died after suffering a stroke while celebrating the liturgy. Miracles attributed to his intercession number in the thousands, and in war-torn Lebanon, Catholics, Orthodox, and Muslims pray together where his incorrupt body is entombed. How lovely if after our passing, we too could be remembered for having brought very different people to the one God, together in peace. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Confirmation

Congratulations to the 46 candidates who received the gift of the Holy Spirit through the Sacrament of Confirmation on Tuesday, July 14, 2020. Archbishop Gregory Aymond celebrated the Mass. Congrats to our young church!

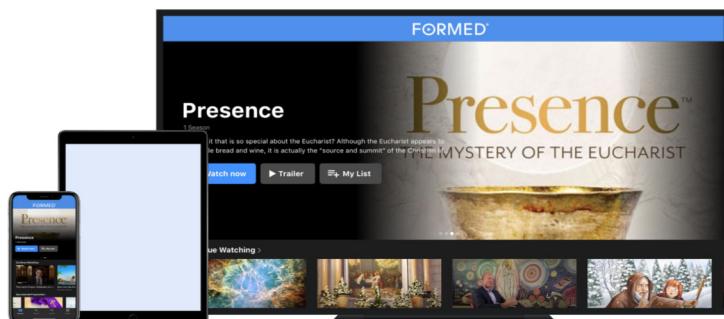

Registration for the Sacrament of Confirmation for the 2020-2021 school year officially opened on July 15. Visit the parish website to register online. Confirmation 2021 will be held on January 5, 2021.

Pro-Life Ministry

Do you remember when you were confirmed? You became a soldier of Christ! Come out of your comfort zone to witness your faith, not only to your children or fellow Catholics, but also to others! This can be done without even speaking. Come and pray at the abortion facility on General Pershing. You can join us on the second Thursday after the 8:30 Mass.

"In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing"

Registration is now open for the 2020-21 schedule of "In Silence" retreats at Saint Joseph Abbey. The first retreat takes place Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4-6, 2020. A series led by the Abbey's Fr. Ephrem Arcement, O.S.B., "In Silence" is intended to help adults find spiritual renewal and awakening by entering more deeply into the silent depths of God's presence through exploring the life and writings of the mystics of the Christian tradition. The theme this year is "In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing." Visit www.saintjosephabbey.com/in-silence for additional dates and to register.

St. Angela Merici CYO Rose Rally

Let us pray,
 Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
 We place ourselves in your loving hands.
 Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.
 Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
 We ask this through Christ our Lord.
 Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
 pray for us in this time of need

A LETTER FROM DEACON THOMAS KRATOCHVIL

St. Angela Merici Parish is proud to welcome Deacon Thomas Kratochvil as the newest permanent deacon in our parish! He will begin his ministry here on August 1, 2020.

I grew up in a farming community in Central Illinois, the 6 of 8 children, and married my high school sweetheart, Diane. Diane attended the all-girls Catholic high school across the street from my all-boys Catholic school. We have five children, all grown and gone, and nine grandchildren. We have been parishioners at St. Angela for the past 39 years, and the kids all went to our school and did well.

I retired as a geophysicist with Shell after 34 years of service and have been a deacon for five years most recently assigned to St. Francis of Assisi, Uptown. I have a BS in Engineering Physics and an MS in Nuclear Physics from the University of Illinois, an MS in Geology from UNO, a JD from Loyola, and as an increasing number of deacons and religion teachers, an MA in Theology from Notre Dame Seminary.

Diane is St. Angela's Youth Director and Alpha Coordinator, and many know her from her years as a music cantor. Unlike Diane and most deacons, I have never been a super-parishioner, and was called to the diaconate differently.

I used to work 12-hour days at Shell, and to break it up I'd take a walk to the river from One Shell Square at lunch. On a bitterly cold day, a thought entered my mind – would you like to save someone? So, I went through a mental exercise of what I could throw in the river that would float. No one was there, so I walked on past the Aquarium through Waldenburg Park, and the thought left my mind.

Looping back, there by the Croatian immigrant statue, a homeless man sat on a bench in an old green Army jacket, head down, blood dripping out of his nose. I walked right by him but felt so bad that I turned around sat next to him, and I asked if there was anything I could do. He said no, he wished that there was something someone could do. I returned to the office, and I felt terrible. I could have done so much – fed him, cleaned him up, listened to his story, got him out of the cold, said a prayer with him. Then I did something I had never done before – I read the church bulletin and there was a call for deacons. I said to Diane, that maybe I should look into this and she said, yes, I should. Then everything lined up, like a key to tumblers in a lock. We may not be the holiest version of ourselves, but we are all called to holiness.

