A LETTER FROM DEACON RAY HEAP

Dear Brothers & Sisters,

It has been a great blessing to have resided in St. Angela Merici Parish since it began in 1965, and most especially to have been able to function as a permanent deacon in my home parish for 44 years. This parish community has been a part of my "extended-family" for 55 wonderful years, and in this, God has granted me the privilege of associating with so many of His most faithful and dedicated children. For that, I am most grateful.

But the time has come for me to resign as a permanent deacon from active ministry in the parish, and to curtail considerably my ministry as a chaplain at East Jefferson General Hospital due mostly to age related health problems that limit my mobility. It is times like this that compel me to think back to how this journey all began and to where it has taken me and Marilyn.

My journey into the diaconate probably has its roots in my being a lector for Sunday Mass that was celebrated in Leon's Restaurant while the church was being built. Sometime later, when I was St. Angela Merici Parish Council President, the Catholic Charismatic Renewal was granted use of our church for its weekly prayer meetings and Mass so I attended as an observer. These encounters caused me to become acutely aware of God's love for me. This led to a deepening of my faith in God and His church, and a relationship with Jesus that created a great desire in me to read Scripture so to love and serve God more.

In the early 1970's, the permanent diaconate in the Catholic Church was being revived and Fr. Favalora (now retired Archbishop Favalora) approached me to consider studying to become a permanent deacon. My "yes" led to being ordained in this archdiocese's second class of permanent deacons in 1976, twenty years into my marriage. The early years of the diaconate were quite experimental and contentious with resistance in some places within the archdiocese, but never here at St. Angela. The people of SAM have always made me feel welcomed and special.

The great generosity, enthusiasm, cooperation and hospitality of our parishioners was vividly demonstrated to me during my final year of diaconate formation when as co-chair of the Vietnamese Resettlement Program, the parish volunteered to resettle a family of nine refugees. Twelve committees were formed to do things such as: find a home, furniture, furnishings, household items, and employment for them, as well as to assist them in shopping and in navigating our educational system from college to grade school. This was a very special time that taught me much about serving and ministering God's love. Some of my fondest memories are of having baptized many babies (some of whom are parishioners today), of serving at the altar, witnessing marriages, visiting the homebound to bring the Eucharist, praying the Rosary at wake services of our beloved deceased, and ministering at funerals and burials.

It was during Msgr. Crosby Kern's tenure at St. Angela Merici that I was called to be a chaplain at East Jefferson General Hospital where I have served for 38 years, meanwhile being involved with liturgies at SAM. Serving the sick, the dying and ministering to their families, especially St. Angela Merici parishioners, has brought tremendous satisfaction to me. Although there were times of sorrow, God has always found a way to fill me with joy and much gratification serving in this capacity.

I consider myself extremely blessed to have had the honor of serving the parishioners of St. Angela Merici, and many others in the wider area of East Jefferson. Regrettably, my presence on the altar has ceased, but please know that I remain available to be of service to my St. Angela family whenever possible.

With love & much gratitude,

Deacon Raymond Heap

LITURGY FOR THE 14TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Zechariah 9: 9-10

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Zechariah

Thus says the LORD:

Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!
See, your king shall come to you;
a just savior is he,
meek, and riding on an ass,
on a colt, the foal of an ass.
He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
the warrior's bow shall be banished,
and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145:1-2, 8-9, 10-11, 13-14

R. (cf. 1) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will extol you, O my God and King, and I will bless your name forever and ever.
Every day will I bless you,
and I will praise your name forever and ever.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.
The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

Let all your works give you thanks, O LORD, and let your faithful ones bless you.
Let them discourse of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might.

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The LORD is faithful in all his words and holy in all his works.
The LORD lifts up all who are falling and raises up all who are bowed down.

Second Reading

Romans 8: 9, 11-13

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
You are not in the flesh;
on the contrary, you are in the spirit,
if only the Spirit of God dwells in you.
Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him.
If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you,
the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you.
Consequently, brothers and sisters,
we are not debtors to the flesh,
to live according to the flesh.
For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body,
you will live.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Cf. Matthew 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 11:25-30

The Lord be with you.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

And with your spirit.
Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time Jesus exclaimed:
"I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones.
Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me by my Father.
No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him."

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. Chairs will be outside for those who wish to enter after our limit. No sign-ups are required.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

Parish Guide Book & Directory

Please help us to update our Parish Guide Book & Directory

Contact us with any changes to your directory entry, such as new address, phone number or email. Also, let us know if you DO NOT want to be published in the directory. You can email (preferable) your changes to Mary Ann at parish@stangela.org or call the parish office at 504-835-0324, ext. 301. Deadline is this Monday, July 6 – any changes after this date will not be in the 2020 directory.

Matthew Kelly Literature

Please feel free to take a Matthew Kelly book found on the tables in the back of church.

Facebook & YouTube Livestream

Watch our Masses LIVE on the St. Angela Merici Church YouTube and Facebook pages. Weekday Mass begins at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Saturday. Sunday Mass livestream begins at 9:30 a.m. A link to access both pages can be found at the top of our website: www.stangela.org.

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On Saturday July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners will be recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, will be held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication. Over the next few weeks, we will highlight the recipients of each award.

Outstanding Parish Youth Award

Congratulations to:

- Cameron Cassara, a St. Angela alumnus and a senior at Brother Martin High School served as an altar server for eight years, has been actively involved in our CYO since 8th grade, currently serving on our Youth Board. Last year he began serving as a reader for Mass.
- Ethan Cassara, also a St. Angela Alumnus, and is a junior at Brother Martin High School. He served as an altar server for seven years and now serves as a reader at Mass. Ethan also has been an active member of our CYO since 8th grade and currently serves on our CYO Youth Board.
- Bradley Hardeman, a graduate of Jesuit High School and now LSU bound served as an altar server for 7 years. He has been sharing his musical talent as a member of the 5:00 p.m. Praise and Worship Choir here at St. Angela for the last two years. He recently achieved Eagle Scout rank with Troop #45 with one Bronze Eagle Palm.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You
above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to
You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

(*) denotes living

FAITH FORMATION

Parish School of Religion

Holy Communion Mass has been set for Saturday, July 25, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. More information will be emailed to parents closer to the date.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year will begin in July. Stay tuned to the bulletin, website, and Facebook page for more information.

Saint of the Week

SAINT MARIA GORETTI
(1890-1902)
Fest Day: July 6

Does anything match a mother's pride in her children? First Communions, confirmations, graduations, weddings: how these delight a mother's heart! Imagine, then, Assunta Goretti, the only mother ever to attend her child's canonization! In poverty-stricken rural Italy, widowed Assunta tended fields for the Serenelli family, whose eighteen-year-old son, Alessandro, propositioned her barely twelve-year-old Maria; then, when she resisted, crying, "It is a sin! God forbids it!" he stabbed her fourteen times. As she lay dying, Maria assured the attending priest, "Yes, I forgive Alessandro! I want him to be in Paradise with me someday." Imprisoned, unrepentant, Alessandro changed after dreaming that a radiant Maria had offered him fourteen lilies. "I've kept my promise," she smiled. "You'll be here with me someday." Upon release, he rushed to beg Assunta's forgiveness. "Jesus has forgiven you," she replied, "my Maria, too. How can I refuse?" Next morning, mother and murderer walked arm in arm to church and knelt side by side for Communion.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation will now be held on Tuesday, July 14 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Angela Merici Church. More information will be emailed! Please check your email inboxes for an email from Candice Schmidt regarding Confirmation Mass.

Pro-Life Ministry

Join St. Angela Pro-Life Ministry at the Abortion facility on General Pershing St. for a prayerful presence on July 9th. We will leave after 8:30 am mass.

The deeper value of being outside of the abortion facility is that it is a place of such despair and hopelessness. It is a place where God is most urgently needed. Praying outside is bringing God to the facility. Sometimes that presence is enough to be a sign of hope to somebody entering the facility. Please consider joining us.

The e-Edition of the Clarion Herald is available each week at <http://clarionheraldla.newsmemory.com>. A new electronic issue of the Clarion Herald goes live every Tuesday at approximately 3:00 p.m.

Catholic Counseling Service

Out of compliance with the precautions regarding COVID-19, Catholic Counseling Service (CCS) continues to offer telehealth services to individuals, couples, and families through the phone or video-conferencing platforms. This new and effective method of counseling allows CCS to extend our services across the archdiocese to areas we weren't previously available. Beginning Monday, May 18th, we will resume our face-to-face counseling at our New Orleans office; however, staff and clients are required to take necessary precautions to ensure the safety of all, including wearing facemasks and maintaining 6 feet apart where possible. Through the generosity of a donor, CCS has received a grant to increase the number of clients we can assist with the cost of counseling, including providing pro bono services when necessary. CCS offers counseling for $50 a session and will continue to use a sliding scale to assist anyone looking for counseling. We are committed to removing finances as an obstacle to mental health services. Anyone interested in counseling can speak to our intake coordinator by calling our main office at 504-861-6245. If we are unable to answer a call, please leave a message with their name and preferred contact phone number and someone will return their call within the next business day to complete the intake and schedule an appointment. All calls are completely confidential. We are proud to continue our mission of providing quality and affordable counseling to the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us
that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill,
and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

A LETTER FROM DEACON DAVID AARON

Greetings my friends at St Angela!

I thought I would use my opportunity to write a letter in the bulletin to reflect on my diaconal ministry. Many of you may recall that I was ordained in December of 2010. There were only 10 of us left after Katrina took away many of those who had initially discerned a vocation to the diaconate. We became known as the class of hope and perseverance. Like most deacons, I have been blessed to be able to baptize children and I have also had the honor of witnessing several marriages. I also have the privilege of serving as a Master of Ceremonies for the Archdiocese. Being an MC, I have traveled from one end of the Archdiocese to the other, literally. I've been to St John the Baptist (both in Paradis and Folsom) and to Annunciation in Bogalusa (twice!).

But, I have to say that the ministry that has made me feel the most humble has been my involvement with the Substance Addiction Ministry. Several years ago, when Fr Beau asked me to lead this ministry, working alongside Lisa Carroll, a registered addiction counselor, I thought: "How can I do this? I know nothing about addiction." In fact, it turned out that what little I thought I knew about addiction was totally wrong. I grew up being told that people who had a substance addiction such as alcoholism or an addiction to heroin were simply weak and not trying hard enough.

What we now know about the science of addiction is that it is, in fact, both a spiritual and a physical disease. The mental picture that I had was debunked at the very first meeting we had here. People who are addicted come from all walks of life, and for many, the addiction occurred as the result of pain medication prescribed after some trauma such as a surgery or an accident. People who are addicted do NOT want to have the disease any more than someone with diabetes wants to have that disease. In both cases, it is something they will have to live with for the rest of their lives, but – there is hope in recovery.

And what I have also come to understand is that it's well known that those who are afflicted with addiction are not the only ones who suffer; those who love and care for them are also affected. Those affected by addiction struggle to help their loved ones and often feel helpless in the face of their loved one's addiction.

Through the Substance Addiction Ministry, we provide help and hope through professional referrals, information, and spiritual support. We are here for you. I am grateful to be able to serve here at St Angela. God bless!

LITURGY FOR THE 15TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Isaiah 55:10-11

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD:
Just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth;
my word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 65:10, 11, 12-13, 14

R. (Lk 8:8) The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You have visited the land and watered it;
greatly have you enriched it.
God's watercourses are filled;
you have prepared the grain.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

Thus have you prepared the land: drenching its furrows,
breaking up its clods, Softening it with showers, blessing its yield.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You have crowned the year with your bounty, and your paths overflow with a rich harvest;
The untilled meadows overflow with it,
and rejoicing clothes the hills.

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

The fields are garmented with flocks and the valleys blanketed with grain.
They shout and sing for joy.

Second Reading

Romans 8:18-23

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us.
For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God; for creation was made subject to futility, not of its own accord but because of the one who subjected it, in hope that creation itself would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.
We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now; and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower.
All who come to him will have life forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 13:1-23

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.
On that day, Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the sea. Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat down, and the whole crowd stood along the shore. And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying: "A sower went out to sow.
And as he sowed, some seed fell on the path, and birds came and ate it up.
Some fell on rocky ground, where it had little soil. It sprang up at once because the soil was not deep, and when the sun rose it was scorched, and it withered for lack of roots.
Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. But some seed fell on rich soil, and produced fruit, a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.
Whoever has ears ought to hear."

The disciples approached him and said, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"
He said to them in reply, "Because knowledge of the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven has been granted to you, but to them it has not been granted. To anyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; from anyone who has not, even what he has will be taken away. This is why I speak to them in parables, because they look but do not see and hear but do not listen or understand. Isaiah's prophecy is fulfilled in them, which says: You shall indeed hear but not understand, you shall indeed look but never see.

Gross is the heart of this people, they will hardly hear with their ears, they have closed their eyes, lest they see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their hearts and be converted, and I heal them.
"But blessed are your eyes, because they see, and your ears, because they hear.
Amen, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

"Hear then the parable of the sower.
The seed sown on the path is the one who hears the word of the kingdom without understanding it, and the evil one comes and steals away what was sown in his heart.
The seed sown on rocky ground is the one who hears the word and receives it at once with joy. But he has no root and lasts only for a time. When some tribulation or persecution comes because of the word, he immediately falls away.
The seed sown among thorns is the one who hears the word, but then worldly anxiety and the lure of riches choke the word and it bears no fruit.
But the seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. Chairs will be outside for those who wish to enter after our limit. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

Congratulations!