Since becoming a deacon, I visit the Jefferson Parish Correction Center twice weekly, a holy penance. Most of my co-workers in hotel maintenance while I was in college went to jail and I never saw or sought them again. (By the way, we could use calendars at the Correctional Center – as you know being locked up it is hard to keep track of time. No spiral wire calendars, please – they become weapons.)

Post-retirement, I have also been teaching high school science, first at Archbishop Rummel, where I completed my alternative teaching certification, and now at St. Charles Catholic in LaPlace. Although Father Michael Schneller and the folks at St. Francis have been most kind to me and gentle in their training, I am looking forward to coming home and serving at St. Angela. It is such a fine, vibrant place with such good people.

LITURGY FOR THE 17TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

1 KGS 3:5, 7-12

A reading from the first Book of Kings

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night.
God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you."
Solomon answered:
"O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David;
but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act.
I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen,
a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted.
Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong.
For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request.
So God said to him:
"Because you have asked for this—
not for a long life for yourself,
nor for riches,
nor for the life of your enemies,
but for understanding so that you may know what is right—
I do as you requested.
I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130

R. (97a) Lord, I love your commands.

I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.

The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Let your kindness comfort me
according to your promise to your servants.
Let your compassion come to me that I may live,
for your law is my delight.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

For I love your command
more than gold, however fine.
For in all your precepts I go forward;
every false way I hate.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Wonderful are your decrees;
therefore I observe them.
The revelation of your words sheds light,
giving understanding to the simple.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Second Reading

Rom 8:28-30

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
We know that all things work for good for those who love God,
who are called according to his purpose.
For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn
among many brothers and sisters.
And those he predestined he also called;
and those he called he also justified;
and those he justified he also glorified.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Cf. Mt 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Mt. 14:13-21

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples:
"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field,
which a person finds and hides again,
and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys
that field.
Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant
searching for fine pearls.
When he finds a pearl of great price,
he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.
Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea,
which collects fish of every kind.
When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets.
What is bad they throw away.
Thus it will be at the end of the age.
The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous

and throw them into the fiery furnace,
where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?"

They answered, "Yes."

And he replied,

"Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven
is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank the St. Angela Merici parishioners who continually donate food items for the pantry especially during the COVID-19 "stay at home" order. We know your generosity comes straight from your hearts!

Currently, we are in need of the following food items:

Canned Tuna, Canned Chicken, Canned Ham, Stew, Ravioli, Vienna Sausage, Soups, Peanut Butter/Jelly, Rice, Dry/Canned Milk, Crackers.

St. Angela Merici CYO Rose Rally

We are sorry to announce that we have decided to postpone the CYO Rose Rally for Life. When we scheduled the event, things were starting to improve with Covid-19. The opposite is now occurring and it is out of an abundance of caution that we have decided to postpone until later in the year. Thank you for all of your support.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

St. Angela Merici CYO

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On Saturday, July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners were recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, were held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication. Finally, the last three awards to highlight are the Adult Service Awards.

Adult Service Awards:

We gratefully recognize three special young adults for 5 years of service to our youth in CYO. They have been integral in the success of our CYO and have given many hours of service to our youth.

- Julia Delesdernier attended St. Angela and Dominican High School. She was an active member of CYO for five years and also served as our president. She graduated from Ole Miss in 2018 and will be leaving us for the University of St. Augustine where she will study for a Doctorate of Physical Therapy. Julia has served on numerous retreat teams for our annual Camp Abbey Retreats and has coached CYO volleyball for last 4 seasons. We will miss her and wish her only the best!
- Brooks and Courtney Hummel joined our parish 5 years ago. After attending their first Mass here at St. Angela, they struck up a conversation with Fr. Beau outside. Within minutes Fr. Beau walked them over to the gym to our CYO meeting to introduce them to us! They have been such a blessing to me as a youth minister and have served our teens well. Both have served on our retreat teams and Brooks has coached cabbage ball for us. Brooks graduated from LSU Dental School in 2019 and is currently a second year student in orthodontics at LSU. Courtney is a stay-at-home artist and they have an adorable toddler son, Malcom. They are currently working with Fr. Dan to develop a plan for Young Adult Ministry in our parish. We are blessed to have them here at St. Angela!