Welcome to the Catholic Church!

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On this past Saturday, July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners were recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, were held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication. The next award and nominees to highlight are for the Matt Hill Award.

Matt Hill Award Nominees:

Each year we submit nominees for the Matt Hill Award, which is offered to one boy and one girl throughout the whole Archdiocese of New Orleans. While our nominees were not selected this year, we are proud of them and their good sportsmanship and Christian leadership on and off the field! This year's nominees were Spencer Hyde and Mia Dallimore.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You
above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at
least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to
You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

*We pray that through the intercession
of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will
be spared damage to life and
property during this hurricane season.*

Parish School of Religion

Holy Communion Mass has been set for Saturday, July 25, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Information was emailed to parents last week.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year will begin in July. Stay tuned to the bulletin, website, and Facebook page for more information.

Saint of the Week

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA (1656-1680)

Feast Day: July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville—Ossernon to Native Americans—in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of "Christian" traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young "Lily of the Mohawks" drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does "the aroma of Christ" (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel? —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Confirmation

The Sacrament of Confirmation will now be held on Tuesday, July 14 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Angela Merici Church.

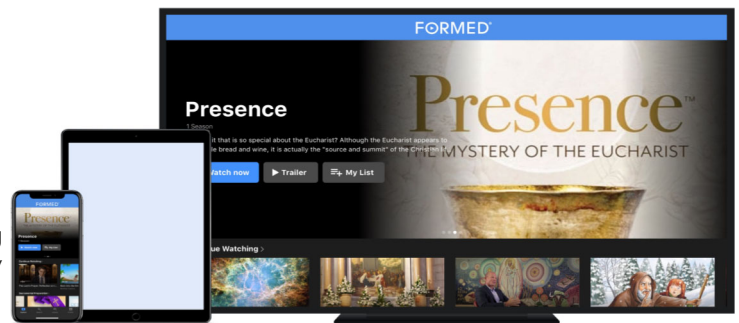

There will be a Confirmation Practice on Monday, July 13 at 5:30—6:30 p.m. Meet in church. Sponsors are invited to attend. All in attendance should wear a mask.

Pro-Life Ministry

With sadness, we are sorry to say that the Unsafe Abortion Protection Act, known as Act 620. This Act requires a physician, who performs abortions, to have admitting privileges, as all other outpatient surgical center are required, at a local hospital in case there is an emergency. This Act was overturned by the Supreme Court on June 29th. The Justices ruled it as unconstitutional. We must not give up. We must continue working and praying to put the women of Louisiana above the interest of the abortion business.

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS
or donate online at www.stangela.org

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us
that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have
died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill,
and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday -

Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

e-Edition of Clarion Herald

The e-Edition of the Clarion Herald is available each week at <http://clarionheraldla.newsmemory.com>. A new electronic issue of the Clarion Herald goes live every Tuesday at approximately 3:00 p.m.

Catholic Counseling Service

Out of compliance with the precautions regarding COVID-19, Catholic Counseling Service (CCS) continues to offer telehealth services to individuals, couples, and families through the phone or video-conferencing platforms. This new and effective method of counseling allows CCS to extend our services across the archdiocese to areas we weren't previously available. We will resume our face-to-face counseling at our New Orleans office; however, staff and clients are required to take necessary precautions to ensure the safety of all, including wearing facemasks and maintaining 6 feet apart where possible.

Through the generosity of a donor, CCS has received a grant to increase the number of clients we can assist with the cost of counseling, including providing pro bono services when necessary. CCS offers counseling for $50 a session and will continue to use a sliding scale to assist anyone looking for counseling. We are committed to removing finances as an obstacle to mental health services. Anyone interested in counseling can speak to our intake coordinator by calling our main office at 504-861-6245. If we are unable to answer a call, please leave a message with their name and preferred contact phone number and someone will return their call within the next business day to complete the intake and schedule an appointment. All calls are completely confidential. We are proud to continue our mission of providing quality and affordable counseling to the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

A LETTER FROM DEACON GILBERT SCHMIDT

Father Beau has asked all of the Deacons to write an article about themselves that will end up in the bulletin. Deacon Nick was first, followed by Deacon Ray and Deacon David. And now, they ran out of people so they scraped the bottom of the barrel and found me. So, here's my story!

I was born to Harry C. Schmidt, Sr. and Anita Barilleaux in 1932 and grew up in the Church Parish of St. Rose of Lima on Bayou Road and Broad Streets. I began serving Mass around the age of 9 and haven't stopped yet. Even during my tour of duty in the U.S. Navy, I had the opportunity to serve Mass for the Chaplains who came to take care of our spiritual needs. After an unsuccessful enrollment at Holy Cross High School, I was sent to St. Stanislaus High School in Bay St. Louis, MS. where, hopefully, my insufficiencies were corrected. (Some still debate this.) Fell in love with the Brothers of the Sacred Heart and was almost ready to head to their Novitiate and then I met my new vocation, Anna Ladner. I forgot all about the life in ministry and began a life of parenthood to 9 children. I can assure you, they were much more of a challenge than any ministry the Church has to offer.

However, when our Church brought back the Ministry of Permanent Diaconate I, again, became interested in serving people and when Deacon Ray Heap was ordained, I saw what beauty the work of God could be when offered and accepted, so I talked to my Pastor, then Father John Favalora, and he advised me that the class entrance was closed until the next class, if there would even be one. So, again, I forgot about it, but began attending morning Mass and serving as a Lector and was appointed one of the first Extra Ordinary Ministers of the Holy Eucharist in our Parish. That satisfied my thirst for a while until the next call came out 4 years later. I applied and was accepted and studied for 3 ½ years, rather than the two years prior to this, and was ordained by Archbishop Hannan at the Cathedral of St. Louis King of France on December 13, 1980. I was then "missioned" to St. Angela Merici Parish. And then the fun began!

All of you, yes, all of you, opened your arms and hearts to me in the ministry God has chosen for me and allowed me so many privileges and welcomed me into your lives. You allowed me to hold your children and welcome them into God's church through Baptism, helping them serve our God on the Altar, celebrate their wedding ceremonies and the honor of burying your dead; none of which I deserve.

After ordination, I felt a need for "more" of God's love, so I enrolled in a three year course studying the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola and was granted by Archbishop Hannan, the title of Spiritual Director and Retreat Director. Deacons called, "Introduction to Diaconal Ministry" which I taught for about 15 years.

When Archbishop Schulte came on board, I was asked to be one of the Masters of Ceremonies for the Diocese and I did that for about 25 years. In the meantime when things were lagging, I was also elected to the National Board of Directors for my normal duties here at St. Angela with Baptisms, Weddings and Funerals as the Permanent Deacons representing 5 States. This was all in conjunction with well as teaching the R.C.I.A. program for about 18 years as well as serving on the local Board of Directors and the Selection Board for the Deacons, not to mention being asked to be the spiritual director for four trips to Medjgorje.

There are other things that happened in the last 40 years, but I don't want to bore you with them. But this I can tell you, once you tie yourself to God's apron strings, life gets really interesting. Now that I have stepped down from the Altar and no longer serving or preaching at Mass, unless asked to do so, I am honored to work with many people assisting them through the annulment process in order to return to the Sacraments. What a joy this is for me! To think, I can help some more!

There are so many of you, my extended family, that have given me your love, kindness and prayers through these years, I don't think I will live long enough to say "thank you" to most of you. But, be assured of a large part of my daily prayers are for you and your families.

The Deke

LITURGY FOR THE 16TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

There is no god besides you who have the care of all,
that you need show you have not unjustly condemned.
For your might is the source of justice;
your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all.
For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved;
and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity.
But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency, and with much lenience you govern us;
for power, whenever you will, attends you.
And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind;
and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

R. (5a) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are good and forgiving, abounding in kindness to all who call upon you.
Hearken, O LORD, to my prayer and attend to the sound of my pleading.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

All the nations you have made shall come and worship you, O LORD, and glorify your name.
For you are great, and you do wondrous deeds;
you alone are God.

R. Lord, you are good and forgiving.

You, O LORD, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in kindness and fidelity.
Turn toward me, and have pity on me;
give your strength to your servant.

SUNDAY, JULY 19, 2020

Second Reading

Romans 8:26-27

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness;
for we do not know how to pray as we ought,
but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.
And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones
according to God's will.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Matthew 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

The Lord be with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

And with your spirit.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying:
"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field.
While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off.
When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well.
The slaves of the householder came to him and said,
'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field?
Where have the weeds come from?'
He answered, 'An enemy has done this.'
His slaves said to him,
'Do you want us to go and pull them up?'
He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them.
Let them grow together until harvest;
then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters,
'First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning;
but gather the wheat into my barn.'"
He proposed another parable to them.
"The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field.
It is the smallest of all the seeds,
yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants.
It becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.'
He spoke to them another parable.
"The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour

until the whole batch was leavened."
All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables.
He spoke to them only in parables,
to fulfill what had been said through the prophet:
I will open my mouth in parables,
I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.
Then, dismissing the crowds, he went into the house.
His disciples approached him and said,
"Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field."
He said in reply, "He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom.
The weeds are the children of the evil one,
and the enemy who sows them is the devil.
The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels.
Just as weeds are collected and burned up with fire,
so will it be at the end of the age.
The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom
all who cause others to sin and all evildoers.
They will throw them into the fiery furnace,
where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.
Then the righteous will shine like the sun
in the kingdom of their Father.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank the St. Angela Merici parishioners who continually donate food items for the pantry especially during the COVID-19 "stay at home" order. We know your generosity comes straight from your hearts!

Currently, we are in need of the following food items:

Canned Tuna, Canned Chicken, Canned Ham, Stew, Ravioli, Vienna Sausage, Soups, Peanut Butter/Jelly, Rice, Dry/Canned Milk, Crackers.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On Saturday, July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners were recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, were held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication.

St. Timothy Award: This award is a prestigious national award given to youth who have impacted their parish community, their school community, and the broader archdiocesan community. This year's St. Angela recipients are Matthew Lulich and Leigha Story. Both of these amazing young people have served side by side throughout their 5 years in CYO. Each served on our youth board throughout their tenure in CYO and each served a year as president. They have represented our parish well as Teen C.R.O.S.S. members and they attended the Transform Your World Evangelization Camp in 2018. Both are deeply grounded spiritually and are not afraid to speak of their faith among their peers. They played a major role in getting our first CYO Rose Rally for Life launched. You may have seen their interview in the Clarion Herald last summer. They were also featured in the Catholic Foundation's video at their annual banquet in October. Here is the link for the video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LoclOqhccvI&t> Matthew and Leigha have represented St. Angela so well and they will truly be missed! We wish them both the best as they leave for college next month. Both are very deserving of this special recognition.

In last week's bulletin we announced our nominees for the CYO Matt Hill Athletics Award and stated that our nominees were not selected. However, at the July 11th ceremony, Mia Dallimore was chosen to receive this special honor bestowed on one individual girl from throughout the Archdiocese of New Orleans!
Congratulations Mia!

Parish School of Religion

Holy Communion Mass has been set for Saturday, July 25, 2020 at 10:00 a.m. Information was emailed to parents.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year OPENED July 15. Visit the Parish Website to register online.

Saint of the Week

SAINT SHARBEL MAKHLŪF
(1828-1898)
Feast Day: July 24

The convenience store owner chatted animatedly in Arabic with coworkers, but hardly at all with his American clientele. So soon after 9/11, he probably figured, with my accent, the less said, the better. That changed when an American customer recognized Saint Sharbel's portrait on the wall: "So you're Lebanese Maronites!" The owner was happily incredulous: "You know our saint?" "Not at first," the customer admitted. "But we help the Catholic Near East Welfare Association, and their magazine published that picture and called Sharbel the 'Paradoxical Artisan of Peace.'" "Everyone thinks we're Muslims," said the owner, "and some of my workers are. Saint Sharbel helps us live together in peace!" A hermit for twenty-three years, little is known of Sharbel's life. He died after suffering a stroke while celebrating the liturgy. Miracles attributed to his intercession number in the thousands, and in war-torn Lebanon, Catholics, Orthodox, and Muslims pray together where his incorrupt body is entombed. How lovely if after our passing, we too could be remembered for having brought very different people to the one God, together in peace. —Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Confirmation

Congratulations to the 46 candidates who received the gift of the Holy Spirit through the Sacrament of Confirmation on Tuesday, July 14, 2020. Archbishop Gregory Aymond celebrated the Mass. Congrats to our young church!