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

FAITH FORMATION

Parish School of Religion

Holy Communion Mass has been set for Saturday, July 25, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Information was emailed to parents.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year OPENED July 15. Visit the Parish Website to download the registration form.

Saint of the Week

SAINT MARTHA
(first century)
Feast Day: July 29

Whether you find Martha Stewart admirable or annoying, she has the perfect patron saint. Luke describes Martha—saint, not Stewart—as “burdened with much serving” (Luke 10:40). About Mary, seated, listening to Jesus, Martha complained, “Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?” Jesus’ response, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things . . . Mary has chosen the better part” (10:41, 42), suggests to some the superiority of the contemplative life, leaving the rest of us, supporting families, earning livings, (helping others?), as second-class Christians. But Luke introduces Martha and Mary immediately after Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan, whom Jesus recommends as a model of practical compassion, concluding, “Go and do likewise” (10:37). Go and do! Sit and listen! Discipleship is never either/or but both/and. Jesus ministered in prayerful silence and hospitable service. Monastic calendars add Martha’s sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, calling all three “hosts of the Lord,” recalling their welcome of Jesus to their home in Bethany, reminding us Whom we welcome whenever we extend summertime hospitality!

Confirmation

Congratulations to the 46 candidates who received the gift of the Holy Spirit through the Sacrament of Confirmation on Tuesday, July 14, 2020. Archbishop Gregory Aymond celebrated the Mass. Congrats to our young church!

If you have a red Confirmation gown that you would like to donate to the church for future use, please bring them to the Parish Office.

Registration for the Sacrament of Confirmation for the 2020-2021 school year officially opened on July 15. Visit the parish website to submit your information.
Confirmation 2021 will be held on January 5, 2021.

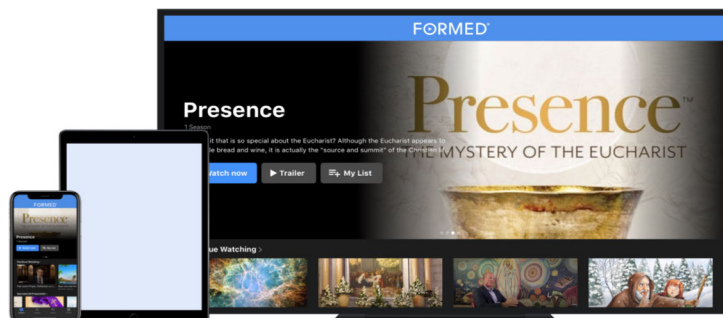

Pro-Life Ministry

St. Angela Pro-Life Ministry would like to welcome anyone interested in joining our ministry to come to our first meeting of the new year on Monday, August 10th, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. at 1137 Beverly Garden Drive, Metairie.

Also on August 13th, we will have a peaceful presence at the abortion facility on General Pershing after 8:30 a.m. mass. We will discuss our spiritual adoption and start making plans for 40 days for Life.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS or donate online at www.stangela.org

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

ARCHBISHOP GREGORY AYMOND

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

"In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing"

Registration is now open for the 2020-21 schedule of "In Silence" retreats at Saint Joseph Abbey. The first retreat takes place Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4-6, 2020. A series led by the Abbey's Fr. Ephrem Arcement, O.S.B., "In Silence" is intended to help adults find spiritual renewal and awakening by entering more deeply into the silent depths of God's presence through exploring the life and writings of the mystics of the Christian tradition. The theme this year is "In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing." Visit www.saintjosephabbey.com/in-silence for additional dates and to register.

Hope in Addiction Talks

Substance addiction is one of the most significant trials of our time. St. Francis Xavier Church, 444 Metairie Rd, Metairie, LA will host a talk entitled, "Hope in Addiction," on Wednesday, August 5, 2020, from 7:00-8:00 PM in St. Joseph Hall. The presenter is Mary Lou McCall, Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist and Masters of Theology Student at Notre Dame Seminary. The talk on August 5th is "Hope in Addiction, Part 2: From Darkness into Light, A Catholic Community Healing Addiction." Come be educated on the prevention and healing of substance addiction. Admission is free. Because of Covid restrictions, attendance is limited to 60 people.