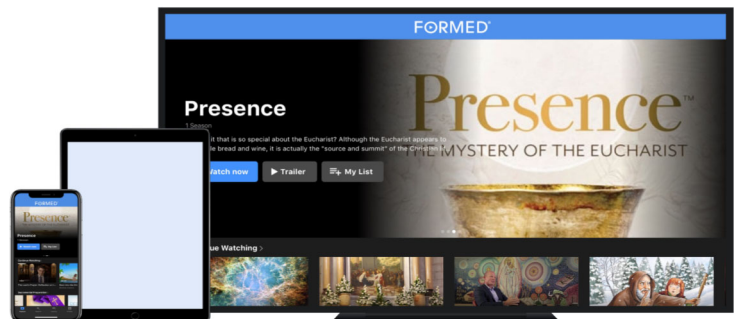

Registration for the Sacrament of Confirmation for the 2020-2021 school year officially opened on July 15. Visit the parish website to register online. Confirmation 2021 will be held on January 5, 2021.

Pro-Life Ministry

Do you remember when you were confirmed? You became a soldier of Christ! Come out of your comfort zone to witness your faith, not only to your children or fellow Catholics, but also to others! This can be done without even speaking. Come and pray at the abortion facility on General Pershing. You can join us on the second Thursday after the 8:30 Mass.

Formed

Catechism at your fingertips 24-7! Formed is a Catholic "Netflix"! Visit www.stangela.formed.org and sign up for FREE today!

AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS or donate online at www.stangela.org

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

Facebook & YouTube Livestream

Watch our Masses LIVE on the St. Angela Merici Church YouTube and Facebook pages. Weekday Mass begins at 8:30 a.m. Monday through Saturday. Sunday Mass livestream begins at 9:30 a.m. A link to access both pages can be found at the top of our website: www.stangela.org.

"In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing"

Registration is now open for the 2020-21 schedule of "In Silence" retreats at Saint Joseph Abbey. The first retreat takes place Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4-6, 2020. A series led by the Abbey's Fr. Ephrem Arcement, O.S.B., "In Silence" is intended to help adults find spiritual renewal and awakening by entering more deeply into the silent depths of God's presence through exploring the life and writings of the mystics of the Christian tradition. The theme this year is "In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing." Visit www.saintjosephabbey.com/in-silence for additional dates and to register.

St. Angela Merici CYO Rose Rally

This year's CYO Rose Rally For Life will benefit Covenant House (which helps save teens from human trafficking), Rachel's Vineyard and Access Pregnancy. The event will be held Saturday, August 1 and teens will be accepting donations after all the Masses the weekend of July 25-26. Donations will also be accepted at the parish office.

A LETTER FROM DEACON THOMAS KRATOCHVIL

St. Angela Merici Parish is proud to welcome Deacon Thomas Kratochvil as the newest permanent deacon in our parish! He will begin his ministry here on August 1, 2020.

I grew up in a farming community in Central Illinois, the 6 of 8 children, and married my high school sweetheart, Diane. Diane attended the all-girls Catholic high school across the street from my all-boys Catholic school. We have five children, all grown and gone, and nine grandchildren. We have been parishioners at St. Angela for the past 39 years, and the kids all went to our school and did well.

I retired as a geophysicist with Shell after 34 years of service and have been a deacon for five years most recently assigned to St. Francis of Assisi, Uptown. I have a BS in Engineering Physics and an MS in Nuclear Physics from the University of Illinois, an MS in Geology from UNO, a JD from Loyola, and as an increasing number of deacons and religion teachers, an MA in Theology from Notre Dame Seminary.

Diane is St. Angela's Youth Director and Alpha Coordinator, and many know her from her years as a music cantor. Unlike Diane and most deacons, I have never been a super-parishioner, and was called to the diaconate differently.

I used to work 12-hour days at Shell, and to break it up I'd take a walk to the river from One Shell Square at lunch. On a bitterly cold day, a thought entered my mind – would you like to save someone? So, I went through a mental exercise of what I could throw in the river that would float. No one was there, so I walked on past the Aquarium through Waldenburg Park, and the thought left my mind.

Looping back, there by the Croatian immigrant statue, a homeless man sat on a bench in an old green Army jacket, head down, blood dripping out of his nose. I walked right by him but felt so bad that I turned around sat next to him, and I asked if there was anything I could do. He said no, he wished that there was something someone could do. I returned to the office, and I felt terrible. I could have done so much – fed him, cleaned him up, listened to his story, got him out of the cold, said a prayer with him. Then I did something I had never done before – I read the church bulletin and there was a call for deacons. I said to Diane, that maybe I should look into this and she said, yes, I should. Then everything lined up, like a key to tumblers in a lock. We may not be the holiest version of ourselves, but we are all called to holiness.

Since becoming a deacon, I visit the Jefferson Parish Correction Center twice weekly, a holy penance. Most of my co-workers in hotel maintenance while I was in college went to jail and I never saw or sought them again. (By the way, we could use calendars at the Correctional Center – as you know being locked up it is hard to keep track of time. No spiral wire calendars, please – they become weapons.)

Post-retirement, I have also been teaching high school science, first at Archbishop Rummel, where I completed my alternative teaching certification, and now at St. Charles Catholic in LaPlace. Although Father Michael Schneller and the folks at St. Francis have been most kind to me and gentle in their training, I am looking forward to coming home and serving at St. Angela. It is such a fine, vibrant place with such good people.

LITURGY FOR THE 17TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

1 KGS 3:5, 7-12

A reading from the first Book of Kings

The LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream at night.
God said, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you."
Solomon answered:
"O LORD, my God, you have made me, your servant, king to succeed my father David;
but I am a mere youth, not knowing at all how to act.
I serve you in the midst of the people whom you have chosen, a people so vast that it cannot be numbered or counted.
Give your servant, therefore, an understanding heart to judge your people and to distinguish right from wrong.
For who is able to govern this vast people of yours?"

The LORD was pleased that Solomon made this request.
So God said to him:
"Because you have asked for this—not for a long life for yourself,
nor for riches,
nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right—
I do as you requested.
I give you a heart so wise and understanding that there has never been anyone like you up to now, and after you there will come no one to equal you."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

PS 119:57, 72, 76-77, 127-128, 129-130

R. (97a) Lord, I love your commands.

I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.

The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Let your kindness comfort me
according to your promise to your servants.
Let your compassion come to me that I may live,
for your law is my delight.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

For I love your command more than gold, however fine.
For in all your precepts I go forward;
every false way I hate.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Wonderful are your decrees;
therefore I observe them.
The revelation of your words sheds light, giving understanding to the simple.

R. Lord, I love your commands.

Second Reading

Rom 8:28-30

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
We know that all things work for good for those who love God,
who are called according to his purpose.
For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn
among many brothers and sisters.
And those he predestined he also called;
and those he called he also justified;
and those he justified he also glorified.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Cf. Mt 11:25

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;
for you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Mt. 14:13-21

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples:
"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field,
which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.
Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant searching for fine pearls.
When he finds a pearl of great price,
he goes and sells all that he has and buys it.
Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net thrown into the sea,
which collects fish of every kind.
When it is full they haul it ashore and sit down to put what is good into buckets.
What is bad they throw away.
Thus it will be at the end of the age.
The angels will go out and separate the wicked from the righteous and throw them into the fiery furnace,

where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.

"Do you understand all these things?"
They answered, "Yes."
And he replied,
"Then every scribe who has been instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like the head of a household who brings from his storeroom both the new and the old."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank the St. Angela Merici parishioners who continually donate food items for the pantry especially during the COVID-19 "stay at home" order. We know your generosity comes straight from your hearts!

Currently, we are in need of the following food items:

St. Angela Merici CYO Rose Rally

We are sorry to announce that we have decided to postpone the CYO Rose Rally for Life. When we scheduled the event, things were starting to improve with Covid-19. The opposite is now occurring and it is out of an abundance of caution that we have decided to postpone until later in the year. Thank you for all of your support.

Confessions

Confessions are offered every Wednesday from 5:00 - 7:00 p.m. in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium, located in the back of the church. This sacrament is also offered on Saturday's from 3:00 - 3:45 p.m. and Sunday's from 4:00 - 4:45 p.m. in the same location. You may also schedule an individual confession by calling the office and leaving a message for either Fr. Beau or Fr. Dan.

2019-2020 Youth Leadership Awards

On Saturday, July 11, 2020 a number of our young parishioners were recognized for their good service to our parish. The Youth Leadership Awards, originally scheduled for April 26 at St. Louis Cathedral, were held at Divine Mercy Church in Kenner. Those recognized have contributed greatly to our parish and we are grateful for their service and dedication. Finally, the last three awards to highlight are the Adult Service Awards.

Adult Service Awards:

We gratefully recognize three special young adults for 5 years of service to our youth in CYO. They have been integral in the success of our CYO and have given many hours of service to our youth.

- Julia Delesdernier attended St. Angela and Dominican High School. She was an active member of CYO for five years and also served as our president. She graduated from Ole Miss in 2018 and will be leaving us for the University of St. Augustine where she will study for a Doctorate of Physical Therapy. Julia has served on numerous retreat teams for our annual Camp Abbey Retreats and has coached CYO volleyball for last 4 seasons. We will miss her and wish her only the best!
- Brooks and Courtney Hummel joined our parish 5 years ago. After attending their first Mass here at St. Angela, they struck up a conversation with Fr. Beau outside. Within minutes Fr. Beau walked them over to the gym to our CYO meeting to introduce them to us! They have been such a blessing to me as a youth minister and have served our teens well. Both have served on our retreat teams and Brooks has coached cabbage ball for us. Brooks graduated from LSU Dental School in 2019 and is currently a second year student in orthodontics at LSU. Courtney is a stay-at-home artist and they have an adorable toddler son, Malcom. They are currently working with Fr. Dan to develop a plan for Young Adult Ministry in our parish. We are blessed to have them here at St. Angela!

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You
above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at
least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to
You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

*We pray that through the intercession
of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will
be spared damage to life and
property during this hurricane season.*

Saint of the Week

SAINT MARTHA
(first century)
Feast Day: July 29

Whether you find Martha Stewart admirable or annoying, she has the perfect patron saint. Luke describes Martha—saint, not Stewart—as “burdened with much serving” (Luke 10:40). About Mary, seated, listening to Jesus, Martha complained, “Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?” Jesus’ response, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things . . . Mary has chosen the better part” (10:41, 42), suggests to some the superiority of the contemplative life, leaving the rest of us, supporting families, earning livings, (helping others?), as second-class Christians. But Luke introduces Martha and Mary immediately after Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan, whom Jesus recommends as a model of practical compassion, concluding, “Go and do likewise” (10:37). Go and do! Sit and listen! Discipleship is never either/or but both/and. Jesus ministered in prayerful silence and hospitable service. Monastic calendars add Martha’s sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, calling all three “hosts of the Lord,” recalling their welcome of Jesus to their home in Bethany, reminding us Whom we welcome whenever we extend summertime hospitality!

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill, and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

"In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing"

Registration is now open for the 2020-21 schedule of "In Silence" retreats at Saint Joseph Abbey. The first retreat takes place Labor Day weekend, Sept. 4-6, 2020. A series led by the Abbey's Fr. Ephrem Arcement, O.S.B., "In Silence" is intended to help adults find spiritual renewal and awakening by entering more deeply into the silent depths of God's presence through exploring the life and writings of the mystics of the Christian tradition. The theme this year is "In Silence with the Cloud of the Unknowing." Visit www.saintjosephabbey.com/in-silence for additional dates and to register.

Hope in Addiction Talks

Substance addiction is one of the most significant trials of our time. St. Francis Xavier Church, 444 Metairie Rd, Metairie, LA will host a talk entitled, "Hope in Addiction," on Wednesday, August 5, 2020, from 7:00-8:00 PM in St. Joseph Hall. The presenter is Mary Lou McCall, Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist and Masters of Theology Student at Notre Dame Seminary. The talk on August 5th is "Hope in Addiction, Part 2: From Darkness into Light, A Catholic Community Healing Addiction." Come be educated on the prevention and healing of substance addiction. Admission is free. Because of Covid restrictions, attendance is limited to 60 people.

Mission to the Holy Spirit

A Mission to the Holy Spirit will be offered August 10-14, 2020, at St. Stephen's Church, 1025 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans. Confession will be available from 6:15-6:45, musical performance, praise and worship 6:30-7:00, and Mass to begin at 7:00 PM. The Mission will feature an outstanding group of well-known celebrants and musicians from our Catholic community all designed to be an uplifting experience. Archbishop Aymond will be our celebrant on August 12th. Please see the flyer in the back of church for more information.

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the St. Angela Merici Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

A LETTER FROM DEACON DAN DASHNER

My dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ:

As you may have already heard, I have completed my summer ministry assignment with Saint Angela Merici and I will now be returning to Notre Dame Seminary to complete my priestly academic requirements. Although relatively short, I want you all to know how much I will cherish and remember my time with you.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank each and every one of you for your prayers and the love that you have shown me throughout my short tenure here as well as all our office staff for their help and support. In a special way, I want to bid farewell to all the sick and homebound parishioners who received me so graciously into to their homes and families. Please know that you will be remembered in my daily prayers.

In the words of General Douglas MacArthur, "I shall return". I am scheduled to be reassigned to Saint Angela Merici in mid-January 2021 to complete my final internship prior to Ordination to Priesthood which is scheduled for June 5, 2021.

Lastly (but certainly not least), I want to thank Father Beau, Father Dan and all the Deacons for warmly welcoming me into this Parish Clergy family as well as for the help, guidance, and direction they devoted to me in support of my priestly vocation.

Now, I will continue to walk down the path that (Through The Grace of God) will lead me to Priestly Ordination.

May The Good Lord Bless and Keep You All Safe until we meet again.

Rev. Mr. Dan Dashner

First Reading

Isaiah 55:1-3

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD:

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!

You who have no money,
come, receive grain and eat;
Come, without paying and without cost,
drink wine and milk!

Why spend your money for what is not bread;
your wages for what fails to satisfy?

Heed me, and you shall eat well,
you shall delight in rich fare.

Come to me heedfully,
listen, that you may have life.

I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,
the benefits assured to David.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18

R. (cf. 16) The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is gracious and merciful,
slow to anger and of great kindness.

The LORD is good to all
and compassionate toward all his works.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The eyes of all look hopefully to you,
and you give them their food in due season;

you open your hand
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

R. The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs.

The LORD is just in all his ways
and holy in all his works.

The LORD is near to all who call upon him,
to all who call upon him in truth.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 2, 2020

Second Reading

Romans 8:35, 37-39

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
What will separate us from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Thanks be to God.
Matthew 4:4b

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:13-21

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Glory to you, O Lord.

When Jesus heard of the death of John the Baptist, he withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself.

The crowds heard of this and followed him on foot from their towns.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he cured their sick.

When it was evening, the disciples approached him and said,

"This is a deserted place and it is already late;
dismiss the crowds so that they can go to the villages

and buy food for themselves."

Jesus said to them, "There is no need for them to go away;

give them some food yourselves."

But they said to him,

"Five loaves and two fish are all we have here."

Then he said, "Bring them here to me," and he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass.
Taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven,
he said the blessing, broke the loaves,
and gave them to the disciples,
who in turn gave them to the crowds.
They all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments left over—twelve wicker baskets full.
Those who ate were about five thousand men, not counting women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Masses this weekend

Phase Two of the state-mandated order is in effect. Greater than 25% of the total occupancy of our church will be allowed to attend each Mass. Our regular Mass schedule has returned. All doors will be open and ushers will count those who enter. No sign-ups are required. Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass. Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church. Thank you.

St. Vincent DePaul

The members of the St. Vincent DePaul Society would like to thank the St. Angela Merici parishioners who continually donate food items for the pantry especially during the COVID-19 "stay at home" order. We know your generosity comes straight from your hearts!

Currently, we are in need of the following food items:

Canned Tuna, Canned Chicken, Canned Ham, Stew, Ravioli, Vienna Sausage, Soups, Peanut Butter/Jelly, Rice, Dry/Canned Milk, Crackers.

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

Find out how to help our school families return to Catholic education at St. Angela Merici School at www.bidpal.net/SAMANGELS
or donate online at www.stangela.org

St. Angela Merici CYO Rose Rally

We are sorry to announce that we have decided to postpone the CYO Rose Rally for Life. When we scheduled the event, things were starting to improve with Covid-19. The opposite is now occurring and it is out of an abundance of caution that we have decided to postpone until later in the year. Thank you for all of your support.

Donations

As a parish, we are supported by parishioner donations and we appreciate your giving during this time. If you wish to donate online, please go to our website: www.stangela.org and click the icon "ONLINE GIVING." You can also drop your donation in the mailbox next to the door at the Pomona St. entrance to the Parish Office.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You
above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at
least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to
You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

*We pray that through the intercession
of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will
be spared damage to life and
property during this hurricane season.*

Parish School of Religion

Congratulations to the 36 Communicants in St. Angela Merici Parish who received First Holy Communion on Saturday, July 25! Pictures of the ceremony can be found on the St. Angela Merici Facebook page.

Registration for PSR for the 2020-2021 school year OPENED July 15. Visit the Parish Website to download the registration form.

Saint of the Week

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859)

Feast Day: August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."

DID YOU KNOW? "Planned parenthood vows to spend 45 million in 2020 to elect abortion-rights candidates" The stakes are very high right now for unborn children.

St. Michael's Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Pope Francis' August Prayer Intention:

The Maritime World

We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

Catholic Charities Food Pantry

Catholic Charities' food pantry is open Monday - Thursday from 10:00 AM-2:00 PM. The food pantry is located at 2505 Maine Ave in Metairie. Clients should go down the driveway to the left of the building. The food pantry is located in the back building, fourth door from the front. Clients can receive a pre-packed bag of food and some optional supplemental items every two weeks. Clients fill out a simple intake form at their first visit, and at subsequent visits only need provide their name. Please wear a mask and respect social distancing when receiving assistance.

Hope in Addiction Talks

Substance addiction is one of the most significant trials of our time. St. Francis Xavier Church, 444 Metairie Rd, Metairie, LA will host a talk entitled, "Hope in Addiction," on Wednesday, August 5, 2020, from 7:00-8:00 PM in St. Joseph Hall. The presenter is Mary Lou McCall, Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist and Masters of Theology Student at Notre Dame Seminary. The talk on August 5th is "Hope in Addiction, Part 2: From Darkness into Light, A Catholic Community Healing Addiction." Come be educated on the prevention and healing of substance addiction. Admission is free. Because of Covid restrictions, attendance is limited to 60 people.

Attention Retired Catholics!

Are you looking for a way to fight cabin fever AND help our needy neighbors? The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) invites you to join our community of men and women aged 50 or better who serve others and grow deeper in Christian faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition. IVC New Orleans will be hosting information sessions via Zoom on Thursday, July 30 at 10am and Tuesday, August 11 at 2pm. If you are retired or semi-retired and looking for a way to deepen your spirituality with a peer group while also serving the needs of the vulnerable in our community, email NEWORLEANS@IVCUSA.ORG for details on how to attend one of these online sessions. More information can be found at IVCUSA.ORG/NEWORLEANS.

Mission to the Holy Spirit

A Mission to the Holy Spirit will be offered August 10-14, 2020, at St. Stephen's Church, 1025 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans. Confession will be available from 6:15-6:45, musical performance, praise and worship 6:30-7:00, and Mass to begin at 7:00 PM. The Mission will feature an outstanding group of well-known celebrants and musicians from our Catholic community all designed to be an uplifting experience. Archbishop Aymond will be our celebrant on August 12th. Please see the flyer in the back of church for more information.

"Fatima"

Carmel Communications will have a nationwide release of the movie Fatima on August 14, 2020. Locally in greater New Orleans it will be screened in AMC theaters. "A powerful and uplifting drama about the power of faith, Fatima tells the story of a 10-year old shepherd and her two young cousins in Fátima, Portugal, who report seeing visions of the Virgin Mary. Their revelations inspire believers but anger officials of both the Church and the secular government, who try to force them to recant their story. As word of their prophecy spreads, tens of thousands of religious pilgrims flock to the site in hopes of witnessing a miracle. What they experience will change their lives forever." For more information, a trailer, and to arrange for group sales or private screening, please visit www.fatimathemovie.com

Parish Office

Due to the Jefferson Parish mandate, all visitors to the St. Angela Merici Parish Office are required to wear a mask. Thank you.

Let us pray,
Loving and faithful God, the coronavirus reminds us
that we have no power and we are dependent on you.
We place ourselves in your loving hands.
Please give eternal rest to all who have
died from the virus.
Please put your healing hand on those who are ill,
and give your protection to us in this time of fear and uncertainty. Please, calm our fears and help us to trust you as our faithful God.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Our Lady of Prompt Succor,
pray for us in this time of need

A LETTER FROM FR. BEAU

Dear Parishioners,

Six years ago this month, my sister, Elise Charbonnet Angelette, was diagnosed with metastatic breast cancer. At that time her oldest child was nine years old and her fifth child was a newborn. I appealed to the parish for prayer – and over the last 72 months, you have prayed and supported Elise and her family in amazing ways. If I had a nickel for every time I heard the question, “how’s your sister?”, I could feed the world!

We recently learned that her case has progressed to a stage that is no longer treatable. While her brain and body are free of tumors, the cancer cells have moved to the lining of her brain, and she is no longer a candidate for further treatment. At this point, the goal is to keep her as comfortable as possible, along with a lot of prayer and presence.

Her husband, Jason, and their five kids, have carried the cross with Elise over the last 6 years in ways that are beyond comprehension. My heart breaks for them.

At the same time, I know that the seeds of faith that God, through Jason and Elise, have deeply planted in their children’s hearts will carry them through. I have witnessed miracles in seeing them get through the last 6 years and I am witnessing one now as they walk this final road. Jesus is doing the heavy lifting, but they are all walking Calvary.

Personally, this has been a lot more difficult than I imagined. Elise is ten years behind me, and she is the last member of my immediate family that we expected to go first. While the days have been tough, I find that my faith is pulling me through too as a brother, brother-in-law and uncle. Thank you, again, for all of your prayers and support.

I will do my best to keep everyone updated as we go. God love you.

Fr. Beau

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a

A reading from the first Book of Kings

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter.
Then the LORD said to him, “Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD;
the LORD will be passing by.”
A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—
but the LORD was not in the wind.
After the wind there was an earthquake—
but the LORD was not in the earthquake.
After the earthquake there was fire—
but the LORD was not in the fire.
After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound.
When he heard this,
Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 85:9, 10, 11-12, 13-14

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims;
the LORD — for he proclaims peace.
Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet;
justice and peace shall kiss.
Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits;
our land shall yield its increase.
Justice shall walk before him,
and prepare the way of his steps.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 9:1-5

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie;
my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart.
For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh.
They are Israelites;
theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants,
the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises;
theirs the patriarchs, and from them,
according to the flesh, is the Christ,
who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Psalm 130:5

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I wait for the Lord;
my soul waits for his word.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 14:22-33

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat
and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds.
After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray.
When it was evening he was there alone.
Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it.
During the fourth watch of the night,
he came toward them walking on the sea.
When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified.
"It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear.
At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."
Peter said to him in reply,
"Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

He said, "Come."
Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.
But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened;
and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"
Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"
After they got into the boat, the wind died down.
Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying,
"Truly, you are the Son of God."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Mass Guidelines

- Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass.
- Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church.
- Every other pew is roped off to help maintain social distancing.
- Please maintain social distancing before and after Mass.

New Mass Time

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You
are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You
above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You
sacramentally, come at
least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there
and unite myself wholly to
You. Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

*We pray that through the intercession
of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will
be spared damage to life and
property during this hurricane season.*

Parish School of Religion (PSR) Program 2020-2021

"Parents are the first and most important educators of their own children, and they also possess a fundamental competence in this area: they are educators because they are parents. They share their educational mission with other individuals or institutions, such as the Church and State. But the mission of education must always be carried out in accordance with a proper application of the principal subsidiarity."
St. John Paul II, Letter to Families

The first catechists in any child's life are its parents or guardians. They are the ones who first provide a child with a concept of right and wrong; the ones who—for better or worse—make manifest the Father's love.

Mindful of this sacred responsibility, faith is meant to be shared within the home as part of daily life.

The home, or "domestic church," is intended to be a place where children can learn about, experience, and ultimately live out the faith as a true disciple of Christ.

With this in mind, our goal here at St. Angela Merici is to create a catechetical program for our parish youth that recognizes and supports parents in their essential role. Our hope is to enter into a sacred partnership with parents, working together to form these precious little ones so that they can internalize and embrace the truths of our Church within their lives.

For the 2020-2021 school year, this partnership will look a bit different than it has in years past due to the current situation caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. In an effort to adhere to all current guidelines and to keep our children and catechists as safe as possible, we will be switching predominantly to remote learning for this school year for grades K-8, utilizing curriculums with fully embedded online platforms. PSR lessons will be assigned by catechists on a weekly basis and students will have one week to complete all lesson components (i.e. readings, videos, games, and assessments) at home with their family (requiring approximately one hour of time per week). Optional supplemental resources will also be provided regularly, designed to help parents more fully incorporate faith into family living.

In addition to these weekly remote lessons, there will also be periodic on-campus events entitled Families in Faith.

These catechetical workshops are mandatory for both parents/guardians and students and will always occur on a Monday evening from 6-7:15 p.m. They are designed to better equip parents in their role as primary educators while also providing the students with opportunities for hands-on, larger group learning. Activities will include the celebration of the Mass, Stations of the Cross and opportunities for Reconciliation as well as developmentally appropriate lessons, crafts and activities.

A detailed 2020-2021 PSR Calendar can be found on our parish website as well as the necessary registration forms and waivers. Please note that there is a mandatory Parent/Guardian Orientation on Monday, August 31 at 6 pm in the Religious Ed Library. For more information, contact Audrey Huck, Catechetical Coordinator, at audrey@stangela.org.

Healing and Forgiveness: A Mother's Story

SCS Prison Ministry Guest Speaker

Wednesday, August 26, 6:30 pm both in the St. Catherine of Siena Melancon Center and on Zoom

As a tragic victim/ survivor of crime, Ms. Parker Robinson will share her powerful and remarkable testimonial of healing, love and Christian forgiveness. Ms. Robinson is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and on the faculty of Tulane University School of Social Work.