Mission to the Holy Spirit

A Mission to the Holy Spirit will be offered August 10-14, 2020, at St. Stephen's Church, 1025 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans. Confession will be available from 6:15-6:45, musical performance, praise and worship 6:30-7:00, and Mass to begin at 7:00 PM. The Mission will feature an outstanding group of well-known celebrants and musicians from our Catholic community all designed to be an uplifting experience. Archbishop Aymond will be our celebrant on August 12th. Please see the flyer in the back of church for more information.

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the St. Angela Merici Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

A LETTER FROM DEACON DAN DASHNER

My dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

As you may have already heard, I have completed my summer ministry assignment with Saint Angela Merici and I will now be returning to Notre Dame Seminary to complete my priestly academic requirements. Although relatively short, I want you all to know how much I will cherish and remember my time with you.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your prayers and the love that you have shown me throughout my short tenure here as well as all our office staff for their help and support. In a special way, I want to bid farewell to all the sick and homebound parishioners who received me so graciously into to their homes and families. Please know that you will be remembered in my daily prayers.

In the words of General Douglas MacArthur, "I shall return". I am scheduled to be reassigned to Saint Angela Merici in mid-January 2021 to complete my final internship prior to Ordination to Priesthood which is scheduled for June 5, 2021.

Lastly (but certainly not least), I want to thank Father Beau, Father Dan and all the Deacons for warmly welcoming me into this Parish Clergy family as well as for the help, guidance, and direction they devoted to me in support of my priestly vocation.

Now, I will continue to walk down the path that (Through The Grace of God) will lead me to Priestly Ordination.

May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You All Safe until we meet again.

Rev. Mr. Dan Dashner

LITURGY FOR THE 18TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Isaiah 55:1-3

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD:

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!

You who have no money,

come, receive grain and eat;

Come, without paying and without cost,

drink wine and milk!

Why spend your money for what is not bread;

your wages for what fails to satisfy?

Heed me, and you shall eat well,

you shall delight in rich fare.

Come to me heedfully,

listen, that you may have life.

I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,

the benefits assured to David.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

R. (cf. 16) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,

slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all

and compassionate toward all his works.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,

and you give them their food in due season;

you open your hand

and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways

and holy in all his works.

The LORD is near to all who call upon him,

to all who call upon him in truth.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 2, 2020

Second Reading

Romans 8:35, 37-39

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
What will separate us from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Thanks be to God.
Matthew 4:4b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

One does not live on bread alone,
but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:13-21

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist,
he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself.

The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot
from their towns.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.

When it was evening, the disciples approached him
and said,

"This is a deserted place and it is already late;
dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages

and buy food for themselves."

Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away;

give them some food yourselves."

But they said to him,

"Five loaves and two fish are all we have here."

Then he said, "Bring them here to me,"
and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.
Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven,

he said the blessing, broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them to the crowds.

They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full.

Those who ate were about five thousand men,
not counting women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank the St. Angela Merici parishioners who continually donate food items for the pantry especially during the COVID-19 "stay at home" order. We know your generosity comes straight from your hearts!

Currently, we are in need of the following food items:

Canned Tuna, Canned Chicken, Canned Ham, Stew, Ravioli, Vienna Sausage, Soups, Peanut Butter/Jelly, Rice, Dry/Canned Milk, Crackers.

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS or donate online at www.stangela.org

St. Angela Merici CYO Rose Rally

We are sorry to announce that we have decided to postpone the CYO Rose Rally for Life. When we scheduled the event, things were starting to improve with Covid-19. The opposite is now occurring and it is out of an abundance of caution that we have decided to postpone until later in the year. Thank you for all of your support.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

Saint of the Week

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY
(1786-1859)

Feast Day: August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."

St. Michael's Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

Attention Retired Catholics!

Are you looking for a way to fight cabin fever AND help our needy neighbors? The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) invites you to join our community of men and women aged 50 or better who serve others and grow deeper in Christian faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition. IVC New Orleans will be hosting information sessions via Zoom on Thursday, July 30 at 10am and Tuesday, August 11 at 2pm. If you are retired or semi-retired and looking for a way to deepen your spirituality with a peer group while also serving the needs of the vulnerable in our community, email NEWORLEANS@IVCUSA.ORG for details on how to attend one of these online sessions. More information can be found at IVCUSA.ORG/NEWORLEANS.