Attention Retired Catholics

Are you looking for a way to fight cabin fever AND help our needy neighbors? The Ignatian Volunteer Corps (IVC) invites you to join our community of men and women aged 50 or better who serve others and grow deeper in Christian faith by reflecting and praying in the Ignatian tradition. IVC New Orleans will be hosting information sessions via Zoom on Thursday, July 30 at 10am and Tuesday, August 11 at 2pm. If you are retired or semi-retired and looking for a way to deepen your spirituality with a peer group while also serving the needs of the vulnerable in our community, email

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us.

Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Mission to the Holy Spirit

A Mission to the Holy Spirit will be offered August 10-14, 2020, at St. Stephen's Church, 1025 Napoleon Avenue, New Orleans. Confession will be available from 6:15-6:45, musical performance, praise and worship 6:30-7:00, and Mass to begin at 7:00 PM. The Mission will feature an outstanding group of well-known celebrants and musicians from our Catholic community all designed to be an uplifting experience. Archbishop Aymond will be our celebrant on August 12th. Please see the flyer in the back of church for more information.

"Fatima"

Carmel Communications will have a nationwide release of the movie Fatima on August 14, 2020. Locally in greater New Orleans it will be screened in AMC theaters. "A powerful and uplifting drama about the power of faith, Fatima tells the story of a 10-year old shepherd and her two young cousins in Fátima, Portugal, who report seeing visions of the Virgin Mary. Their revelations inspire believers but anger officials of both the Church and the secular government, who try to force them to recant their story. As word of their prophecy spreads, tens of thousands of religious pilgrims flock to the site in hopes of witnessing a miracle. What they experience will change their lives forever." For more information, a trailer, and to arrange for group sales or private screening, please visit www.fatimathemovie.com

A LETTER FROM AUDREY HUCK

Dear St. Angela Merici Parishioners,

I would like to formally introduce myself as the new Catechetical Director for St. Angela Merici. Born into a devoutly Catholic household, I was raised in Covington, Louisiana along with my six younger siblings. I went on to attend Ave Maria University where I received a bachelors in Literature. Upon graduating in 2010, I returned to my home parish—St. Peter Catholic Church—where I spent the next five years teaching 4th/5th Religion and 6th English Language Arts. I also served as the St. Peter Senior High Youth Minister from 2011-2013 and earned my Alternative Teaching Certification from Our Lady of Holy Cross College, New Orleans.

I have been married to my husband Tom now for seven and a half years and we've been blessed with five children, one in heaven and four living. Out of a desire to spend more time with these precious little ones, I took a break from traditional teaching back in 2015. Instead, I've spent the past five years working as a consultant writer for Catholic Stewardship Consultants, Inc. while also teaching remotely for Mother of Divine Grace School.

I feel deeply blessed to be joining the St. Angela Merici community, using my professional experience and talents to help build up the heavenly community. As Catechetical Director, I will be overseeing St. Angela Merici's Parish School of Religion (PSR) and Confirmation Preparation Program. If you are interested in learning more about what these programs will look like for the 2020-2021 school year or joining me in this important work as a volunteer, please contact me at audrey@stangela.org.

I look forward to getting to know you in the months to come.

In Christ,
Audrey Huck
Catechetical Director

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD:
Observe what is right, do what is just;
for my salvation is about to come,
my justice, about to be revealed.

The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD,
ministering to him,
loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants—
all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer;
their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 67:2-3,5,6,8

R. (4) O God, let all the nations praise you!

May God have pity on us and bless us;
may he let his face shine upon us.

So may your way be known upon earth;
among all nations, your salvation.

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity;
the nations on the earth you guide.

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the peoples praise you, O God;
may all the peoples praise you!

May God bless us,

and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 11:13-15,29-32

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
I am speaking to you Gentiles.
Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles,
I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them.
For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world,
what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?
For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable.
Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that,
by virtue of the mercy shown to you,
they too may now receive mercy.
For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 15:21-28

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Glory to you, O Lord.

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon.

And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out,

"Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David!

My daughter is tormented by a demon."

But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her.

Jesus' disciples came and asked him,

"Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us."

He said in reply,

"I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me."

He said in reply,

"It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs."

She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters."

Then Jesus said to her in reply,

"O woman, great is your faith!

Let it be done for you as you wish."

And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Mass Guidelines

- Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass.
- Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church.
- Every other pew is roped off to help maintain social distancing.
- Please maintain social distancing before and after Mass.

Tuesday Morning Scripture Study

The Tuesday morning Scripture Study will now meet at its new time 9:30-10:45 a.m. every Tuesday morning in the Religious Ed Library. The first meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September 8. The group studies the readings for the upcoming Sunday in order to more fully understand and apply these passages to our daily lives. In addition, both Old and New Testaments are studied using various scholastic commentaries. The study helps with the learning of how the New Testament flows from the Old Testament and Judaism as we connect basic beliefs about God, creation, prayer and morality. All are welcome who are interested in learning more about scripture!

Bulletin Submissions

We would love to share your upcoming ministry events and photos of past events in our weekly bulletin. Please submit your information to the Bulletin Editor, Suzy Hyde at suzy@stangela.org two weeks before an event for timely publication. Photos are welcome at any time.

New Mass Time

The weekday Monday-Friday Mass at 8:30 a.m. will now be celebrated at 9:00 a.m. This new Mass time will be in effect for the 2020-2021 school year. The Saturday morning Mass will remain at 8:30 a.m.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Prayer for Start of the School Year

Blessed are you, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart: you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge to guide your people in all their ways. At the beginning of this new school we implore your mercy: bless the students, teachers, and staff of our Catholic schools that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from you and each other how to follow your Son Jesus. Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge; deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways; and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need.

Glory and praise to you, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever. Amen

MEDITATIONS ON THE "LUMINOUS MYSTERIES"

The First Luminous Mystery: Christ is Baptized in the Jordan.

When Jesus is baptized, the Father's voice is heard: "This is my beloved Son." All are called to become adopted sons and daughters of God through baptism. We pray that children in the womb may be protected, so that they may be born and welcomed into the Christian community by baptism.

Parish School of Religion (PSR) Program 2020-2021

"Parents are the first and most important educators of their own children, and they also possess a fundamental competence in this area: they are educators because they are parents. They share their educational mission with other individuals or institutions, such as the Church and State. But the mission of education must always be carried out in accordance with a proper application of the principal subsidiarity."
St. John Paul II, Letter to Families

The first catechists in any child's life are its parents or guardians. They are the ones who first provide a child with a concept of right and wrong; the ones who—for better or worse—make manifest the Father's love.

Mindful of this sacred responsibility, faith is meant to be shared within the home as part of daily life.

The home, or "domestic church," is intended to be a place where children can learn about, experience, and ultimately live out the faith as a true disciple of Christ.

With this in mind, our goal here at St. Angela Merici is to create a catechetical program for our parish youth that recognizes and supports parents in their essential role. Our hope is to enter into a sacred partnership with parents, working together to form these precious little ones so that they can internalize and embrace the truths of our Church within their lives.

For the 2020-2021 school year, this partnership will look a bit different than it has in years past due to the current situation caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. In an effort to adhere to all current guidelines and to keep our children and catechists as safe as possible, we will be switching predominantly to remote learning for this school year for grades K-8, utilizing curriculums with fully embedded online platforms. PSR lessons will be assigned by catechists on a weekly basis and students will have one week to complete all lesson components (i.e. readings, videos, games, and assessments) at home with their family (requiring approximately one hour of time per week). Optional supplemental resources will also be provided regularly, designed to help parents more fully incorporate faith into family living.

In addition to these weekly remote lessons, there will also be periodic on-campus events entitled Families in Faith.

These catechetical workshops are mandatory for both parents/guardians and students and will always occur on a Monday evening from 6-7:15 p.m. They are designed to better equip parents in their role as primary educators while also providing the students with opportunities for hands-on, larger group learning. Activities will include the celebration of the Mass, Stations of the Cross and opportunities for Reconciliation as well as developmentally appropriate lessons, crafts and activities.

A detailed 2020-2021 PSR Calendar can be found on our parish website as well as the necessary registration forms and waivers. Please note that there is a mandatory Parent/Guardian Orientation on Monday, August 31 at 6 pm in the Religious Ed Library. For more information, contact Audrey Huck, Catechetical Coordinator, at audrey@stangela.org.

SCS Prison Ministry Guest Speaker

On Wednesday, August 26, at 6:30 p.m. both in the St. Catherine of Siena Melancon Center and on Zoom, as a tragic victim/ survivor of crime, Ms. Parker Robinson will share her powerful and remarkable testimonial of healing, love and Christian forgiveness. Ms. Robinson is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and on the faculty of Tulane University School of Social Work. All are welcome to attend this moving story of Reconciliation.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING

With professional instruction, Natural Family Planning has proven itself to be safe, effective, and a moral way for couples to plan their families. It is a method which respects the meaning of human sexuality as God created it and thus marital love is enhanced and strengthened.

The Office of Marriage and Family Life is offering a class series in the SymptoPro™ Method of Natural Family Planning. This series will be conducted by Kelly Donahue of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. This is a virtual class series utilizing Zoom.

The dates of the class series are September 5, September 19, October 3 and October 31, 2020. The Zoom class hours are 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. The class on October 31, 2020 will be in-person rather than via Zoom. The cost is $105.00 and includes all classes and materials. Pre-registration is required. Register online <https://nolacatholicfla.regfox.com/sympto-thermal-nfp-course>.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

St. Angela Angels is dedicated to bringing financial assistance to our school families in need during this unprecedented health crisis.

CATHOLIC LENS SERIES: LIVING THE GOSPEL IN A FRACTURED CULTURE

Join us! The Catholic Community Foundation and Notre Dame Seminary are co-hosting the Fall 2020 Catholic Lens Series: Living the Gospel in a Fractured Culture.

In the four-part series, speakers will explore the foundational principles that guide our Catholic mission of unity in the world and bring a message of hope and encouragement.

The first event, Developing a Catholic Lens: The Church as a "Creative Minority," takes place on Wednesday, September 2, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

You may attend the series in-person or virtually. In-person events will be held at Schulte Auditorium at Notre Dame Seminary, and they will be socially-distanced with a 100 attendee maximum per event.

Registration is required. You can register at <https://ccfnola.org/events> or call Catholic Community Foundation Archdiocese of New Orleans at 504-596-3045 for more information.

Total Expenses	$1,092,734.83

Net Income

$ 90,181.22

Some specifics for the parish debt and special projects are noted below:

Parish Debt

The Parish loan balance as of June 30, 2020 totaled $205,558. The balance of our parish debt decreased this year by $32,687. This Includes: Principal Payments on Parish Debt ($42,874) and Interest Charged on Parish Debt ($10,187).

PPP Loan

The Parish and School applied and were approved for a PPP loan in 2019. We plan to apply for loan forgiveness once applications are accepted.

Capital Projects and Major Repairs

Capital Projects this year included Renovation of the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Room, renovation of the second bathroom in the Church, and installation of the new Stations of the Cross.. Thanks to the generosity of our parishioners, these projects were paid for in cash without increasing parish debt.

Looking Forward to Next year

Thank you for your continued generosity. We challenge you to continue to support our Parish. As you can see we have already continued the improvements to our Parish properties. From your generous donations received last year, we have already started the new Sacred Heart of Jesus Garden, renovating the kitchen in the gym, and repairing the sound system in the gym. We look forward to the year ahead.

Please feel free to call with any questions, comments, or suggestions.

God Bless

Rev. Clayton J. "Beau" Charbonnet, III

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Isaiah 22:19-23

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace:
"I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station.
On that day I will summon my servant
Eliakim, son of Hilkiah;
I will clothe him with your robe,
and gird him with your sash,
and give over to him your authority.
He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.
I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder;
when he opens, no one shall shut;
when he shuts, no one shall open.
I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot,
to be a place of honor for his family."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 138:1-2,2-3,6,8

R. (8bc) Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with all my heart, for you have heard the words of my mouth;
in the presence of the angels I will sing your praise;
I will worship at your holy temple.

R. Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

I will give thanks to your name,
because of your kindness and your truth:
When I called, you answered me;
you built up strength within me.

R. Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

The LORD is exalted, yet the lowly he sees,
and the proud he knows from afar.
Your kindness, O LORD, endures forever;
forsake not the work of your hands.

R. Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 11:33-36

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!

*For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?
Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?*

For from him and through him and for him are all things.
To him be glory forever. Amen.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Matthew 16:18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16:13-20

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Glory to you, O Lord.

and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples,

"Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"

They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets."
He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Simon Peter said in reply,

"You are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

Jesus said to him in reply,

"Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah.

For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father.

And so I say to you, you are Peter,
and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail
against it.

I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven.

Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven;

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Mass Guidelines

- Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass.
- Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church.
- Every other pew is roped off to help maintain social distancing.
- Please maintain social distancing before and after Mass.

SVDP Bucket Brigade

After all Masses next weekend, August 29 and 30, the St. Vincent de Paul Society at St. Angela Merici will be holding it's Bucket Brigade. Vincentians will be at all church exits accepting donations for the needy.

ADOPT-A-BABY PROGRAM BEGINS NEXT WEEK

The members of our parish family will have the opportunity next weekend to "spiritually" adopt a child who is newly conceived this month. You see, not all newly conceived babies are allowed to be born. In fact, almost 3500 babies lose their lives to abortion each day in the United States. It is these babies who are in danger of having their lives ended before birth that you are being asked to "adopt". You may adopt a child individually or as a family, name the child by giving the baby the humanity he or she deserves and pray for your unborn child and for all the unborn children. Published in the bulletin each month will be a baby "check-up" describing your baby's development. There are millions of unborn babies desperately in need of your prayers. Won't you please "spiritually adopt" a baby and share your love for life that God has given you.

If you are unable to come to church next weekend to sign up, you can spiritually adopt from home. Pick a name for your baby, start praying for him or her and check the bulletin for developmental updates.

Church Support

WEEK OF AUGUST 16, 2020

WEEKLY COLLECTION.....	$ 8,865.97
Maintenance Collection.....	$ 3,544.19

Thank you to all who support our parish each week!

SAM CYO Update

On Thursday, August 13th, a group of CYO members volunteered for the second shift in the Community Kitchen at Second Harvest Food Bank. They assisted in packing creole chicken meals for senior citizens. While we have worked in the sorting room before, this was our first time working in the kitchen.

Did you know that over 10,000 meals are prepared daily Monday through Friday at this location? Did you know that the chefs have worked in some of New Orleans finest restaurants? Did you know that almost all labor comes from volunteers? As a group we came away with a greater appreciation for Second Harvest and the work done there. We look forward to going back again!

PSR Program 2020-2021

In an effort to adhere to all current guidelines and to keep our children and catechists as safe as possible, we will be switching predominantly to remote learning for this school year for grades K-8, utilizing curriculums with fully embedded online platforms. PSR lessons will be assigned by catechists on a weekly basis and students will have one week to complete all lesson components (i.e. readings, videos, games, and assessments) at home with their family (requiring approximately one hour of time per week).

There is a mandatory Parent/Guardian Orientation on Monday, August 31 at 6 pm in the Religious Ed Library.

For more information, contact Audrey Huck, Catechetical Director, at audrey@stangela.org.

Tuesday Morning Scripture Study

The Tuesday morning Scripture Study will now meet at its new time from 9:30 a.m.-10:45 a.m. every Tuesday morning in the Religious Ed Library. The first meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, September 8. All are welcome who are interested in learning more about scripture!

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Prayer for Start of the School Year

Blessed are You, Lord God, Creator of body and mind and heart: You have sent the Spirit of Wisdom and knowledge to guide Your people in all their ways. At the beginning of this new school year we implore Your mercy: bless the students, teachers, and staff of our Catholic schools that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love as we learn from You and each other how to follow Your Son Jesus. Expand the horizons of our minds, that we may grow in wisdom, understanding, and knowledge; deepen our commitment to seek the truth of Your ways; and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need.

Glory and praise to You, Lord God, in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever. Amen

Confirmation Program 2020-2021

Though we've often heard of youth referred to as the "future of our Church," the truth is, parish youth are essential members of our Church community now. As such, it's important that our faith community find continuous ways to engage and form parish youth in the faith throughout their life, encouraging them to discover and utilize their God-given talents for His glory. One of the natural opportunities to accomplish this is through the sacrament of Confirmation. The third and final sacrament of Christian Initiation, Confirmation marks a period of maturation in the Christian life. Baptismal promises are renewed and the candidate receives a new outpouring of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, empowering them to go out and share the Good News of Christ by both word and example.

Here in the Archdiocese of New Orleans, this sacramental process traditionally takes place during the eleventh grade or junior year of high school. Our Confirmation program is open to any age appropriate youth who is already a member of St. Angela Merici parish or who lives within our parish boundaries. Confirmandi wishing to be confirmed at St. Angela Merici Church but who live outside our parish boundaries must first obtain a written letter of permission from their registered parish pastor.

This year's Confirmation has been scheduled for January 5, 2021. Preparation for this sacrament will take place within small group gatherings known as Discipleship Groups (D-Groups). These D-Groups will be gender exclusive, consisting of two safe-environment trained adult mentors and roughly 8-10 youth. They will meet a total of 8 sessions (roughly twice a month) at the date, time and location determined by that particular group from September-December. The D-Group must also come up with and complete a service project together by December 19 outside of their regular D-Group Gatherings. Examples/ideas will be provided by the Catechetical Director.

In addition to these D-Group gatherings, candidates must also participate in a mandatory Confirmation retreat which will take place on Saturday October 17 from 9am-5pm. Candidates will also attend an interview with either Fr. Beau Charbonnet, Fr. Dan Darmanin, or Audrey Huck our Catechetical Director in late November/early December to determine their readiness to receive this important sacrament.

Registrations are due by Monday, August 31 and there is a mandatory orientation for both parents and candidates on Thursday, September 3. Registration forms can be found on our parish website or at the church entrances.

For more information about the 2020-2021 Confirmation Program, please contact Catechetical Director, Audrey Huck, at audrey@stangela.org.

RCIA Program 2020-2021

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Maybe you were raised in the Church, but were never confirmed. Or, maybe you've been attending Mass for years with a spouse, waiting for an invitation to fully enter in. If so, then perhaps RCIA is for you. Standing for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, this ministry is the Church's time-tested process of guiding and welcoming individuals into full communion with the Catholic Church. This includes persons who have never been baptized, those who have been baptized in another Christian denomination and are interested in converting to Catholicism, and Catholic individuals who were baptized, but have not yet received their Communion and/or Confirmation.

RCIA is designed to allow individuals, no matter where they are in the faith journey, to come together to explore and grow in the faith. It's a place to ask questions about Catholicism, grow in your personal relationship with Christ, listen to the testimonies of presenters, and, if you choose, become a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church.

We invite all parishioners to become part of this important process. If you are someone who has been sitting on the fence, contemplating Catholicism, come explore the faith with us! If you are looking for a way to live out your baptismal calling to evangelize, then perhaps you're being called to get involved as a ministry volunteer. You can also support the ministry through your prayers, interceding for any potential candidates and catechumens.

For more information about St. Angela Merici's RCIA program, contact coordinator Jerome Ibarra at parish@stangela.org or 504-835-0324.

SCS Prison Ministry Guest Speaker

On Wednesday, August 26, at 6:30 p.m. both in the St. Catherine of Siena Melancon Center and on Zoom, as a tragic victim/ survivor of crime, Ms. Parker Robinson will share her powerful and remarkable testimonial of healing, love and Christian forgiveness. Ms. Robinson is a member of Trinity Episcopal Church and on the faculty of Tulane University School of Social Work. All are welcome to attend this moving story of Reconciliation.

CATHOLIC LENS SERIES: LIVING THE GOSPEL IN A FRACTURED CULTURE

Join us! The Catholic Community Foundation and Notre Dame Seminary are co-hosting the Fall 2020 Catholic Lens Series: Living the Gospel in a Fractured Culture. In the four-part series, speakers will explore the foundational principles that guide our Catholic mission of unity in the world and bring a message of hope and encouragement. The first event, Developing a Catholic Lens: The Church as a "Creative Minority," takes place on Wednesday, September 2, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. You may attend the series in-person or virtually. In-person events will be held at Schulte Auditorium at Notre Dame Seminary, and they will be socially-distanced with a 100 attendee maximum per event. Registration is required. You can register at <https://ccfnola.org/events> or call Catholic Community Foundation Archdiocese of New Orleans at 504-596-3045 for more information.

Love Life Amendment

The Louisiana Conference of Catholic Bishops strongly supports the Love Life Amendment, which would successfully amend the Louisiana constitution and thereby continue to strengthen our commitment to end abortion in our state. Citizens of our state will have the opportunity to affirmatively state that they "Love Life" on November 3—the same day as the United States presidential election—by favoring this amendment. As Catholics, we are called to ensure that life is indeed valued and that the dignity of all is upheld. This is the foundational principle of our social teaching and must be intentionally considered in all that we do. Passage of the Love Life Amendment would have a dual effect. Primarily, it will ensure that the state of Louisiana cannot establish a right to abortion at present or if Roe v. Wade is overturned in the future. Secondly, it will prohibit the funding of abortion through tax payer dollars within our constitution. Without such an amendment, the invalidation of the many anti-abortion laws we have all advocated so strongly for in Louisiana remains a possibility. The Louisiana Conference of Catholic bishops therefore enthusiastically supports the Love Life Amendment, and encourages all to approach this initiative with a formed conscience and a commitment to defend the sanctity of human life and uphold the dignity of all people.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

A LETTER FROM FR. BEAU

Dear Parishioners,

Three weeks ago, I had asked for prayers for my little sister, Elise Charbonnet Angelette. I had mentioned her 6-year battle with metastatic breast cancer, and the news that her situation was no longer treatable. On Sunday, August 16th, my sister passed away. We, as a family, spent as much time as we could with her in her last 2½ weeks, and we had the honor of being by her side when she peacefully passed. That Sunday, we had set a time for Mass at her home, and we prepared to celebrate Mass at 1pm. Our family was gathered around her bed and my makeshift altar was by her side. We were just about to start Mass when her breathing changed, and within minutes she passed, surrounded by a family that loved her dearly.

I want you to know, that I consider all of your prayers the prayers of an extended family. I am so grateful to God that He assigned me here through Archbishop Aymond, and that Elise and her family had your prayer support over these last 6 years. She became, by extension, part of our St. Angela Merici family.

Please keep her husband, Jason, and their 5 kids in your prayers. They are a family of tremendous faith, with very human hearts. Personally, my heart is heavy. Grief hits in waves, and sometimes you don't know what will trigger it. At the same time, I have never felt such hope in Jesus. In the last 72 hrs. of her life, we were able to get a glimpse of Heaven through Elise and God's providence. His hope and promise are truly overwhelming. God is faithful.

We celebrated her funeral Mass on August 20th and the response and support was incredible. I want to thank Fr. Dan for leading Adoration and the rosary the night prior to her funeral, and the many people who supported my family that night through prayer.

May God bless you and your families. May we truly appreciate each other, knowing that every person is precious in God's eyes and every day is a gift.

Know that Fr. Dan and I pray for you daily.

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Jeremiah 20:7-9

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped;
you were too strong for me, and you triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter;
everyone mocks me.
Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day.
I say to myself, I will not mention him,
I will speak in his name no more.
But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart,
imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 63: 2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9

R. (2b) My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory,
For your kindness is a greater good than life;
my lips shall glorify you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

Thus will I bless you while I live;
lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.
As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied, and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

You are my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me.

R. My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 12: 1-2

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.
Do not conform yourselves to this age
but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God,
what is good and pleasing and perfect.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Ephesians 1: 17-18

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ lighten the eyes of our hearts, that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 16: 21-27

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised.
Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him,
"God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you."
He turned and said to Peter,
"Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."
Then Jesus said to his disciples,
"Whoever wishes to come after me must deny
himself,

take up his cross, and follow me.

For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it,
but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.
What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?
Or what can one give in exchange for his life?
For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Mass Guidelines

- Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass.
- Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church.
- Every other pew is roped off to help maintain social distancing.
- Please maintain social distancing before and after Mass.

SALA Update

St. Angela Ladies Auxiliary (SALA) will NOT be meeting on Tuesday, September 1, 2020, due to the pandemic. Details regarding the October meeting will be posted in the bulletin at a later date. Please continue to stay safe.

Pro-Life Ministry

St. Angela Pro-Life Ministry will not be holding our monthly meeting until further notice. Please check your email and bulletin for updates regarding our Spiritual Adoption and any other upcoming events.

SECOND LUMINOUS MYSTERY: CHRIST IS MADE KNOWN AT THE WEDDING OF CANA

Jesus revealed His glory by the miracle at Cana. The new couple was blessed not only with wine, but with faith in Christ. Let us pray for strong marriages rooted in the Lord and open to the gift of new life.

Wednesday Adoration

When he returned to his disciples he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour?" Matthew 26:40

Please join us on Wednesday's from 6:00-7:00 p.m. in church to spend an hour with Jesus in Eucharistic Adoration.

Church Support

WEEK OF AUGUST 23, 2020

WEEKLY COLLECTION.....$12,074.59

Thank you to all who support our parish each week!

Young at Heart Celebrates 41 Years

Congratulations to St. Angela Merici's Young at Heart organization for celebrating 41 years of providing spiritual, cultural and social enrichment to our seniors.

Young at Heart Seniors scheduled to come to the September meeting will meet on Thursday, September 3, 2020, 12:00 p.m. at Lakeshore Playground. Please refer to the NEWSLETTER you received in the mail for the month you will begin joining us at the meetings.

JOAN OF ARC members will join us in September and LITTLE FLOWERS members will come in October.

Please DO NOT come to a meeting on a month you are not assigned.

Dues of $8.00 will be collected. Name badge MUST be worn.

Call Carol at 504-615-1818 for any questions.

Knights of Columbus

The Knights of Columbus sold approximately 270 Smoked Chicken Dinners last weekend. Thanks to all who supported their fundraising efforts. The proceeds will benefit the parish and school.