Hope in Addiction Talks

Substance addiction is one of the most significant trials of our time. St. Francis Xavier Church, 444 Metairie Rd, Metairie, LA will host a talk entitled, "Hope in Addiction," on Wednesday, August 5, 2020, from 7:00-8:00 PM in St. Joseph Hall. The presenter is Mary Lou McCall, Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist and Masters of Theology Student at Notre Dame Seminary. The talk on August 5th is "Hope in Addiction, Part 2: From Darkness into Light, A Catholic Community Healing Addiction." Come be educated on the prevention and healing of substance addiction. Admission is free. Because of Covid restrictions, attendance is limited to 60 people.

Mission to the Holy Spirit

A Mission to the Holy Spirit will be offered August 10-14, 2020, at St. Stephen's Church, 1025 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans. Confession will be available from 6:15-6:45, musical performance, praise and worship 6:30-7:00, and Mass to begin at 7:00 PM. The Mission will feature an outstanding group of well-known celebrants and musicians from our Catholic community all designed to be an uplifting experience. Archbishop Aymond will be our celebrant on August 12th. Please see the flyer in the back of church for more information.

"Fatima"

Carmel Communications will have a nationwide release of the movie Fatima on August 14, 2020. Locally in greater New Orleans it will be screened in AMC theaters. "A powerful and uplifting drama about the power of faith, Fatima tells the story of a 10-year old shepherd and her two young cousins in Fátima, Portugal, who report seeing visions of the Virgin Mary. Their revelations inspire believers but anger officials of both the Church and the secular government, who try to force them to recant their story. As word of their prophecy spreads, tens of thousands of religious pilgrims flock to the site in hopes of witnessing a miracle. What they experience will change their lives forever." For more information, a trailer, and to arrange for group sales or private screening, please visit www.fatimathemovie.com

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the St. Angela Merici Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

Let us pray,

Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.

We place ourselves in your loving hands.

Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.

Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

A LETTER FROM FR. BEAU

Dear Parishioners,

Six years ago this month, my sister, Elise Charbonnet Angelette, was diagnosed with metastatic breast cancer. At that time her oldest child was nine years old and her fifth child was a newborn. I appealed to the parish for prayer – and over the last 72 months, you have prayed and supported Elise and her family in amazing ways. If I had a nickel for every time I heard the question, “how’s your sister?”, I could feed the world!

We recently learned that her case has progressed to a stage that is no longer treatable. While her brain and body are free of tumors, the cancer cells have moved to the lining of her brain, and she is no longer a candidate for further treatment. At this point, the goal is to keep her as comfortable as possible, along with a lot of prayer and presence.

Her husband, Jason, and their five kids, have carried the cross with Elise over the last 6 years in ways that are beyond comprehension. My heart breaks for them.

At the same time, I know that the seeds of faith that God, through Jason and Elise, have deeply planted in their children’s hearts will carry them through. I have witnessed miracles in seeing them get through the last 6 years and I am witnessing one now as they walk this final road. Jesus is doing the heavy lifting, but they are all walking Calvary.

Personally, this has been a lot more difficult than I imagined. Elise is ten years behind me, and she is the last member of my immediate family that we expected to go first. While the days have been tough, I find that my faith is pulling me through too as a brother, brother-in-law and uncle. Thank you, again, for all of your prayers and support.

I will do my best to keep everyone updated as we go. God love you.

Fr. Beau

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

A reading from the first Book of Kings

At the mountain of God, Horeb,
Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter.
Then the LORD said to him,
“Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD;
the LORD will be passing by.”
A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—
but the LORD was not in the wind.
After the wind there was an earthquake—
but the LORD was not in the earthquake.
After the earthquake there was fire—
but the LORD was not in the fire.
After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound.
When he heard this,
Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD — for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him,
glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth,
and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 9:1-5

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie;
my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart.
For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people,
my kindred according to the flesh.
They are Israelites;
theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants,
the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises;
theirs the patriarchs, and from them,
according to the flesh, is the Christ,
who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Psalm 130:5

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I wait for the Lord;
my soul waits for his word.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:22-33

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat
and precede him to the other side,
while he dismissed the crowds.
After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray.
When it was evening he was there alone.
Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it.
During the fourth watch of the night,
he came toward them walking on the sea.
When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified.
"It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear.
At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."
Peter said to him in reply,
"Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

He said, "Come."
Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.
But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened;
and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"
Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter,
and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"
After they got into the boat, the wind died down.
Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying,
"Truly, you are the Son of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

Parish School of Religion (PSR) Program 2020-2021

“Parents are the first and most important educators of their own children, and they also possess a fundamental competence in this area: they are educators because they are parents. They share their educational mission with other individuals or institutions, such as the Church and State. But the mission of education must always be carried out in accordance with a proper application of the principal subsidiarity.”
St. John Paul II, Letter to Families

The first catechists in any child’s life are its parents or guardians. They are the ones who first provide a child with a concept of right and wrong; the ones who—for better or worse—make manifest the Father’s love. Mindful of this sacred responsibility, faith is meant to be shared within the home as part of daily life.

The home, or “domestic church,” is intended to be a place where children can learn about, experience, and ultimately live out the faith as a true disciple of Christ.

With this in mind, our goal here at St. Angela Merici is to create a catechetical program for our parish youth that recognizes and supports parents in their essential role. Our hope is to enter into a sacred partnership with parents, working together to form these precious little ones so that they can internalize and embrace the truths of our Church within their lives.

For the 2020-2021 school year, this partnership will look a bit different than it has in years past due to the current situation caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. In an effort to adhere to all current guidelines and to keep our children and catechists as safe as possible, we will be switching predominantly to remote learning for this school year for grades K-8, utilizing curriculums with fully embedded online platforms. PSR lessons will be assigned by catechists on a weekly basis and students will have one week to complete all lesson components (i.e. readings, videos, games, and assessments) at home with their family (requiring approximately one hour of time per week). Optional supplemental resources will also be provided regularly, designed to help parents more fully incorporate faith into family living.

In addition to these weekly remote lessons, there will also be periodic on-campus events entitled Families in Faith.

These catechetical workshops are mandatory for both parents/guardians and students and will always occur on a Monday evening from 6-7:15 p.m. They are designed to better equip parents in their role as primary educators while also providing the students with opportunities for hands-on, larger group learning. Activities will include the celebration of the Mass, Stations of the Cross and opportunities for Reconciliation as well as developmentally appropriate lessons, crafts and activities.

A detailed 2020-2021 PSR Calendar can be found on our parish website as well as the necessary registration forms and waivers. Please note that there is a mandatory Parent/Guardian Orientation on Monday, August 31 at 6 pm in the Religious Ed Library. For more information, contact Audrey Huck, Catechetical Coordinator, at audrey@stangela.org.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

Healing and Forgiveness: A Mother's Story

SCS Prison Ministry Guest Speaker

Wednesday, August 26, 6:30 pm both in the St. Catherine of Siena Melancon Center and on Zoom

As a tragic victim/ survivor of crime, Ms. Parker Robinson will share her powerful and remarkable testimonial of healing, love and Christian forgiveness. Ms. Robinson is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and on the faculty of Tulane University School of Social Work.

Attention Retired Catholics

Are you looking for a way to fight cabin fever AND help our needy neighbors? The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) invites you to join our community of men and women aged 50 or better who serve others and grow deeper in Christian faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition. IVC New Orleans will be hosting information sessions via Zoom on Thursday, July 30 at 10am and Tuesday, August 11 at 2pm. If you are retired or semi-retired and looking for a way to deepen your spirituality with a peer group while also serving the needs of the vulnerable in our community, email

NEWORLEANS@IVCUSA.ORG for details on how to attend one of these online sessions. More information can be found at IVCUSA.ORG/NEWORLEANS.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS or donate online at www.stangela.org

Mission to the Holy Spirit

A Mission to the Holy Spirit will be offered August 10-14, 2020, at St. Stephen's Church, 1025 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans. Confession will be available from 6:15-6:45, musical performance, praise and worship 6:30-7:00, and Mass to begin at 7:00 PM. The Mission will feature an outstanding group of well-known celebrants and musicians from our Catholic community all designed to be an uplifting experience. Archbishop Aymond will be our celebrant on August 12th. Please see the flyer in the back of church for more information.

"Fatima"

Carmel Communications will have a nationwide release of the movie Fatima on August 14, 2020. Locally in greater New Orleans it will be screened in AMC theaters. "A powerful and uplifting drama about the power of faith, Fatima tells the story of a 10-year old shepherd and her two young cousins in Fátima, Portugal, who report seeing visions of the Virgin Mary. Their revelations inspire believers but anger officials of both the Church and the secular government, who try to force them to recant their story. As word of their prophecy spreads, tens of thousands of religious pilgrims flock to the site in hopes of witnessing a miracle. What they experience will change their lives forever." For more information, a trailer, and to arrange for group sales or private screening, please visit www.fatimathemovie.com