PSR Program 2020-2021

In an effort to adhere to all current guidelines and to keep our children and catechists as safe as possible, we will be switching predominantly to remote learning for this school year for grades K-8, utilizing curriculums with fully embedded online platforms. PSR lessons will be assigned by catechists on a weekly basis and students will have one week to complete all lesson components (i.e. readings, videos, games, and assessments) at home with their family (requiring approximately one hour of time per week).

There is a mandatory Parent/Guardian Orientation on Monday, August 31 at 6 pm in the Religious Ed Library.

Sanctuary Memorials

Sanctuary Candle this week burns in memory of

Virginia Danahay

Flowers Memorials

Sanctuary Flowers are in honor of

St. Angela Merici Parishioners

Funerals

Please Pray for the Repose of the Souls of:

Joyce Hotard
John A. Cousins, Jr.

Baptisms

Through the waters of Baptism we welcome the following into the Church:

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

St. Michael's Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Confirmation Program 2020-2021

Though we've often heard of youth referred to as the "future of our Church," the truth is, parish youth are essential members of our Church community now. As such, it's important that our faith community find continuous ways to engage and form parish youth in the faith throughout their life, encouraging them to discover and utilize their God-given talents for His glory. One of the natural opportunities to accomplish this is through the sacrament of Confirmation. The third and final sacrament of Christian Initiation, Confirmation marks a period of maturation in the Christian life. Baptismal promises are renewed and the candidate receives a new outpouring of the gifts of the Holy Spirit, empowering them to go out and share the Good News of Christ by both word and example.

Here in the Archdiocese of New Orleans, this sacramental process traditionally takes place during the eleventh grade or junior year of high school. Our Confirmation program is open to any age appropriate youth who is already a member of St. Angela Merici parish or who lives within our parish boundaries. Confirmandi wishing to be confirmed at St. Angela Merici Church but who live outside our parish boundaries must first obtain a written letter of permission from their registered parish pastor.

This year's Confirmation has been scheduled for January 5, 2021. Preparation for this sacrament will take place within small group gatherings known as Discipleship Groups (D-Groups). These D-Groups will be gender exclusive, consisting of two safe-environment trained adult mentors and roughly 8-10 youth. They will meet a total of 8 sessions (roughly twice a month) at the date, time and location determined by that particular group from September-December. The D-Group must also come up with and complete a service project together by December 19 outside of their regular D-Group Gatherings. Examples/ideas will be provided by the Catechetical Director.

In addition to these D-Group gatherings, candidates must also participate in a mandatory Confirmation retreat which will take place on Saturday October 17 from 9am-5pm. Candidates will also attend an interview with either Fr. Beau Charbonnet, Fr. Dan Darmanin, or Audrey Huck our Catechetical Director in late November/early December to determine their readiness to receive this important sacrament.

Registrations are due by Monday, August 31 and there is a mandatory orientation for both parents and candidates on Thursday, September 3. Registration forms can be found on our parish website or at the church entrances.

For more information about the 2020-2021 Confirmation Program, please contact Catechetical Director, Audrey Huck, at audrey@stangela.org.

RCIA Program 2020-2021

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Maybe you were raised in the Church, but were never confirmed. Or, maybe you've been attending Mass for years with a spouse, waiting for an invitation to fully enter in. If so, then perhaps RCIA is for you. Standing for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, this ministry is the Church's time-tested process of guiding and welcoming individuals into full communion with the Catholic Church. This includes persons who have never been baptized, those who have been baptized in another Christian denomination and are interested in converting to Catholicism, and Catholic individuals who were baptized, but have not yet received their Communion and/or Confirmation.

RCIA is designed to allow individuals, no matter where they are in the faith journey, to come together to explore and grow in the faith. It's a place to ask questions about Catholicism, grow in your personal relationship with Christ, listen to the testimonies of presenters, and, if you choose, become a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church.

We invite all parishioners to become part of this important process. If you are someone who has been sitting on the fence, contemplating Catholicism, come explore the faith with us! If you are looking for a way to live out your baptismal calling to evangelize, then perhaps you're being called to get involved as a ministry volunteer. You can also support the ministry through your prayers, interceding for any potential candidates and catechumens.

For more information about St. Angela Merici's RCIA program, contact coordinator Jerome Ibarra at jerome@stangela.org or 504-835-0324.

CATHOLIC LENS SERIES: LIVING THE GOSPEL IN A FRACTURED CULTURE

Join us! The Catholic Community Foundation and Notre Dame Seminary are co-hosting the Fall 2020 Catholic Lens Series: Living the Gospel in a Fractured Culture. In the four-part series, speakers will explore the foundational principles that guide our Catholic mission of unity in the world and bring a message of hope and encouragement.

The first event, Developing a Catholic Lens: The Church as a "Creative Minority," takes place on Wednesday, September 2, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. You may attend the series in-person or virtually. In-person events will be held at Schulte Auditorium at Notre Dame Seminary, and they will be socially-distanced with a 100 attendee maximum per event. Registration is required. You can register at <https://ccfnola.org/events> or call Catholic Community Foundation Archdiocese of New Orleans at 504-596-3045 for more information.

FORMING CONSCIENCES FOR FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

Important national, state and local elections are coming up this fall. To help Catholics understand their political responsibility in voting, St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, 444 Metairie Rd., Metairie, LA, will host three talks on the U.S. Bishops' document, "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship." Youth Minister and Theologian Ron Courtade will give the presentations in St. Francis Church on three successive Wednesday evenings from 7:00-8:00 pm: August 26, September 2 and September 9. It will be beneficial to attend a talk even if you can't make all three talks.

Ron Courtade has a Masters of Theology degree from Notre Dame Seminary and has served in the Archdiocese as a Director of Religious Education and High School Religion Teacher. Come be informed on key principles for consideration in preparing to vote.

We pray that through the intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor we will be spared damage to life and property during this hurricane season.

Love Life Amendment

The Louisiana Conference of Catholic Bishops strongly supports the Love Life Amendment, which would successfully amend the Louisiana constitution and thereby continue to strengthen our commitment to end abortion in our state. Citizens of our state will have the opportunity to affirmatively state that they "Love Life" on November 3—the same day as the United States presidential election—by favoring this amendment. As Catholics, we are called to ensure that life is indeed valued and that the dignity of all is upheld. This is the foundational principle of our social teaching and must be intentionally considered in all that we do. Passage of the Love Life Amendment would have a dual effect. Primarily, it will ensure that the state of Louisiana cannot establish a right to abortion at present or if Roe v. Wade is overturned in the future. Secondly, it will prohibit the funding of abortion through tax payer dollars within our constitution. Without such an amendment, the invalidation of the many anti abortion laws we have all advocated so strongly for in Louisiana remains a possibility. The Louisiana Conference of Catholic bishops therefore enthusiastically supports the Love Life Amendment, and encourages all to approach this initiative with a formed conscience and a commitment to defend the sanctity of human life and uphold the dignity of all people.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

A LETTER FROM ARCHBISHOP AYMOND

Archdiocese of New Orleans

Office of the Archbishop

7887 Walmsley Avenue

September 2020

To: Clergy, Religious and Laity of the Archdiocese of New Orleans

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

It is our archdiocesan tradition to offer the Sacrament of Reconciliation, better known as confession, on a weekday evening near the Feast of the Exaltation of the Cross. I am pleased to inform you that many people in the Archdiocese of New Orleans have taken advantage of this opportunity.

This year confessions will be available on Wednesday, September 9, 2020 from 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM. Please consider taking advantage of this opportunity to invite the healing Christ into your heart with his promise of mercy.

Pope Francis in talking about our weakness and sin said, “Jesus does not want to beat us and condemn us. He gave his life for us ... He is always looking for a way to get to the heart ... there is forgiveness.”

Please consider having your family come to church together for Confession on Wednesday, September 9.

Wishing you God’s blessings, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond
Archbishop of New Orleans

TWENTY– THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Ezekiel 33:7-9

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel

Thus says the LORD:

You, son of man, I have appointed watchman for the house of Israel;
when you hear me say anything, you shall warn them for me.

If I tell the wicked, “O wicked one, you shall surely die,” and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way,
the wicked shall die for his guilt,
but I will hold you responsible for his death.

But if you warn the wicked, trying to turn him from his way,
and he refuses to turn from his way,
he shall die for his guilt,
but you shall save yourself.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 95: 1-2, 6-7, 8-9

R. (8) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us sing joyfully to the LORD;
let us acclaim the rock of our salvation.

Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us joyfully sing psalms to him.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, let us bow down in worship;
let us kneel before the LORD who made us.

For he is our God,

and we are the people he shepherds, the flock he guides.

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Oh, that today you would hear his voice:
“Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as in the day of Massah in the desert,
Where your fathers tempted me;

they tested me though they had seen my works.”

TWENTY– THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 13: 8-10

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another;
for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law.
The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery;
you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet, "
and whatever other commandment there may be,
are summed up in this saying, namely,
"You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
Love does no evil to the neighbor;
hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

2 Corinthians 5:19

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 18: 15-20

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples:

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that 'every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses.' If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray,

it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father.

For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PARISH NEWS

Mass Guidelines

- Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church.
- Every other pew is roped off to help maintain social distancing.
- Please maintain social distancing before and after Mass.

FIRST MONTH AFTER CONCEPTION

Your baby has been quite active over the past month. Already he or she is 10,000 times bigger than at conception. By the 20th day his or her nervous system, including the brain and spinal cord, has developed. During the first 4 weeks, the heart began to beat on the 22nd day and is pumping blood through the circulatory system. The blood type may be different from the mother's.

A DAY OF REMEMBRANCE:

Father Frank Pavone asks that we pray with him on Saturday, September 12th. We will be praying the Rosary following the 8:30 am mass for all those who died from Abortion.

On September 10th, we will be praying at the abortion facility. Judy will leave the parking lot after the 9:00 a.m. mass if you like to join us.

There will be no meeting until further notice.

CHURCH SUPPORT

WEEK OF AUGUST 30, 2020

WEEKLY COLLECTION.....$11,540.81

Thank you to all who support our parish each week!

Parish Office Closed

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday, September 7, in observance of Labor Day. The office will re-open on Tuesday, September 8, at 9:00 a.m.

Note: There will be no 6:15 a.m. Mass on Monday, September 7. Please join us in celebrating the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at 9:00 a.m.

St. Vincent de Paul Update

St. Angela Merici's St. Vincent de Paul was honored to host the Blessed Frederic Ozanam Festival Mass on Saturday, August 29th. The East Jefferson Council came together to celebrate Blessed Ozanam's feast day, which also included the Installation of the new EJ President and a recommitment of active member vows.

THANK YOU ST. ANGELA MERICI PARISHIONERS

Last Sunday, parishioners unselfish and loving generosity made the SVDP Bucket Brigade the most successful ever! You have truly touched the spirit and essence of what SVDP is committed to do.

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Gracious and loving God, help the men and women of our archdiocese to hear your call to serve. Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence. Open the hearts of many and raise up faithful servants of the Gospel, dedicated holy priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers, who will give of themselves for your people and their needs. Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael's Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Catechetical Corner

Things have truly been busy with our Catechetical programs over the month of August and early September. Parish School of Religion parents and students met Monday, August 31, for a mandatory orientation in the Church. During this time they met their catechists for the year, received a curriculum overview, and learned about our upcoming Families in Faith gatherings. Speaking of the latter, we are still in need of some adult volunteers to assist with our Families in Faith events scheduled for October 19, November 30, January 19, March 15, and May 10. Always occurring on a Monday from 6-7:15 pm, these evenings are intended to help equip parents as their child's primary religious educator while also enabling the children to receive some on-campus, hands on instruction. Evenings will also include opportunities to participate in liturgies and sacraments. If you have a love for Christ and are interested in sharing it with our parents and children, please contact me at audrey@stangela.org.

Confirmation Preparation, meanwhile, is rocking and rolling thanks to an incredible team of adult mentors. Our team met Thursday, August 27, for a training session and the enthusiasm in the air was tangible! The Holy Spirit is definitely moving here at St. Angela Merici. A week later, parents and candidates attended a mandatory orientation in the gym on Thursday, Sept. 3, receiving an overview of program objectives and requirements.

D-Groups will officially begin meeting the week of September 14. Though registration was officially scheduled to close August 31, we will accept late registrations through September 7. All registration forms and requirements can be found on the parish website.

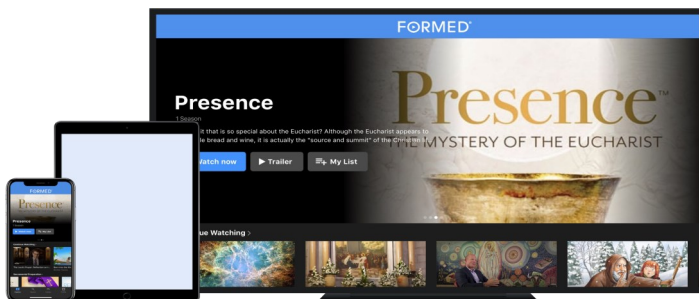

As always, please continue to keep our team of volunteers, youth, and their parents in your prayers. Pray that God will use these endeavors for His glory, enabling a love for Jesus and His Church to truly take root in these children/teen's hearts and minds.

In Christ,

Audrey Huck
Catechetical Director

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary

September 8

The Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary was first celebrated in the Eastern Church, and spread to the Roman Church from the seventh through the ninth centuries. It is celebrated on September 8, exactly nine months after the celebration of the Immaculate Conception.

Love Life Amendment

Vote YES on #1 for the pro-life amendment to the Louisiana Constitution!

Vote Yes on Nov. 3, 2020!

What's the Love Life Amendment?

In Louisiana, we love babies and their mothers. Sadly, 13 other states have protected abortion in their state constitutions. By passing the Love Life Amendment, we will protect life by making sure there is no right to abortion or the funding of abortion in the Louisiana Constitution.

When is the Vote?

The Love Life Amendment will be on the ballot on Tuesday, November 3, 2020, the same day as the Presidential election. Vote YES on 11/3/2020!

Forming Consciences For Faithful Citizens

Important national, state and local elections are coming up this fall. To help Catholics understand their political responsibility in voting, St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, 444 Metairie Rd., Metairie, LA, will host three talks on the U.S. Bishops' document, "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship." Youth Minister and Theologian Ron Courtade will give the presentations in St. Francis Church on three successive Wednesday evenings from 7:00-8:00 pm: August 26, September 2 and September 9. It will be beneficial to attend a talk even if you can't make all three talks. Ron Courtade has a Masters of Theology degree from Notre Dame Seminary and has served in the Archdiocese as a Director of Religious Education and High School Religion Teacher. Come be informed on key principles for consideration in preparing to vote.

NATURAL FAMILY PLANNING

The Office of Marriage and Family Life is offering a class series in the SymptoPro™ Method of Natural Family Planning. This series will be conducted by Kelly Donahue of the Archdiocese of New Orleans. This is a virtual class series utilizing Zoom. The dates of the class series are September 5, September 19, October 3 and October 31, 2020. The Zoom class hours are 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. The class on October 31, 2020 will be in-person rather than via Zoom. The cost is $105.00 and includes all classes and materials. Pre-registration is required. Register online <https://nolacatholicfla.regfox.com/sympto-thermal-nfp-course>.

Metairie Magnificat Chapter

Friday arrival: 3:00-6:00 p.m.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

A LETTER FROM FR. BEAU

Dear Parishioners,

We are pleased to welcome Mr. Wade LeBrun as our new Director of Maintenance. Wade comes to us from Archdiocese of New Orleans Retreat Center, dedicated to Our Lady of the Cenacle. He served as Director of Operations for 23 years. Welcome, Wade!

I am also pleased to announce that we have launched our new website. Some years back we went to Deep Fried Advertising and had them redesign our website for the school to make it even more efficient, updated and aesthetically pleasing. After months of preparation and consultation, Deep Fried has completed our website for the Church. I want to thank Fr. Dan Darmanin, Konnie Duncan and Suzy Hyde for all of their efforts in working with this agency. Check out our site at www.stangela.org.

I also want to thank you for your very generous response to our Lake Charles Relief Fund Collection. We took this collection on a Labor Day weekend because of our desire to get the collection out quickly, and still collected $12,760.00! With little notice, our parish stepped up to the plate and helped out another diocese in need. We will still accept donations online, in the parish office, or in the general collection. Please indicate your intention by specifying "Lake Charles Relief Fund."

On a personal note, I want to thank everyone for your prayers, Masses, and condolence letters for my sister, Elise. My family feels the prayers of our parish, and I feel incredibly blessed to know your faith, love and support. From the bottom of my heart, I thank you.

As always, know that Fr. Dan and I pray for you daily.

TWENTY– FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading

Sirach 27:30-28:7

A reading from the Book of Sirach

Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight.
The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail.
Forgive your neighbor's injustice;
then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.
Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD?
Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself,
can he seek pardon for his own sins?
If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath,
who will forgive his sins?
Remember your last days, set enmity aside;
remember death and decay, and cease from sin!
Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor;
remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

R. (8) The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
and all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and forget not all his benefits.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

He pardons all your iniquities, heals all your ills.
He redeems your life from destruction, crowns you with kindness and compassion.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

He will not always chide,
nor does he keep his wrath forever.
Not according to our sins does he deal with us,
nor does he requite us according to our crimes.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

For as the heavens are high above the earth, so surpassing is his kindness toward those who fear him.
As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he put our transgressions from us.

R. The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

TWENTY– FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Second Reading

Romans 14: 7-9

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:

None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself.

For if we live, we live for the Lord,

and if we die, we die for the Lord;

so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

For this is why Christ died and came to life,

that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 13:34

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord:
love one another as I have loved you.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 18: 21-35

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew
Glory to you, O Lord.

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

PARISH NEWS

Mass Guidelines

- Face masks are required to be worn in church throughout Mass.
- Please use hand sanitizer provided and please wipe down your seating area upon leaving church.
- Every other pew is roped off to help maintain social distancing.
- Please maintain social distancing before and after Mass.

THIRD LUMINOUS MYSTERY:

Christ proclaims the Kingdom and Calls all to Conversion.

“Repent and believe the Good News” Let us pray that these first words of Jesus’ public ministry may be heard by all who have committed abortion. May they know that the Lord calls them to conversion, and may they experience life-giving repentance.

Catholic Communications Campaign

The Catholic Communications Campaign is set for September 19-20, 2020, in the Archdiocese of New Orleans. This collection supports the evangelizing work of the church throughout the world by supporting media: newspapers, television, radio and digital or online media. Fifty percent of the funds collected in the Archdiocese of New Orleans remain here to support Catholic new media efforts and the Clarion Herald. To learn more about the national program visit www.usccb.org/cc and locally visit <http://nolacatholic.org>.

CHURCH SUPPORT

WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 6, 2020

WEEKLY COLLECTION.....$ 17,784.50
Lake Charles Relief.....$ 12,760.00

Thank you to all who support our parish each week!

Flag Ceremony

The Scouts and Knights of Columbus came together last weekend to raise the American Flag and in the evening was properly illuminated by new lights. While raising the flag, the Scouts had a short ceremony and said the Pledge of Allegiance.

Thanks to the Knights of Columbus for providing the new flag and lights.

Wedding Anniversary Mass

On Sunday, October 11, during the 11:00 a.m. Mass, St. Angela Merici will honor couples from our parish who are celebrating their 25th, 50th, 55th, 60th, 65th and any anniversary over 65 years. We invite these couples and their families to attend this Mass. Please contact the parish office by Monday, October 5, 2020 if you plan to attend.

There will not be a reception this year due to COVID restrictions.

Blessing of the Pets

In celebration of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, bring your pets to receive a special blessing on Sunday, October 4, at 6:30 p.m. between the annex and the gym.

The Hospitality Committee will not meet on Monday, September 14. The next meeting will be on Monday, October 5, in the Religious Ed Library.

Sanctuary Memorials

Sanctuary Candle this week burns in memory of

Russell & Angelina Talamo

Flowers Memorials

Elise Charbonnet Angelette

Memorare

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored your help, or sought your intercession, was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence I fly unto you, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother. To you do I come, before you I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in your mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

Gracious and loving God, help the men and women of our archdiocese to hear your call to serve. Our needs are great and our people thirst for your presence. Open the hearts of many and raise up faithful servants of the Gospel, dedicated holy priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers, who will give of themselves for your people and their needs. Bless those who are serving now with courage and perseverance. Grant that many will be inspired by their example and faith. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Michael's Prayer

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Catechetical Corner

Things have truly been busy with our Catechetical programs over the month of August and early September. Parish School of Religion parents and students met Monday, August 31, for a mandatory orientation in the Church. During this time they met their catechists for the year, received a curriculum overview, and learned about our upcoming Families in Faith gatherings. Speaking of the latter, we are still in need of some adult volunteers to assist with our Families in Faith events scheduled for October 19, November 30, January 19, March 15, and May 10. Always occurring on a Monday from 6-7:15 pm, these evenings are intended to help equip parents as their child's primary religious educator while also enabling the children to receive some on-campus, hands on instruction. Evenings will also include opportunities to participate in liturgies and sacraments. If you have a love for Christ and are interested in sharing it with our parents and children, please contact me at audrey@stangela.org.

Confirmation Preparation, meanwhile, is rocking and rolling thanks to an incredible team of adult mentors. Our team met Thursday, August 27, for a training session and the enthusiasm in the air was tangible! The Holy Spirit is definitely moving here at St. Angela Merici. A week later, parents and candidates attended a mandatory orientation in the gym on Thursday, Sept. 3, receiving an overview of program objectives and requirements.

D-Groups will officially begin meeting the week of September 14. Though registration was officially scheduled to close August 31, we will accept late registrations through September 14. All registration forms and requirements can be found on the parish website.

As always, please continue to keep our team of volunteers, youth, and their parents in your prayers. Pray that God will use these endeavors for His glory, enabling a love for Jesus and His Church to truly take root in these children/teen's hearts and minds.

In Christ,

Audrey Huck
Catechetical Director

RCIA

Do you have questions about the Catholic Church? Do you desire to enter the Catholic Church? Join Us at RCIA on Thursday, September 17, at 7:00 p.m. in the Religious Ed Library.

We invite all parishioners to become part of this important process. If you are someone who has been sitting on the fence, contemplating Catholicism, come explore the faith with us! If you are looking for a way to live out your baptismal calling to evangelize, then perhaps you're being called to get involved as a ministry volunteer. You can also support the ministry through your prayers, interceding for any potential candidates and catechumens .

For more information about St. Angela Merici's RCIA program, contact coordinator Jerome Ibarra at jerome@stangela.org or 504-835-0324.

*Forgive your neighbor's injustice;
then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.*

"We pray that the planet's resources will not be plundered, but shared in a just and respectful manner."

68th ANNUAL RED MASS

The Saint Thomas More Catholic Lawyers Association, in conjunction with the Archdiocese of New Orleans, announce the celebration of the 68th Annual Red Mass, invoking the Holy Spirit upon the bench and bar of the State of Louisiana, on Monday, October 5, 2020 at 9:30 a.m. at St. Louis Cathedral in New Orleans. Most Reverend Gregory M. Aymond, Archbishop of New Orleans, will be the principal celebrant. Reverend Mike Kettenring, a priest of the Archdiocese of New Orleans, will be the homilist. Members of the bench and bar of the State of Louisiana, as well as the public, are invited to attend. Masks are required and social distancing will be observed in the Cathedral.

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship

Talks Rescheduled at St. Francis Xavier Church on September 16th. Important national, state and local elections are coming up this fall. To help Catholics understand their political responsibility in voting, St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, 444 Metairie Rd., Metairie, LA, will host two talks on the U.S. Bishops' document, "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship." (NOTE: The talks and times were revamped after being postponed due to the hurricane threat.) Youth Minister and Theologian Ron Courtade will give the presentations in St. Francis Church at 7 pm on September 16. Ron Courtade has a Masters of Theology degree from Notre Dame Seminary and has served in the Archdiocese as a Director of Religious Education and High School Religion Teacher. Come be informed on key principles for consideration in preparing to vote.

Metairie Magnificat Chapter

"Be Still and Know That I Am God"

We are most honored to announce that the Most Reverend Alfred C. Hughes will be the retreat master for Magnificat Metairie's semi-annual retreat in September. The retreat will be held on:

Friday, September 25 - 3 pm

Saturday, September 26 all day

Sunday, September 27 ends at 2 pm

The retreat center has put a limit of 25 participants during this time. Each participant will have a private room and masks are required while in the building.

Because of our non-profit status, payment must be made in 2 checks:

Check 1: Magnificat Metairie, $75.00 non-refundable deposit due NOW. Limited capacity necessitates immediate registration.

Check 2: Archdiocese of New Orleans Retreat Center, $200.00 due by September 15th.

For more information please call Melanie at 504-710-6458 or Lisa at 504-909-6832.

Family Prayer

Loving and faithful God, through the years the people of our Archdiocese have appreciated the prayers and love of Our Lady of Prompt Succor in times of war, disaster, epidemic and illness. We come to you, Father, with Mary our Mother, and ask you to help us in the battle of today against violence, murder and racism. We implore you to give us your wisdom that we may build a community founded on the values of Jesus, which gives respect to the life and dignity of all people. Bless parents that they may form their children in faith. Bless and protect our youth that they may be peacemakers of our time. Give consolation to those who have lost loved ones through violence. Hear our prayer and give us the perseverance to be a voice for life and human dignity in our community. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Mother Henriette Delille, pray for us that we may be a holy family.

Love Life Amendment

Vote YES on #1 for the pro-life amendment to the Louisiana Constitution!

Vote Yes on Nov. 3, 2020!

What's the Love Life Amendment?

In Louisiana, we love babies and their mothers. Sadly, 13 other states have protected abortion in their state constitutions. By passing the Love Life Amendment, we will protect life by making sure there is no right to abortion or the funding of abortion in the Louisiana Constitution.

When is the Vote?

The Love Life Amendment will be on the ballot on Tuesday, November 3, 2020, the same day as the Presidential election. Vote YES on 11/3/2020!
